

THE NEEDLE.

- The gay belles of fashion may boast of excelling
- In waltz or cotillion-at whist or quadrille,

And seek admiration by vauntingly telling

Of drawing and painting, and musical skill;

But give me the fair one, of country or city,

Whose home and its duties are dear to her heart

Who cheerfully warbles some rustical ditty.

While plying the needle with exquisite art-bright little needle-the swift The flying needle,

The needle directed by beauty and art.

If love have a potent, a magical token, A talisman pow'rful resistless & true;

A charm that is never evaded or broken,

A witchery certain the heart to subdue;

'Tis this-and his armory never has furnish'd

So keen and unerring, or polish'd a dart;

Let beauty direct it, so pointed and burnished.

And oh! it is certain of touching the heart.

Be wise then, ve maidens, nor seek admiration

By dressing for conquest and flirting with all,

You never, whate'er be your fortune or station. Appear half so lovely at ront or at bali. As gaily conven'd at a work-covered table. Each cheerfully acting and playing her part. Beguilong the task with a song or a fable, And plying the needle with exquisite art.

Southern Citizen.

THE Subscriber proposes to publish, in the town of Greensborouga, North Carolina, a spleudid, superfine imperial newspaper, bearing the above title. Thousands of dollars are annually sent to the North to purchase periodical intelligence and literature; because the wants of the home.

It is the purpose of the "Citizen" to fill this vacuum. It will contain every thing of interest, in literature, politics, religion and morality, that is to be found in the Northern publications or in high toned Interary Joarnals of Europe; to which we shall add a rich fund of domestic and loca!

he of general interest. Under this head i we shall arrange all such legal decisions acts of Congress and statutes of the State Legi latures, as may be of service to all our citizens in the ordinary transactions of life. 6 Literature -Here is an immente field open before us, in which our readers shall ramble unconfined. We shall exchange for the richest gems of literature wit and sentiment, both in Europe and America: and with the assistance of a few literary correspondents of the first order, we intend to place the "Citizen" above any other family newspaper in the United States. It has become popular to speak of our journey through this world, as strewed with thorns, and overshadowed with gloom; but we intend to roll away the dander, and make it manifest to all our patrons that most of their troubles are unsubstantial and visionary. Flowers may be plucked even from the thorus which beset our path. 7. News .- The world is at this time in (wful commotion. Tyrants look upon the march of liberty and tremble: The accumulated gloom of centuries is rapidly retreating before the stately stepping of the dust from the feet of their sovereigns, are now trampling crowns onder their feet -and thrones are tottering to prostration!

specience of others. We shall have the from each State in the Union, and from our tootsteps, as a people, in the ways of prosperity and peace, shall be carefully collected, condensed and spread before heart. suitably interspersed with biographical character and bearing-in the language of would also set apart a separate head in our ed neutrality between the contending par-their charms, we shall blame where we must! These are perilous times; and a responas eternity, hangs over every man who continually cherished and deeply inculcated, because upon their acknowledged supremary depend the happiness of man, the people, in this respect, are not supplied at Union, and the durability of our happy ma, &c.

form of government. But aside from this secret, silent and irresistible power, before our hands shall be tied, they shall be severed from our body and thrown to the dogs in the street; before our mind shall submit to shackles of any description, it shall be given up to despair. and frozen to barrenness more gloomy information no where else to be met with. Than the deserts of Africa;-before our their subscriptions at that time.

The New Yorker.

far secured it the approval of a steadily respond with the views of Baptists, should and rapidly increasing patronage, and a popularity commensurate with the sphere of its circulation. The peculiarities of its plan were adopted after much reflection; and we have not learned that its prominent features have failed in a single point to receive approbation of its patrons and the The paper will continue to be arpublic. ranged as follows; ---

1. Literary Department-Embracing the nation in general will feel that they have whole outer term of the paper, and pre now a Commentary, in the reading of of New Poblications, original and selected the flame of love, and satisfy the appetite Tales, Essays, Poems, Anecdotes, &c. &c. The original contributions to this department are regularly and promptly paid for and in addition to the many writers who trath: Millions of people who once licked have favored us with articles during the past year, and whose essays will continue to enrich our columns, we have the prom ise of assistance from others whose name-It will be wisdom in us to profit by the are already well known to their countrymen. We do not parade these names, as earliest access to means of information, is the fashion of some: but we confidently appeal to the experience of the past year every kingdom and country in the world. as affording an earnest of our zealous, un-And all the intelligence, both legislative, tiring, and we trust not altogether unsucjudicial, moral, religious, political and cessful exertions to render the literary miscellaneous, that may serve to guide character of the New Yorker inferior to that of no journal of its class in this country. 11. Political Intelligence-In this depart our readers. In short, nothing shall pass ment alone does the New Yorker present unnoticed, that may serve to inform the an anomaly in the history of the newspamind, improve the manners, or mend the per press of the Union. Our plan embraces the collection of every important item Variety-The above subjects will be of political intelligence-whatever be its sketchers, humorous anecdotes, interest- historical record, and with the strictest reing tales, poetical selections, &c. We gard to the preservation of a unquestionpaper for the ladies, but they would insist ties, opinions and sectional divisions existon having a tongue in it, and to this we ing in the country. The Editor refers would by no means consent, as such an ap- with a proud satisfaction to the fact, that pendage would render our paper entirely throughout the past year, he has presented useless, so far as news is concerned! They a minute and circum-tantial account of all shall, however, receive that attention to the elections which have taken place in the which the proud station they occupy in several States, during an emineutly ardent society so justly entitle them. We shall and excited canvass, without once incur give them all the praise their pre-emiment ring the consure or even the exception of virtues demand; but with due deference to any political journal. And, while he reserves to hunself the right of commenting briefly but freely on the topics of the day. and of offering such suggestions as the a sibility, swiul as the tomb and extensive peets of the times may seem to require, he yet holds himselt pledged that such reshall take upon himself the management marks shall not interfere, in any material of a newspaper; because public opinion is degree, with the views, the doc rines, or measurably formed from the tone of the the prospects of any political party. He press-the action of the people depends cherishes the confident expectation, that upon opinious previously formed, and upon the files of the New Yorker will hereafter their action is suspended the destinies of the he referred to for the truth of any contro-Republic. An abiding reverence for the verted statement regarding the results of constitutional laws of the land, should be elections, &c. &c. since its establishment, with mutual deference and with entire conviction of absolute certainty.

111 General Intelligence-Consisting of peace of society, the security of on insti- Foreign and Domestic News, Literary intions, the prosperny of our flourishing Items, Statistics, Brief Notices of the Dra-

However it may be the fortune of others to obtain the confidence and patronage of the public, on the credit of prospective improvements and future excellence, the publishers are content to rest their claims to public consideration distinctly on what and to all, who wish to see it circulate, for their names and patronage.

There is a Baptist edition, differing in no of all those who may choose to commence remarks, viz: All that was promised in the was found in the work as published for serve the general character which has thus Pordobaptists generally, which did not corbe removed, and the maturest views of B. Hassell.) appointed by the Association. their own best writers substituted. It is confidently believed that no point con-nected with what is peculiar to the Baptist denomination, has been left unguarded; and when it is considered that on no points but those do Baptists differ from Henry, Scott, Doddridge, &c. there can be scarcely a doubt but that the denomi-which they are sure to find what will fan for truth, and this without that diminution of their enjoyment with which they were accustomed to meet in reading the authors, arising out of their different views of a christian ordinance.

Terms .- The work will be comprised in five volumes, averaging not less than 800 pages per volume, royal 8 vo handsomely printed on fine paper, and well bound in sheep, and lettered with double titles, at 3 dollars per volume. There will be several engravings, frontispieces. vignette titles, and several neatly engraved maps, with other illustrative wood cuts. ke. Copies bound in extra gilt spring have become the pri cipal proprietors of the printing establishment of said paper It is the intention of the present publishers, should they meet with sofficient encouragement, to enlarge the size of the Whig. but not to enhance its price. They hope to issue it in an improved form-printed on an imperial sheet, which will be as large as any paper published in this State, and it will of course contain a considerably greater quantity of reading matter, than an be given in its present size. To enable the publishers, at an early period, to accomplish the desired object, they respectcolarged and established permanently, if yol 1-page 435. supported liberally. If assiduity and atwhich they are engaged, will ensure suc-Patronise the paper, and with increase of sides. I know it must sland or fail on its their sincere thanks for their liberal sup- the State, and consequently suppose it im- Magazines, combined with original me port, and respectfully request a continu- practicable for "The Man of Business" to is supplied to clubs of five, at $2 march by the same political principles which have in time, go out of date, and become useless The Museum of Foreign Literature. they have already accomplished, and res- heretofore marked its course-principles, like an old almanac. This objection is ence & Art, at $6 00, or in clubs, at 55 in pectfully invite the patrons of American which if ever subverted, will inevitably founded on a supposition false in fact. literature to examine their journal and result in the destruction of the freedom of Legislation changes our system of law the people, the rights of the States, and the about as much, in comparison, as the proreward, "or the "fear of punishment," if When it is considered that no periodical shall be red-emed from the "shackles of of like character for originality and variety therefore raise their feeble voices in the What would you think of a man's refusing maintainance of the cause of Liberty-a to be taught the practical use of geography, plan, and the amount of matter weekly blessing which cannot be too highly prized; merely because some new canal or rail presented, has ever been attempted in this for without it, life is but a curse. They road might happen to be made hereafter, will contend for a strict construction of the or a river might chance to vary sometime Constitution of the United States-will from its present channel, a new volcano support anti-tariff principles, and anti- burst out, or some other slight alteration internal improvement by the General Gov- take place in the face of nature, not now attract the attention, even if it should not ernment, except for such objects as are described or toreseen? confessedly national. They will advocate the rights of the States, and the reasona- attorney, bonds, notes, bills of exchange, bleness and justice of the measure, in pro- &c &c, are the same in form and substance portioning the proceeds of the public lands now, that they were five hundred years among the States. In a word, they will ago; and are subject to the same rules of resist tyranny and usurpation of power, construction. Nor is there much percepome from what quarter it may. But the B hig will not be polluted with process, the fith of personal abuse and inflammatory remarks-alike disreputable to the number of this volume, I have engaged the press, and disgusting to every reflecting services of a young printer, who has remind; but its political course will be con- cently set up, and is commencing business sistent, moderate, calm, and dignified. It in this place, with a good supply of matewill pursue the even tenor of its way, ex- rials; it is therefore hoped, and confidently cept when Liberty proclaims, "Cry aloud expected, that the publication will, in fuand spare not," then the Whig will buckle ture, go on with more promptaess and

GEO. HOWARD.

HISTORY OF THE Kehnkee . Issociation.

Using the first number of the second respect from the general edition except on UST PUBLISHED, and for sale at the volume of THE NEW YORKER; and the ordinance of Baptism, in reference to Doffice of the Tathoro' Press, "A con the publishers trust this early aunounce- which the Rev. Joseph A. Warne, Editor cise History of the Kchukee Baptist Asso ment will attract the seasonable attention of the Baptist edition, makes the following ciation, from its original rise to the present time-by Elder Joseph Biggs-under Baptist edition, as such, was that whatever the supervision of a committee (consisting of Elders Joshua Lawrence, William Hyman, and Luke Ward, and brethren Tho mas Biggs, Joseph D. Biggs, and Custion Price S1 each, or $10 per dozen. October, 1831.

> The Man of Business, BY B. SWAIM-Attorney at Law, NEW SALEM, N. C.

What do we live for, but to improve our selves, and be useful to one another?

Prospectus of Vol. II.

T was intimated at the close of the first volume, that the matter in reserve for the second was no less interesting and uscful than what had beeu published, and would be prepared for the press with equal care and attention.

Some of the leading subjects on file yet to publish, are the following, viz: - Marri- very small sum of $1.25, with the age contracts, Guardians, Supersedias and tional advantage of being received in new trial before a Justice of the peace, Recordari; Altering a judgment, Forms of military process, duty of officers, soldiers. other property, how to proceed under the ple, a.c. poor laws, vagrant laws, and the laws relating to the people of color, How to col- the Fall of Granada, by Thomas Real lect witnesses tickets in civil and State Esq. case .- Sh-riffs' and Constables' receipts, Guaging in its various forms. Plank measure, Geographical statistics of the country showing the respective distance of one seat of government from another, and that of the several county towns in N. C. Title node signed respectfully announce Froceedings under the patent laws of the to the , atrons of the Whig, that they United States, proceedings in case of lost bonds and other papers.

These, with their appropriate forms and precedents, and numerous other matters. will appear in the subsequent numbers of this work.

TERMS &c.

1st. The 2d volume of "The Man of Basiness" will coasist of 432 pages in 12 monthly numbers, (36 in each no.)

2d. The price is $2.00, payable one half on the receipt of the first number, and the other half at the close of the volume. 3. Any subscriber for the first volume. who has not paid up, and ordered a dis ully solicit an increase of patronage; as- continuance, will be considered a subscriaring the public that the Whig shall be ther for the second volume. See notice,

4th. Should the 1st no. be sent to any tention to their vocation, and a rigid econ- person through mistake, he will please inomy in the management of the business in struct the post master to give timely notice. P. S. Wnoever will take the trouble to ess, they have no fears. An appeal is refer back to the commencement of the first now made to a liberal community for the volume, (Prospectus, address to the Bar of colargement of the Whig; and the publish- N C, to the public, and to subscribers,) ers ardently hope, not only for the benefit will find the views of the editor more fully of themselves individually, but for the set forth. I have said, and expect to say advantage of the public generally, that this but little in vindication of this work, for appeal will meet with a cordial response, two reasons: 1st, want of room, and bepatronage success will crown the efforts of own intrinsic merit, independent of any the publishers They submit the foregoing thing that can be said by one so deeply insubject to the consideration of the people; terested in its success. It is proper howwithout their aid, the efforts of the publishers ever here to notice one objection urged to enlarge their paper will be unavailing. only by those who consider the acts of the To the patrons of the Whig, they return Legislature as forming the whole law of reprint of the best articles in the Engine adapt itself to the numerous changes that or to individual subscribers who take the The Whig will continue to be governed are constantly taking place; hence, it will. Library at $2 50.

Remnants, Remnands! A GREAT VARIETY of Research every description of Goods n ; ; Sold at half their value J. WEDDELL 20te Feb. 1835

To the Afflicted. GRAY'S mvaluable tops for the cine of white th scrutula and other in E. sore legs and ulcers, and wounds, sprams, bruists, inc ngs and inflammations, &r. &c Beckwith's anti-dyspeptic pills Rowand's genuine tonic in sture, a pafect care for ague and fever.

The above valuable medicines pay h had wholesale of rebail on applying J. W. Colten, Agent for Tarburger 1835.

Books for $1 25.

THE this teen numbers of Waldar's a for the year 1835, contain the falls valuable and entertaining books ha parts of the Union by mail, at hewspire postage:-

1. The adventures of Japher in some kc.-Entry of land, Taxes on land and of a Father, by the author of Petersia

2 Jennings' Landscape Annual for lat-

3. Letters and Essnys in prost in verse, by Richard Sharp. 4 Barring Out, from the life of a s editor.

5. Antonio, the Student of Padua 6. The Fashionable Wife and Usfel ionable Husband, by Mrs. One,

7. Traditions of the American War .. Independence.

S. Travels into Bokhara, and a mer on the Indus, by Licutenaud Burnes. 9 The Siege of Vienna, a historical m mance, by Madame Pichier.

10. Travelling Troubles. 11 My Cousin Nicholas, + human tale, from Blackwood's Magazone. Of the above works there is preparing prepared, for publication by the body lers, Japher, Sharpe's Letters and Essa Burnes's Travels, the Siege of Vienna 1 my Coasin Nicholas; these alone will to purchasers users than a whole years a scription to the Circulating Library. consist of 54 numbers including using plements, and in addition to this, the J nal of Beiles Lettres, print d un tie con of the Library, contains, wrekly, w fourth as much matter as the Linn itself; thus forming the cneapest publica of even this cheap era of period cals. Waldie's Select Circulating Library ing been long established in the good on ion of the public, and sustained es it is an unprecedented amount of patronage. fear on the part of subscribers cannes in entertained that the publisher walls comply with his part of the encagement Subscriptions to the Library $5.0 a advance, or in clubs of five. $4 00 exc. Waldie's Port Folio and Companies to the Select Circulating Library commencel on the first of January, 1835, beinga published at the same office. ADAM WALDIE 207 Chesnut street, Philadelphia.

backs, $4,50; plain calf, $3,75. March 13th, 1835.

The Southern Press stands low in pub lic estimation. In most cases the paper is bad, the mechanical execution slovenly, and the matter erroneous in principle, false in fact, and vulgar in sentiment. We aim nothing less than a radical and thorough reformation in these respects; and the elevation of our periodical Press to a standard of becoming dignity and decency. The "Citizen" will contain about twice as much reading matter as any paper in the State; and will be chiefly devoted to the following subjects: 1. Agriculture .-- It shall be our business to glean from the floating mass all such experiments and suggestions as may serve to enlighten our citizens in this practical science. Let them he inspired with thought and action; and then spread before them the broad pages of intelligence-and our Southern country, rich in resources, will bloom as the Eden of a new world, the bountiful productions of nature will crown the efforts of industry, commerce will flow at our bidding, and 'cattle will leap upon a thousand hills."

2. Internal Improvement -In regard to commercial facilities by water, nature scems to have frowned upon us; but she has left us rich in the means of internal communication, by rail roads and locomotives. Art is fully competent to overcome the deficiences of nature in this respect. We shall strip the subject of all the talse trappings that have been bung around it, for sinister purposes, and lay it before the people as a plain matter-of-fact business Instead of chasing butter-flies, we shall give practical results.

3. Education - The maxim in all despotic Governments is, "The more ig-norance the more peace." But with us, intelligence and virtue are the very pillars on which our Government, so far as it is a Government of laws, is but the legitimate action of the popular will; and to enable this will to operate for the universal good of mankind, it should be enlightened.

4. General Politics-In regard to the constitutional powers of the General Gay ernment, we are neither a strict constructionist not a latitudinarian. It is true that there are constructive powers to be exercised under the Constitution; but death and desolation to that policy which would add any thing to it, or take aught from it by construction. As soon would we pluck the sun from keaven, as to touch that model of human wisdom with a rude or unskillul hand. If it is defective, let it be amended: but let it never be violated. We believe further, that the clearly ascertained will of the prople should be a rule of conduct for all public officers, where that conduct is not checked and regulated by written Constitutions. All public servants, "knowing the will of their master"-the public -"and doing it not," shall be "beaten with many stripes!"

5 Law .- As every man in the community should make himself familiar with those rules of civil conduct by which his actions are to be regulated, we shall appropriate a department of our paper to ne discussion of such legal subjects as may soul shall be conquered by the "hope of judge what it will be from what it is. mortality," and sent to receive its doom of literary contents, comprehensiveness of in the courts of eternity!

Before we relinquish our right to think. speak, print and publish our own deliverate ic measures, we will renounce existence itself. Take away our rights as a free nan, and life has no charms for us! We shall deal plainly with the people, not caring who may be affected by our course. We rather bask for one hour in the approving smiles of an intelligent and undecrited people, than to spend a whole eter nity, amidst the damning grins of a motley crew of office hunters, despots, demagogues, tyrants, fools and hypocrites.

We shall watch with a lynx eyed vigilance, the conduct of men in power; and mevery case of political transgression, we shall apply the rod without distinction or mercy. Our peu will be dipped in ros water or gall, as occasion may seem to it quire. Private triendship shall not protect public men from the severest scrutiny; nor shall personal dislike turn away our support from a political benefactor to the country. In short: The "Citizen" shall be what it ought to be: and just what every good and great man wants to be!

TERMS.

The "Southern Citizen" will be published once a week, on a large imperial sheet that the best possible terms will be affordwith a new press and new type: The first number to issue as soon as two thou-and subscribers are obtained.

The price will be, three dollars and filty cents per annum, payable at the date of the first number; with an additional fitty cents for every three months payment which shall thereafter be delayed.

to subscriber will be received for a shorter period than twelve months; and a failure o der a discontinuouce within the year, will subject the subscriber to payment for the whole of the succeeding year.

No paper will be sent beyond the limits of the State, without the subscription money in advance. The difficulty of collec ting small sums at a distance, renders an adherence to this rule absolutely indispensable.

No subscriber can be released from the subscription price of the paper; even though he should refuse to receive it from the office; until all arrearages are paid, and a discontinuance expressly ordered.

Advertisements, not exceeding twleve lines will be neatly inserted three times for one dollar; and twenty-five cents for each continuance. Those of greater length in the same proportion.

all letters and communications to the Editor must be post paid, or they will not be taken from the office. Let those who enclose money, or write on important business, bear this in mind.

WILLIAM SWAIN. Greensborough, Jan. 1, 1835.

opinions in relation to public men and pub- dollars per annum, the publishers trust they will not be deemed presumptuous in expressing the hope that their journal willsecure the favor, of the patrons of American literature

H. GREELY & CO. Office No. 20, Nassau st. New York.

CONDITIONS.

The New Yorker will be published every Saturday morning on a large imperial sheet of the best quality, and afforded to atrons in city or country, at TWO DOL. ARS per annum, payable in advance The experience of the past year admonishus to regard the advance payment from distant subscribers as an indispensable condition. When, from peculiar circumstances, payment is delayed till the expiration of the quarter, filty cents will be adds ed. Any person remitting ten dollars, free of charge to us, shall receive six copies for one year, and in the same proportion for a larger number. Post Masters and others are respectfully requested to interest them selves in our behalf, with the assurance

COMPREHENSIVE

April 1, 1835.

Commentary on the Bible.

ed them.

THE Subscriber having been requested to act as Agent for this highly interesting work, informs the public that the first volume can be seen at his office. where subscriptions will be received. The first volume is a specimen of the execution of the work, editorial and mechanical. It is to contain all that is valuable in the writings of those great lights in the Christian Church, Henry, Scott, Dod dridge, Gill, Adam Clark, Patrick, Pool, Lowth, Burder, and others; the whole deadvantages of the best Bible commentaries. On the whole, it is believed all will admit that the work is what it has been pronounced to be-a credit to the country; and the publishers and editors pledge themselves and their characters (and they can do no more) that every effort shall be put forth to make it, both in the literary and me, having claims against it, will present them chanical parts, lastingly useful, and worthy a liberal support. But to sustain them make early payment-to enable them to in so expensive an enterprize, the low liquidate the accounts of the office, and price fixed for the work requires that it make arrangements for enlarging the size should have an extensive sale, and no pub. of the Whig. lisher would fell warranted in prosecuting the work without a large subscription list and, however unpopular such a course may be in regard to ordinary works, no hesitation is felt in resorting to it in this case, so manifestly necessary and proper. They appeal in confidence to the religious public,

The columns of the paper will not however be devoted exclusively to Politics:-Foreign and Domestic Intelligence, Commercial, Agricultural, Literary, Moral and Religious extracts, will have a place, together with a summary of light miscellaneous reading, calculated to please as well as to instruct.

The Whig will in future be published every Solurday morning, by the undersigned. The change of the day of publication has been made on account of the recent alterations in the arrivals and departures of the mails. The editorial management of the Whig, will be confided to the senior partner, who, he is pleased to say, will be occasionally assisted in that department by gentlemen whose experience and qualifications in the conducting of a newspaper, will ensure to the patrons of the Whig, a respectable and well conducted Journal. Is'Auy gentlemen who will act as agents in obtaining sub-criptions to this paper, and procure six good subscribers, shall be entitled to the Whig for one year. signed to a digest and combination of the Its patronage having considerably increased, the undersigned confidently state, that if 60 new subscribers should be obtained in the course of a few weeks, and the year's subscription advanced by them, that he Whig shall be forthwith enlarged. I The debts of the establishment have een assumed by the undersigned: persons for payment; and those indebted will please

Henry D. Machen. Alfred L. Price. March 27, 1835.

AT THIS OFFICE.

Conveyances, wills, covenants, powers of tible change in the form and effect of legal

N. B. Since the appearance of the first regularity, as the whole concern is now at home.

To Subscribers.

Whenever a difficulty presents itself to a ubscriber, he is at liberty to suggest it; and if it be thought worthy of a place in The man of Business," a solution may be expected, at least so far as the editor may be capable of giving a correct one. The pages of this work will also be held open to suitable communications, but whether ori ginal or selected, they must be as concise as possible to be intelligible.

Those editors who think proper to exchange, will please be particular and send their papers regularly, for I wish to file and Cuts and Ornaments for school bot

To the Profession.

At the suggestion of several legal gentlemen, I have in progress, a continuation of Hawks' Digest. But it will necessarily be some time before it will be ready for publication. For present use, I propose to publish in "The Man of Business" a summary of the cases decided in the Supreme Court since 1825, so condensed as to occupy but about 40 or 50 pages of the work; yet sufficiently comprehensive to serve as a clue to all the important principles decided. This, and a critical essay on the precise jurisdiction of a justice of the peace. may be expected in the course of a few months, provided you will all favor me with your subscription.

D'Subscribers can be supplied with ack numbers from the commencement of the 1st volume.

Printing Press for Sale SUPER ROYAL Printing Press, on the old mode of construction, can be procured on reasonable terms. Apply at this Office.

January, 1834.

BRUCE'S

New York Type Foundry

DHE Subscribers respectfully infor the Printers that they have recent completed a variety of New founts of L ter, in the style of the latest Europeanse cimens, well calculated for ornamit printing or tasteful display, and ma their assortment of PRINTING TIPL unrivalled in beauty, extent, and vane A book of Specimens may be obtained the Foundry, No. 13, Chamber street." Chatham street, or at No. 18, City H

Place. It contains specimens from Inch Line Pica to Fearl, comprising

5

5

5

20

5

2

11

45 founts Roman Caps, with lower cas

- 25 " Italic do 5 " Title Roman do " Title Italic do
- " Shaded Rom. do 17 " Antique do

do

do

da

18.0

44

:120

3đð

di.

- 12 " Black do
 - Open Black do 48 Script Caps do
 - " German Text do
 - ... Open Text do 40
- 4 2-line Rom. Caps, with fgure 25 4 2-line Italic Capitals.
- Shaded Caps. various kinds. 10
- " Open do de "Italian Caps. and Figures-6 7

Besides Ornamental Letters, Backshift Music, Lottery Figures, Piece Fraction Superiors, Astronomical and other Sch Space Rules, Brass Rules, Ornanies Dashes, Long Braces, more than 200 km of Borders, and more than 1000 kinds newspapers, and scientific works; or b for any of which, or for Composing Sto Cases, Chases, &c. will be executed # the utmost promptitude, a large stock beit always on hand. They will also execute orders for Pill ing Presses, Paper, luk, &c. which the will furnish at the manufacturer's price IPPrinters of newspapers will pict publish this advertisement (with this dolt hree times, sending a paper containing to the Foundry, and receive payment whe hey purchase four times the amount of heir bill from the Foundry.

GEO. BRUCE & CO. March 25, 1835.

PAMPHLETS,

Published and for Sale at this Offici-A PATRIOTIC DISCOURSE the Kehukee Association-and, A Basheld Fragments, by the Rev. Joshua Lawrente Also, A Review of Clark's defence and up tification to the Kehukee Association, still ten by a lay member of the Associationand, Occurrences in the Life of Elder it seph Biggs, wrote by himself. Tarborough, Aug. 9.

Printing neatly executed,