

Miscellaneous.

WHAT A FARMER WANTS.
The Farmer wants a stable mind,
And purpose sure and steady,
To patient industry inclined—
For business always ready.

Good careful habits well fix'd,
And judgment acting clearly,
To sift out truths with error mix'd,
Though it should cost him dearly.

He wants a neat and prudent wife,
Who, when he earns, can save it;
Who kindly soothes the cares of life,
(Rest gift of him who gave it.)

He wants a snug and tidy farm,
And health and strength together;
A house and barn to keep all warm
In cold or rainy weather.

Heaven's blessing then must crown
The whole
Or all his hopes are blasted;
But with this resting on his soul,
The purest joys are tasted.

He then enjoys a bliss unknown
To those the world calls greatest;
Known only to the good alone,
The earliest and the latest.

COTTON GINS.

THE Subscriber, who for several years past has been engaged in The Gin Making business, in Kingston, has established himself

IN GREENVILLE,

Where he carries on the above business in all its various branches. All those who wish to supply themselves with Gins of the best quality, are respectfully solicited to apply to the Subscriber personally or by letter. All orders for Gins will be promptly executed. From the Subscriber's long experience in his business, and from the approbation which his work has hitherto met with, he hesitates not to promise entire satisfaction to all who may see fit to extend to him their patronage. Gins out of order will be expeditiously repaired. The Subscriber takes the liberty of calling the attention of those who wish to procure new Gins, or to have old Gins repaired, to the expediency of applying to him in time. When all wait as is usually the case, until the work is wanted, it causes such a pressure of business, that many are obliged of necessity to submit to a longer delay than they wish.

ALLEN TISON,

In connexion with this establishment, carries on the Lock & Gunsmith business.

He also makes Saw Mill Bores, and Mill Inks, and Gudgeons, of a composition invented by Daniel Peck, of Raleigh—Grist Mill Spindles, with Steel Collars, (turned.) These articles equal to any manufactured in the United States.

All letters and orders must be directed to the Subscriber at Greenville.

HENRY CHAMBERLAIN.

Cotton Gins

THE Subscriber has established himself in the houses formerly occupied by the late Joseph Lackey, dec'd, near the river, and a short distance below Benjamin M. Jackson's store, where he carries on

The making and repairing Cotton Gins.

All those who wish to supply themselves with Gins of the best quality, are respectfully solicited to apply to the Subscriber personally, or by letter. All orders for Gins will be promptly executed. Gins out of order will be expeditiously repaired.

Blacksmithing, of every description, executed in the best style. Two second hand Cotton Gins for sale low for cash.

The above Goods were purchased with cash and no grumbling, which enables us to sell them a little cheaper than the cheapest—and as such we are determined to do so, not caring to make any thing more than sufficient to keep us from starving, having no heirs nor poor kin to provide for. We particularly invite the Ladies to call and examine our splendid assortment of fancy Goods, and see if we have nothing that will please them. Should we be so fortunate as to have an article that will strike their fancy, they shall have it at their own price, provided it be within the bounds of reason. We purchased our fancy Goods especially for the Ladies, and we most sincerely and religiously hope to please them in some things at least. In conclusion we will add that we have no sea serpents, snapping turtles, nor alligators for the Ladies—we shall reserve them for our own special tooth, for an occasional snack between meals. Our friends and the public generally will recollect that we are selling off at nearly cost for cash, &c. We shall do likewise at our establishment on "Cokey," at the residence of J. C. Knight, Esq.

VERY BEST
Cotton Yarn and Twine
FOR SALE.

THE Subscribers feel grateful for the liberal patronage which they received the past year, and hope by assiduity and punctuality in business to merit a continuance of past favors.

They now have and expect to keep constantly on hand the

Very best Cotton Yarns,
From Nos. 2 to 18 inclusive.

Also, various sizes of the best Cotton Seine Twine—its durability and strength has been fairly tested, and the Subscribers feel no hesitation in pronouncing it inferior to none, if not superior to any in market. Both the above articles they expect to deliver to purchasers on as liberal terms as articles of the same quality can be procured elsewhere. The usual charge for conveyance will be made.

Terms of sale—for all quantities of Yarn over one thousand pounds, six months credit will be allowed—for any quantity under one thousand pounds, four months, the purchaser giving note (with out interest) at the time the Yarn is delivered, payable at the above stated times.

The proprietors of fisheries will do well to apply to the Subscribers for twine for the future, as a very liberal credit will be given.

Messrs. Hassel & Williams will act as agents for the Subscribers at Williamston—Mr. Benj. Bell, at Greenville—and Messrs. Simmons & Eare, at Halifax—where Yarn and Twine can be bought on the same terms as at the Factory.

BATTLE & BROTHERS.

Oxford Examiner
THE Subscriber invites propositions to succeed him as printer and proprietor of the "Oxford Examiner," to take effect not sooner than the 1st of next October. A practical Printer could invest a small sum to considerable advantage in this Establishment. Any gentleman possessing a few hours leisure each day might devote them with the certainty of profit to the conducting of a paper in this place. The income has enabled the present Editor to live comfortably for more than five years, although he commenced and has all along labored under embarrassing disadvantages. But little exertion would ensure a more extended patronage. Should an application be made which would likely prove agreeable to the public, a bargain may be had. The establishment is deemed a permanent one, as the people have manifested a determination to sustain a Press in their county Town.

NEW
Coach & Gig Manufactory.
THE Subscriber respectfully informs his friends and the public in general, that he has commenced business for himself on his lot in Tarborough, near the Bridge, where he will be prepared to carry on the above business in all its various branches. He served a regular apprenticeship under Mr. Thos. Cobbs, of Raleigh, who carried on the business very extensively, and kept in his employ regular northern workmen. In several years acquaintance with the business in one of the most extensive establishments in the State could ensure his success, he feels confident he should meet it; but he is perfectly aware that attention is equally necessary, and this attention he is determined to render. He hopes, therefore, that all persons who may favor him with their patronage, will never become dissatisfied or disappointed. His work shall be faithfully executed and of the best materials. He expects to have in a short time a general assortment of materials from New York, which will enable him to do his work not inferior to any done in this section of country. Repairing done with neatness and despatch.

Type Foundry.
SHERMAN & S. ECKLIN, having purchased the Type Foundry established by the late J. Howe, have entered into partnership, for the purpose of carrying on the Manufactory of Type under the firm of S. Ecklin & Co.

We intend keeping on hand a large assortment of type, especially those most used, which will enable us to execute orders with the least possible delay. We have now for sale a large quantity of best quality, (stock purchased from the estate of J. Howe,) and intend to make immediate additions to it.

S. Ecklin & Co. are now prepared to receive orders for fonts of every description, from Point to 22 lines. We offer for sale also, an assortment of Cuts, Dashes, Brass Rule, and other ornaments, of which specimens will be forwarded to printers, as soon as they are prepared.

Such improvements as the wants of the trade and taste may require, will be the earliest attention at this establishment. Printing Presses of every description. Printing Ink of the most approved qualities. Composing Sticks, Brass and common Galleys, Chases, Imposing Sticks, Paper and Press Boards, Standing Presses, Furniture, together with a complete assortment of all articles used in Printing Office, will be kept constantly on hand.

Small fonts, suitable for Book binders, in a great variety, may be had warranted for.

Orders from all parts of the Union, will be promptly and most carefully attended to, and particularly in supplying printing all fonts furnished by our predecessors.

We respectfully solicit a share of public patronage. To the former patrons of this foundry, we deem it sufficient to say that they will be as well and promptly served as heretofore, should they be disposed to favor us with their orders. The business of the Foundry will be conducted under the following firm, and by the person who was in fact the type founder in Mr. Howe's foundry.

S. ECKLIN & CO.
Corner of Crown and Calhoun streets, Philadelphia, Spt. 1834.
Printers of English Papers, by using the above three luxurious and forwarding one with the advertisement, will be entitled to articles to the amount of ten dollars.

PROSPECTUS
OF THE Anson Advertiser.

THE subscriber proposes to publish the Town of Wadesboro, Anson County, North Carolina, a weekly paper entitled,

"The Anson Advertiser."

According to custom, he proceeds to lay before the public an analysis of the paper upon which his paper will be conducted. Its columns will be devoted to the most important subjects of the day, and it is the intention of the Editor to be fairly and to report the passing politics and other news of the day, and what is cannot, consistently with his principles, advocate the course pursued by the present administration, he assures the public that he feels every disposition to do justice to its merits. The press will be open to both parties—the Editor will endeavor to adhere strictly to principle and to disregard all party influence.

The Editor intends to avail himself of the advantage of many of the best publications on the subjects of agriculture and improvement, he of course will be able to select and lay before his readers, a number of Essays which cannot fail of being interesting to every one who has heart the prosperity of his country. The most important and interesting proceedings of Congress and the state Legislature will be daily reported, and a portion of the paper will at all times be devoted to polite Literature.

The subscriber is aware of the many difficulties he must encounter in advancing to public favor; he relies greatly upon the liberality always shown by an enlightened public towards enterprise, well conducted, and assures his patrons, that no pains will be wanting on his part to render his paper both a useful and interesting publication.
