JAMES WEDDELL,

HAVING fully decided on leaving this State for the Great West, has determined on selling off his

Stock of Rich Goods at Cost,

And even LESS, for many articles. It must be obvious to all economists, who wish to lay in a supply of Cheap Goods, that such an opportunity may never again occur. The extensive Stock—the vast variety of articles—and the absolute necessity of selling out, together with the newness and splendor of the assortment, combined with such Extra Low Prices, are points of advantage not to be overlooked by those who study their own interest.

The attention of COUNTRY MERCHANTS, as well as those who wish to purchase largely, is particularly invited—and he does not hesitate to assert, that they can be furnished with any article on hand as low for Cash, as they could procure by wholesale in New York, having made his principal purchases at auction and of the importers.

In his Assortment are the following:

- 10,000 yds. Calicoes, of the newest & most fashionable style,
- 3,000 " Gingham,
- 2,000 " Printed Muslins,

- 600 yds. x barred Muslins, for dresses,
- 200 corded Skirts,
- 5,000 yds. unbleached Shirtings and Sheetings,
- 3,000 " bleached do. do.
- 2,000 " brown Linen, for pantaloons, from 12 1/2 cents,
- 40 pieces men's summer cloth,
- 1,800 yds. Irish Linens,
- 350 men's black and drab tur Hats,
- 100 " black satin beaver from $2 3/4,
- 200 " wool Hats,
- 120 boys fancy Caps,

THE NEW Millinery Store.

NISS MITCHELL,

BEGS leave to inform her friends and the public, that she has taken the Store House next door to Mr. W. Harris, formerly the Bank—where she opens the largest & most splendid Assortment of Millinery ever brought to this market. She flatters herself, that from the knowledge of business acquired in seven years employment in the most extensive and fashionable establishments in the City of New York, and being well acquainted with most of the Millinery and Mercantile Establishments in that city, she is enabled to purchase goods low, and have her Millinery made up in a superior style and on the most reasonable terms. Among her assortment will be found 150 Tuscan Bonnets, (different sizes and patterns) at from $1.50 up to the finest made. A handsome assortment of Northern made velvet, satin, and silk Bonnets. A variety of Caps, Capes and Turbans. Black, white, blue, pink and yellow Italian Crapes. Black, white, blue, yellow and variegated Ostrich Feathers. Artificial Flowers, feather and velvet Flowers. Gold and silver do. Black and white blond Edgings and Footings. Hair Braids, Puffs and Curls, A few elegant painted lustring Shawls and Reticules. A handsome assortment of Ribbons, with many other articles too numerous to mention.

Miss M. respectfully invites the Ladies of Halifax and the adjoining counties to call and examine her stock before purchasing—and assures them that she will sell every article in her line, lower than any other establishment in this section of country.

N. B. She has purchased a new Apparatus for cleaning and pressing Tuscan, Leghorn and Straw Bonnets, in the Northern style.

Specimens of her work, both in that and the Dress Making, may be seen at her Store, where all orders will be thankfully received and punctually attended to. Halifax, Feb. 25.

Extraordinary good Bargains In almost any article they may want either to eat, drink, or wear. And they would doubtless do well to avail themselves of the present favorable opportunity of supplying themselves.

He also offers for sale his

Four Lots of Land,

And all the improvements thereon, consisting of a comfortable Dwelling, Store, and extensive Warehouse, Gin house, with two second-hand Gins, and iron screw, Stables, and all necessary out houses, pleasantly situated for a family, or well arranged for any person wishing to commence the mercantile business, being in a business part of the town, on Main street, and contiguous to the river landing. An excellent bargain can be had in this property, and terms made perfectly accommodating.

N. H. ROUNTREE. Tarboro', 14th May, 1835.

PROSPECTUS OF The Extra Globe.

THE undersigned propose to issue the first number of a new series of the Extra Globe, on Monday, the 25th of May next, and to publish it weekly for six months, making twenty-six numbers; the last to contain an index to the whole. It will be printed on fine double-royal paper, made up in quarto form, like the Extra and Congressional Globes published by us last year. The 26 numbers will make 416 royal quarto pages.

It will contain the principal original articles of the Daily and Semi-Weekly Globes—foreign and domestic News—notice of the public meetings—the elections, and public proceedings in every State in the Union, in relation to the canvass for the next Presidency—a contest which the indications of the present year will go far to decide.

The first number will contain the Proceedings of the Democratic National Convention, to be held at Baltimore on the 20th of next month. An excellent Reporter has already been engaged to report the Proceedings of the Convention, and the Speeches which may be made on the occasion.

We request the favor of those friends to whom this Prospectus may be sent, to circulate it, for the purpose of obtaining subscribers. A copy of the work will be sent to the newspapers that copy this Prospectus. Subscribers should forward their names in time to reach us before the 25th May. If they do not, we may not be able to furnish them with all the numbers; because the work is put at so low a price, that we cannot afford to reprint any numbers that may be exhausted.

TERMS.

One Dollar per copy, in advance. Eleven copies will be furnished for ten dollars; twenty-two copies for twenty dollars, and so on in proportion.

The price of this paper is so low, that we cannot afford to open accounts with those who subscribe for it. Therefore no attention will be paid to any order unless the money accompanies it.
