Discellaneous.

GOOD ADVICE.

Gather your rose buds whilst you

For Time is still a-flying; And that same flower which blooms to-day

To-morrow will be dying. That glorious lamp of Heaven, the Sun.

The higher he is getting, The sooner will his race be run, And nearer is to setting, That age is best, which is the first,

While youth and blood are warmer; But, being fled, grows worse and worse,

And ill succeeds the former. Then be not coy; but spend your

And, whilst you may, go marry; For having once but lost your prime, You may, forever tarry.

Plough deep while sluggards sleep, And you shall have corn to sell or ROOTE'S' At Keduced Prices.

GILL'S COMMENTARY on the Bible, in nine octavo volumes-and Botta's History of the War of the Revolution, in two octavo volumes, elegantly bound, can he had at reduced prices on application

At this Office. April 9, 1835.

COTTON GINS.

THE Subscriber, who for several years past has been engaged in The Gin Making business,

In Kinston, has established himself IN GREENVILLE,

Where he carries on the above business in all its various branches. All those who wish to supply themselves with Gins of the best quality, are respectfully solicited Drapery, brown Holland, Oznaburgs, to apply to the Subscriber personally or by letter. All orders for Gins will be promptly executed. From the Subscriber's long experience in his business, and from the approbation which his work French kid slippers, spring heel'd has hitherto met with, he hesitates not to promise entire satisfaction to all who may see fit to extend to him their patronage. Gins out of order will be expeditiously repaired. The Subscriber takes the liberty of cailing the attention of those who wish to procure new Gins, or to have old Gins repaired, to the expediency of applying | About 200 Ladies and misses straw to him in time. When all wait as is usually the case, until the work Palm leaf Hats, from 18 cents to $3, is wanted, it causes such a pressure of business, that many are obliged of necessity to submit to HARDWARE & CUTLERY, of a longer delay than they wish.

ALLEN TISON.

In connexion with this establishment, car ries on the Lock&Gunsmith business. He also makes Saw Mill Boxes, and Mill Inks, and Gudgeons, of a composition invented by Daniel Peck, of Raleigh-Grist Mill Spindles, with Steel Collars, (turned.) These articles equal to any manufactured in the United States.

All letters and orders must be directed to the Subscriber at HENRY CHAMBERLAIN. July 12, 1834.

Cotton Gins

THE Subscriber has established himself in the houses formerly occupied by the late Joseph Lackey, dec'd, near the river, and a short distance below Benjamin M. Jackson's store, where he carries on

The making and repairing Cotton Gins.

tiously repaired.

Blacksmithing, of every description, executed in the best style. Two second hand Cotton Gins for sale low for cash.

SAMUEL D. PROCTER. Tarboro,' 30th Sept. 1834.

Bargains! Bargains!! Bargains!!!

Yew Goods! New Goods!! Cheapest of the Cheap, or a leetle cheaper than the cheapest.

WE presume to inform the public generally (believing that we have an equal right with our neighbors so to do,) that we have just returned from New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and came very near going to Boston,) where we purchased the Most splendid Assortment of

Spring and Summer

GOODS.

That ever decorated the shelves of any establishment in the city of Tarborough, (none excepted,) and are now Selling off at nearly Cost, For Cash, and at a very small advance on a credit. Among our assortment may be found

The most beautiful Prints in the French Muslins, Ginghams, (new style,)

French Calicoes, printed Jaconets, Figured chintz Calicoes, French Bombazetts, Bombazines, Circassians of various colors and qualities, Crape Camlets, colored satin doe skins, bird eye London do.

Silks of every description, silk Shawls, siik dress Handkerchiefs, Gro de Naps, Gro de Berlin, Pink and blue Satin, watered,

Gro de Swiss, Poi de Soi, figured plaid Gro de Nap. White Satin, blue black do. Parasols, Fans, Bead bags, Jaconet and mull muslins, checked muslins, swiss and book muslim, Robes, corded skirts, Ladies and gentlemen's Gloves,

Cotton and silk Hose, Broad Cloths, blue, black, claret, brown, drab and green, Cassimeres, fancy plaid, striped, diagonal, drab, ring-streaked and speckled.

Stocks, of various qualities,, Rouen Cassimeres, cotton Cassi-Beavertines, plaid Linens, ribbed Linen, for summer wear, Furniture prints, birds eye Diaper, Ticklenburgs, brown Linen and white do. Drills, Lasting, patent Thread, Tur-

Ladies, Misses, and children's Shoes of every description, dirt cheap, Pumps, prunellas, morocco, leather, seal skim, čcc. čcc Gentlemen's boots and shoes of every description, buck skin, calf skin, seal skin, horse skin, cow skin, and what not .- Major Downing's, David Crockett's, Jim Crow's, Zipp Coon's, Gen. Jack-son's, Van Buren's, Nullifiers, Union, consolidation, and amalgamation.

and Tuscan Bonnets, Straw cords and tassels, colored and white, spotted and speckled, &cc. &cc.

every description, Guns, Rifles, Pistols, Farming uten-

Castings, Iron, Nails, Salt, and Steel,

100 bbis. Whiskey and Rum, Brandy and Wine, Sugar, Coffee and Molasses,

Upper and under Leather, Harness and Skirting Leather, Saddles and Bridles, Saddlebags, travelling trunks, travelling bags, harness, bridle bits, spurs, and riding and gig whips. About 2000 shell, horn, and brass tuck and side Combs.

Head Pins, guard beads, bead guards, Gentlemen's and youths fine fur Hats, cloth caps, hair caps and children's fancy caps, Drugs, medicines, paints, oils, white lead, putty, window glass, candles, Earthenware, china, jugs, jars, stone pitchers, tin ware, flax, ecc.

The above Goods were purchased with cash up and no grumbling, which enables us to sell them a leetle cheaper than the cheapest--and as such we are determined to do so, not caring to make any thing more than sufficient to keep us from starv-All those who wish to supply ing, having no heirs nor poor themselves with Gins of the best kin to provide for. We particuquality, are respectfully solicited larly invite the Ladies to call and to apply to the Subscriber person- examine our splendid assortment ally, or by letter. All orders for of fancy Goods, and see if we Gins will be promptly executed, have nothing that will please Gins out of order will be expedithem. Should we be so fortunate as to have an article that will strike their fancy, they shall have it at their own price, provided it be within the bounds of reason.

Knight, Garrett & Co. No. 1, Broadway. Tarboro, April 30, 1835.

BRUCE'S

New York Type Foundry THE Subscribers respectfully inform the Printers that they have recently completed a variety of New founts of Letter, in the style of the latest European spe printing or tasteful display, and making Joseph H. Adams, \ Lund. their assortment of PRINTING TYPES unrivalled in beauty, extent, and variety A book of Specimens may be obtained at the Foundry, No. 13, Chamber street, near Place. It contains specimens from I welve Line Pica to Pearl, comprising

45 founts Roman Caps, with lower case 25 " Italic 5 " Title Roman do do " Title Italic do do " Shaded Rom. do do " Antique do do do 12 " Black 5 " Open Black do do " Script Caps do " German Text do

" Open Text do 25 " 2 line Rom. Caps, with figures. 11 2 2-line Italic Capitals. 10 " Sheded Caps, various kinds. 6 " Open do

" Italian Caps. and Figures. Besides Ornamental Letters, Backstope, Music, Lottery Figures, Piece Fractions, Superiors, Astronomical and other Signs. Space Rules, Brass Rules, Ornamental Dashes, Long Braces, more than 200 kinds of Borders, and more than 1000 kinds of Cuts and Ornaments for school books, newspapers, and scientific works; or ters for any of which, or for Composing Sticks, Cases, Chases, &c. will be executed with the utmost promptitude, a large stock being

GEO. BRUCE & CO-

The Whig.

Tri Eundersigned respectfully amounted to the patrons of the Worg, that they have become the principal proprietors of the printing establishment of sort paper. It is the intintion of the present publishers, should they meet with sufficient encouragement to enlarge the size of the Whiz but not to entende its price. They supe to issue v to an improved form-pract d on an imperial sheet, which will be as large as may paper published in this State, this work. and it will of course contain a considerably greater quantity of reading matter, than can be given in its present size. To enable the publishers, at an early period, to accomplish the desired object, they respectfully solicit an increase of patronage; assuring the public that the Whig shall be enlarged and established permanently, if supported liberally. If assiding and its who has no paid up, and ordered a distention to their vocation, and a rigid econwhich they are engaged, will ensure suc- vol 1-page 435 cess, they have no fears. An appeal is enlargement of the Whig; and the publishers acceptly hope, not only for the benefit which if ever subverted, will inevitably result in the destruction of the freedom of Federal Constitution. The publishers will maintainance of the cause of Liberry-a blessing which cannot be too bighly prized; for without it, life is but a curse. They will contend for a strict construction of the Constitution of the United States-will support anti-tariff principles, and antiinternal improvement by the General Government, except for such objects as are confessedly national. They will advocate the rights of the States, and the reasonableness and justice of the measure, in proportioning the proceeds of the public landamong the States. In a word, they will! resist tyranuy and usurpation of power ome from what quarter a may But the Whig will not be polluted with the fifth of personal abuse and inflammato ry remarks-alike disreputable to the mind; but its political course will be consistent, moderate, calm, and dignified. It will oursue the even tenor of its way, exept when Liberty proclaims, "Cry about and spare not," then the Whig will buckle on its armor and prepare for battle.

The columns of the paper will not however be devoted exclusively to Politics:-Foreign and Domestic Intelligence, Comnercial, Agricultural, Literary, Mural and Religious extracts, will have a place, together with a summary of light miscellaneous reading, calculated to please as well as to

The Whig will in future be published every Saturday morning, by the undersion-The change of the day of publican of has been made on account of the recent alterations in the arrivals and departures of the mails. The editorial management of the Whig, will be confided to the senior partner, who, he is pleased to say, will be occasionally assisted in that department by gentlemen whose experience and qualificarions in the conducting of a newspaper, will ensure to the patrons of the Whig, a respectable and well conducted Journal. Ll'Any gentlemen who will act as agents in obtaining subscriptions to this shall be entitled to the Whig for one year; Its patronage having considerably increased, the undersigned confidently state, that if 60 new subscribers should be obtained in the course of a few weeks, and the year's subscription advanced by them, that the Whig shall be forthwith enlarged.

The debts of the establishment have having claims against it, will present them make early payment-to enable them to liquidate the accounts of the office, and with your subscription. make arrangements for enlarging the size of the Whig.

Henry D. Machen. Alfred L. Price. March 27, 1835.

State of North Carolina,

MARTIN COUNTY. Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions, APRIL TERM, 1835. Lovick Modlin) Attachment, Levy on

N this case it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that the defendant is not an inhabitant Chatham street, or at No. 18, City Hall of this State, it is ordered that publication be made in the Tarboro' Press, for six weeks, giving notice to the defendant that his land is levied on.

> JOS. D. BIGGS, Clk. Price adv $1:75.

The Man of Business, BY B. SWAIM-Attorney at Law,

NEW SALEM, N. C. What do we live for, but to improve our selves, and be useful to one another? Prospectus of Vol. II.

T was intimated at the close of the first volume, that the matter in reserve tor the second was no less interesting and useful than what had been published, and would be prepared for the pre-s with equal

Some of the leading subjects on file yet to publish, are the following, viz: - Marriage contracts, Guardians, Supersulias and new trial before a Justice of the peace. Recordari; Altering a judgment, Forms of military process, duty of officers, soldiers, kn .- Entry of land, Taxes on land and other property, how to proceed under the poor laws, sagrant laws, and the laws relating to the people of color. How to collect witnesses tickets in civil and State cases, - Sheriffs' and Constables' receipts, Guaging in its various forms. Plank measure, Geographical statistics of the country showing the respective distance of one sent of government from another, and that of the several county towns in N. C. Proceedings under the patent laws of the United States, proceedings in case of lost bonds and other papers

These, with their appropriate forms and precedents, and numerous other matters, will appear in the subsequent numbers of

1st. The 2d volume of The Man of Brisiness" will causist of 432 pages in 12 monthly no spers, (36 in each no.) 2d. The price is $2.00, payable one: lists in the receipt of the first number, and the other half at the cines of the volume. 3. Any susscriber for the first volume.

continuous, will be considered a squeeziomy in the management of the business in ber for the second volume. See notice, 4th Should the 1st no, be sent to any now made to a liberal community for the person through mistake, he will please instruct the post master to give timely notice. P > Wanever will take the trouble to themselves individually, but for the refer back to the commencement of the first adva-tage of the public generally, that this volume, (Prospectus, address to the Bat of appeal will meet with a cordial response. N. C. to the public, and to subscribers,) Patronise the paper, and with increase of will find the views of the editor more fully patronage success will crown the efforts of set forth. I have said, and expect to say the publishers. They submit the foregoing but tittle in vindication of this work, for subject to the consideration of the people; two reasons lat, want of room, and bewithout their aid, the efforts of the publishers sides, I know it must sland or fall on its to enlarge their paper will be unavailing own intrinsic merit, independent of any. To the patrons of the Whig, they return thing that can be said by one so deeply interrated in its success. part, and respectfully request a continu- ever here to notice one objection urged only by those who consider the acts of the The Blig will continue to be governed Legislature as forming the whole law of by the same political principles which have the state, and consequently suppose it imheretofore marked its course-principles, practicable for "The Man of Business" to adapt itself to the numerous changes that are constantly taking place; hence, it will, the people, the rights of the States, and the in time, go out of date, and becom useless like an old almanac. This objection is therefore raise their feeble voices in the founded on a supposition false in fact. Linguisting changes our system of law about as much, in comparison, as the progress of time changes the face of our globe. What would you think of a man's retusing | entitled to be faught the practical use of geography, merely because same new ranal or rail road night nappen to be made hereafter, rariver might chance to vary sometime rom it's present channel, a new volcano take place in the face of nature, not now lescribed or torescent Conveyances, wills, covenants, powers of attorney, bonds, notes, bills of exchange, c &c. are the same in form and substance low, that they were five bundled years ago; and are subject to the same rules of onstruction. Nor is there much perceppress, and disgusting to every reflecting tible change in the form and effect of legal urst out, or some other slight alteration

N. B. Since the appearance of the first number of this volume, I have engaged the services of a young printer, who has recen'ly set up, and is commencing business in this place, with a good supply of materials; it is therefore hoped, and confidently expected, that the publication will, in future, go on with more promptuess and regularity, as the whole concern is now at

To Subscribers. Whenever a difficulty presents itself to a ubscriber, he is at liberty to suggest it; and if it be thought worthy of a place in The man of Business. ' a solution may be expected at least so far as the editor may be capable of giving a correct one. The pages of this work will also be held open to snitable communications, but whether original or selected, they must be as concise as possible to be intelligible.

Tuose editors who think proper to exthange, will please be particular and send their papers regularly, for I wish to file and preserve them.

To the Profession. At the suggestion of several legal genlemen, I have in progress, a continuation paper, and procure six good subscribers, of Hawks' Digest. But it will necessarily be some time before it will be ready for publication. For present use, I propose to publish in "The Man of business" a summary of the cases decided in the Supreme Court since 1825, so condensed as to occupy but about 40 or 50 pages of the work; yet sufficiently comprehensive to serve as a clue to all the important principles decibeen assumed by the undersigned: persons ded. This, and a critical essay on the precise jurisdiction of a justice of the peace, for payment; and those indebted will please may be expected in the cours: of a few months, provided you will all favor me

> D'Sub-cribers can be supplied with back numbers from the commencement of

B. SWAIM. New Salem, Jan-19.

Oxford Examiner

THE Subscriber invites propositions to succeed him as printer and proprietor of the "Oxford Examiner," to take effect not sooner than the 1st of next October A practical Printer could invest a small sum to considerable advantage in this Establishment. Any gentleman possessing a few hours leizure each day might devote them with the certainty of profit to the conducting of a paper in this place. The income has enabled the present Editor to live comfortably for more than five years, although he commenced and has all along labored under embarrassing disadvantages. But little exertion would ensure a more extended paironage. Should an application be made which Plaintiffs' claim, say $100 would likely prove agreeable to the public. a bargain may be had. The establishment is deemed a permanent one, as the people have manifested a determination to sustain a Press in their county Town.

R. J. YANCEY, jr. Oxford, April 23.

Type Foundry.

Co ing purchased the Type Foundry established by the late J. Howe, have entered into partnership, for the purpose of carrying on the Manufactory of Types, under the firm of S. Ecklin & Co.

We intend keeping on hand a large assortment of type, especially those kinds nost used, which will enable us to supply orders with the least possible delay; and have now for sale a large quantity of the best quality, (stock purchased from the estate of J. Howe,) and intend to make immediate additions to it.

S. Ecklin & Co. are now prepared hope by assiduity and plant to receive orders for founts of every de- in business to merit a complete scription, from Pearl to 22 lines Pica including a variety of Ornamental Letter. We offer for sale also, an assoriment, of Cols, Dashes, Brass Rule, and other or- keep constantly on hand the naments, of which specimens will be forwarded to printers, as soon as they can be Such improvements as the wants of the trade and taste may require, will receive Also, various sizes of the h the earliest attention at this establishment. Printing Presses of every description.

Printing link of thy most approved quali- bility and strength has been to ies. Camposing Sticks. Brass and Com tested, and the Subscriber of mon Galley's Chases, Imposing Stones, no hesitation in pronounces Paper and Press Boards, Standing Presses, Furniture, together with a complete inferior to none, it not superassurtment of all articles used in a Prin- any in market. Both the conting Office, will be kept constantly on articles they expect to delite

Small founts, suitable for Book binders, purchasers on as liberal term, in a great variety, may be had when called articles of the same quality - be promptly and most carefully attended al charge for conveyance will and particularly in supplying sorts for made. all founts furnished by our predecessor.

We respectfully solicit a share of public palrouage. To the former patrons of this foundry, we deem it sufficient to say, that they will be as well and promptly served as heretofore, should they be disposed to favor us with their orders. The beamess of the Foundry will be conducted the purchaser giving note witunder the following firm, and by the same person who was in fact the type tounder in Mr. Howe's foundry.

S. ECKLIN & CO. Corner of Crown and Callowhill streets.

Philadelphia, Spt. 1834. Printers of English Papers, by giving bers for twine for the lutur the above three insertions and forwarding one with the advertisement, will be entitled to articles to the amount of three

PROSPECTUS

OF THE

Anson Advertiser.

THE subscriber proposes to publish in the Town of Wadesborough, Anson the Factory. County, North Carolina, a weekly paper

"The Anson Advertiser." According to custom, he proceeds to lay before the public an analysis of the plan apon which his paper will be conducted. Its columns will be devoted to the cause of Politics, Agriculture, Internal Improvement, Literature and Science in general.

It is the intention of the Editor diligently and fairly to report the passing political and other news of the day, and while he cannot, consistently with his principles. advocate the course pursued by the pres ent administration, he assures the jubic that he feels every disposition to do full justice to its merits. The press will be open to both parties-the Editor will endeavor to adhere strictly to principle and to disregard all party influence.

The editor intends to avail himself of the advantage of many of the best publications on the subjects of agriculture and internal at Col. Benj. Wilkinson's, 49 improvement, he of course will be able to select and lay before his readers, a large number of Essays which cannot fail of being interesting to every one who has at heart the prosperity of his country. All the most important and interesting procredings of Congress and the State Legis. the Groom in +very 1959 lature will be duly reported, and a portion. The season has already comme of the paper will at all times be devoted to polite Literature.

The subscriber is aware of the many gust. Good seed collect w difficulties he must encounter in advancing taken in payment at the high to public favor; he relies greatly upon the berality always shown by an enlightened public towards enterprise well conducted, improve their stock of horses and and assures his patrons, that no pains shall be wanting on his part to render his paper both a useful and interesting publication.

TERMS.

The Anson Advertiser will be printed on an imperial sheet at $3 00 per annum in advance, or is of the Archie and Col $3 50 at the end of the year; the stock. The horse and his f first number to issue as soon as Sev- so well known in this till en Hundred Subscribers are obtain- that it is considered useles ed; no subscription will be received for a less period than twelve months; give any further particulars and the paper will not be discontinu- ery care and attention W ed until orders are received to that paid, but no liability for aceffect, and all arrearages paid up.

Advertisements not exceeding 12 lines, inserted three times for one dollar, and 25 cents for each subsequent insertion.

Communications addressed to the editor must be post paid. WILLIAM E. BIRD.

Feb. 21, 1835.

State of North Careling MARTIN COUNTY

Court of Pleas and Quarter Same APRIL TERM, 1817 Levi Fagan, trustee \ Alteria of Horace Ely, -P L mater Joseph H. Adams, | money

Garnes N this case the Gatheres peared in open Court and knowledges that he has meand bonds sufficient to satisfy interest having been rated that to 14 April 1535, and energy

- It is therfore ordered, that cation be made in the Tar. Press, for six weeks, for the fendant to appear at next lesthis Court and replety or ... ment final will be entered against the Garnishee.

JOS. D BIGGS.C Price adv. $2:75. 188

VERY BEST Cotton Yarn and Talle FOR SALE.

THE Subscribers feel grant I for the liberal patrousgent they received the past year.

of past favors. They now have and eyes

Very best Cotton Tana From Nos. 2 to 18 helpine

Cotton Scine Twice-Orders from all parts of the Union will be procured elsewhere. These > Terms of sale--for all nonties of Yarn over one those pounds, six mouths credit and allowed - for any quantities one thousand pounds, four month out interest) at the time the Tim is delivered, payable at the aim stated times.

The proprietors of fisheries of do well to apply to the Sub-very liberal credit will be give Messrs. Hassel & W. will act as agents for the Suss hers at Williamston-Mr. Be Bell, at Greenville - and Me-Simmons & Eure, at Halatwhere Yarn and Twine in hought on the same terms at

BATTLE & BROTHES Falls Tar Jan. River, 10. 15

A Still for sale. GOOD STILL, helding gallons, may be purite cheap by applying to GEORGE COLMES

Greenville, Pitt April 22d, 1835. Young Harrod WILL STA the present set

Falls of Tar R Jordan Joiner, Sen'r's, alteria -and will be let to mares a reduced price of Five Dollars season, with twenty-five cen ed and will end the first of cash prices. Those who will never have a more favorable PEDIGREE. As to his pedigree it is let necessary only to observe the DOSSEY BATTLE March 19th, 1835.

Printing Press for Salt A SUPER ROYAL Practing Prod the old mode of construction, procured on reasonable terms. Apply at this Ofth

January, 1834.

portunity.