

Miscellaneous.

From the Cincinnati Mirror.

THE USED UP.

The jig is up: I have been flung Sky high—and worse than that:
The girl whose praises I have sung, With pen, with pencil, and with tongue,
Said "No," and I felt flat.

Now I will neither roar nor rant, Nor my hard fate deplore:
Why should a fellow look aslant If one girl says she won't or can't, While there's so many more?

I strove my best—it would not do, I told her she'd regret; She'd ruin my heart,—and chances too,

As girls don't like those fellows who Their walking papers get.

In truth I loved her very well, And thought that she loved me,
The reason why I cannot tell—But when I wooed this pretty belle—'Twas a mistake in me.

She's dark of eye—and her sweet smile,

Like some of which I've read,
Is false—for she, with softest guile, Lured me 'mong rocks, near love's bright isle
And then she—cut me dead.

My vanity was wounded sore And that I hate the worst:
You see, a haughty look I wore And thought she could not but adore Of all men, me the first.

Well, thank the fates, once more I'm free—

At every shrine I'll bow;
And if again a girl cheat me, Exceeding sharp, I guess she'll be, I've cut my eye-teeth now.

Oh, like the bumble bee I'll rove Just when and where I please—Inhaling sweets from every grove, Humming around each flower I love, And dancing in each breeze.

that she has taken the Store House
next door to Mr.
W. Harris, formerly the Bank—where she opens the largest & most splendid Assortment of Millinery ever brought to this market. She flatters herself, that from the knowledge of business acquired in seven years employment in the most extensive and fashionable establishments in the City of New York, and being well acquainted with most of the Millinery and Mercantile Establishments in that city, she is enabled to purchase goods low, and have her Millinery made up in a superior style and on the most reasonable terms. Among her assortment will be found

150 Tuscan Bonnets, (different sizes and patterns) at from $1.50 up to the finest made.
A handsome assortment of Northern made velvet, satin, and silk

Miss M. respectfully invites the Ladies of Halifax and the adjoining counties to call and examine her stock before purchasing—and assures them that she will sell than any other establishment in this section of country.

PROSPECTUS OF The Extra Globe.

THE undersigned propose to issue the first number of a new series of the Extra Globe, on Monday, the 25th of May next, and to publish it weekly for six months, making twenty-six numbers; the last to contain an index to the whole. It will be printed on fine double-royal paper, made up in quarto form, like the Extra and Congressional Globes published by us last year.
The 26 numbers will make 416 royal quarto pages.

It will contain the principal original articles of the Daily and Semi-Weekly Globes —foreign and domestic News—notice of the public meetings—the elections, and public proceedings in every State in the Union, in relation to the canvass for the next Presidency—a contest which the indications of the present year will go far to decide.

The first number will contain the Proceedings of the Democratic National Convention, to be held at Baltimore on the 20th of next month. An excellent Reporter has already been engaged to report the Proceedings of the Convention, and the Speeches which may be made on the occasion.

We request the favor of those friends to whom this Prospectus may be sent, to circulate it, for the purpose of obtaining subscribers. A copy of the work will be sent to the newspapers that copy this Prospectus.

Subscribers should forward their names in time to reach us before the 25th May.
If they do not, we may not be able to furnish them with all the numbers; because the work is put at so low a price, that we cannot afford to reprint any numbers that may be exhausted.

TERMS.

One Dollar per copy, in advance.
Eleven copies will be furnished for ten dollars; twenty-two copies for twenty dollars, and so on in proportion.

The price of this paper is so low, that we cannot afford to open accounts with those who subscribe for it. Therefore no attention will be paid in any order unless the money accompanies it.

HISTORY OF THE Kehukee Association.

JUST PUBLISHED, and for sale at the Office of the Tarboro' Press, "A concise History of the Kehukee Baptist Association, from its original rise to the present time—by Elder Joseph Biggs—under the supervision of a committee (consisting of Elders Joshua Lawrence, William Hyman, and Luke Ward, and brethren Thomas Biggs, Joseph D. Biggs, and Cushion B. Hassell) appointed by the Association." Price $1 each, or $10 per dozen.

COMPREHENSIVE Commentary on the Bible.

THE Subscriber having been requested to act as Agent for this highly interesting work, informs the public that the first volume can be seen at his office, where subscriptions will be received.
The first volume is a specimen of the execution of the work, editorial and mechanical. It is to contain all that is valuable in the writings of those great lights in the Christian Church, Henry, Scott, Dodd-ridge, Gill, Adam Clark, Patrick, Pool, Lowth, Burder, and others; the whole designed to a digest and combination of the advantages of the best Bible commentaries.
On the whole, it is believed all will admit that the work is what it has been pronounced to be—a credit to the country; and the publishers and editors pledge themselves and their characters (and they can do no more) that every effort shall be put forth to make it, both in the literary and mechanical parts, lastingly useful, and worthy a liberal support. But to sustain them in so expensive an enterprise, the low price fixed for the work requires that it should have an extensive sale, and no publisher would feel warranted in prosecuting the work without a large subscription list; and, however unpopular such a course may be in regard to ordinary works, no hesitation is felt in resorting to it in this case, so manifestly necessary and proper. They appeal in confidence to the religious public and to all, who wish to see it circulate, to their names and patronage.

There is a Baptist edition, differing in no respect from the general edition except on the ordinance of Baptism, in reference to which the Rev. Joseph A. Warne, Editor of the Baptist edition, makes the following remarks, viz: All that was promised in the Baptist edition, as such, was that whatever was found in the work as published for Pentecosts generally, which did not correspond with the views of Baptists, should be removed, and the marrest views of their own best writers substituted. It is confidently believed that no point connected with what is peculiar to the Baptist denomination, has been left unguarded; and when it is considered that on no points but those do Baptists differ from Henry, Scott, Doddridge, &c. there can be scarcely a doubt but that the denomination in general will feel that they have now a Commentary, in the reading of which they are sure to find what will fan the flame of love, and satisfy the appetite for truth, and this without that dimini-tion of their enjoyment with which they were accustomed to meet in reading the authors, arising out of their different views of a christian ordinance.

Terms.—The work will be comprised in five volumes, averaging not less than 800 pages per volume, royal 8 vo handsomely printed on fine paper, and well bound in sheep, and lettered with double titles, at 3 dollars per volume. There will be several engravings, frontispieces, vignette titles, and several neatly engraved maps, with other illustrative wood cuts, &c. Copies bound in extra gilt spring backs, $4.50; plain calf, $3.75.

From the Subscriber's long experience in his business, and from the approbation which his work has hitherto met with, he hesitates not to promise entire satisfaction liberty of calling the attention of sure of business, that many are obliged of necessity to submit to a longer delay than they wish.

Six Months in a Convent.

RUSSELL, ODIORNE & CO. have in press and will publish in a few days, a new work, with the above title, being the Narrative of Miss Rebecca Theresa Reed, who was under the influence of the Roman Catholics about two years, and an inmate of the Convent on Mount Benedict, Charlestown, nearly six months in 1831-2.
The book furnishes a concise history of the rules and regulations, the employments and ceremonies of the Ursuline order; and as it is the first account ever given in this country of a similar institution, the writer has confined herself strictly to a narration of facts that transpired under her own eye, and that were noted down after her escape.
It will contain a volume of 200 pages, 18 mo. finished and bound in the neatest manner.
