The report on the American Indemnity Bill was to be made to the Chamber of Peers on the 4th, and the debate to commence on the Monday following. The general impression was that it would pass as received from the Chamber, but some supposed the conditional clause would be stricken out. The trial of the prisoners of April was regularly going on. Spain has made a formal call for the armed intervention of France, agreeably to the provisions of the quadruple treaty. This created much agitation in the French and English money markets.

DIED.
 On the 4th day of July, 1835, at his residence in Washington county, near Plymouth, N. C. Mr. Joseph Garrett, aged 66 years. A widow and a numerous family of children are left to bewail his loss. This gentleman will be regretted not only in the more near and dear relations of husband and father, but in the social relations of friend and neighbor. He was a good husband, a kind parent, a most excellent neighbor, a sincere friend, upright in all his social, sound and strictly republican in his political relations; though not actually a member of any society, yet with preferences in favor of the Baptist persuasion, he might truly be said to be a religious man, and though last not least, he was known to be that noblest work of God, an honest man.

The following obituary is furnished by a correspondent of the Raleigh Register:
 In the 60th year of age, on the 7th inst. by her way from Tarboro' to Raleigh at the house of Mr. Joiner Watkins, in this county, Mrs. Elizabeth Ragsdale, widow of Mr. Benjamin Ragsdale, formerly Chief Clerk in the State Bank. The writer has had the pleasure to be acquainted with this lady for more than forty years, and has ever admired those virtuous and amiable qualities which so much endeared her to the family and friendly circle. To her afflicted relatives and friends, it should be a great alleviation of the sorrowful event, to be well assured of her happy transition from a state of infirmities, pains and sufferings, to that blissful abode where evils of the kind "are feared and felt no more."

BARGAINS,
 To be had in Land.

The Subscriber offers for sale, on the most advantageous terms, his

Tract of Land,
 Lying four miles west of Tarboro', containing 280 acres, the whole wood land and timbered inferior to none in this section of country. The abundance and superiority of the timber, the convenience to market and great demand, (saying nothing of the utility of the soil,) will in a very short time render this land almost invaluable. There are at this time about fifteen thousand turpentine boxes on the land, which were cut the last spring, and there can be at least ten thousand more which will make a sufficient quantity for three hands to work. He is also authorized to sell

Two other Tracts,
 Belonging to Richard W. and William Garrett, one of which contains 190 acres, with about 80 cleared—the other contains 270 acres, with a comfortable dwelling, kitchen, &c.
 The three Tracts are adjoining, and will be sold in one parcel, if desired. Should he fail to sell the whole before Tuesday in August Court, in Tarboro', he will sell each Tract separate at that day and place to the highest bidder. Terms made known on the day of sale, or on application to
