FOR THE TARBORO PRESS.

A premature description of THE EDGEcombe Temple of Law. Temple of Law! thou most stupendous pile Of brick and wood, and tin, that glows like fire. Thy cupola doth show its crown a mile, And thereupon points up a lofty spire. In front thou hast a portico sublime, With massy pillars white as driven snow, Building defiance to the might of time, But bids in vain, at length he'll lay them low. Thy wings extend just half across a square. In these the Clerks the records keep beneath; Above, the Jury at intervals repair, To find what crime entitles man to death. Cornice decorates thy towering eyes, Paint a brilliant face thy timbers lend, Through windows huge thy every room receives, The light of day to each extended end. An arch within doth curve sublimely o'er Thy court room floor, between the door and bar, Thy bar doth run like other bars before, The Judge's seat in form a circular. What more, O Temple, can I sing of you? Nought except thy splendid martin box, Capacious belfry, magnificent to view, Huge enough for forty bells and clocks. Yet bells nor clocks, nor nothing else I fear, But birds will shelter 'neath thy lofty crown; Martins will haunt thee every future year, A public martin box 'twill be in town. JIMMY CROW.

The Silk Culturist.

THE Executive Committee of the Hartford County Silk Society, have commenced a monthly publication, called the Silk Culturist and Farmer's Manual. The object of the publication is to disseminate a thorough knowledge of the cultivation of the Mulberry Tree, in all its varieties—The rearing of Silk Worms—The production of Cocoons and the Reeling of Silk, in the most approved method. The importance of this knowledge will appear from the fact that the next profit of land devoted to the culture of Silk, is double, if not triple, to that derived from any other crop which can be put upon it. It is also a fact, that every moderate farmer can raise several hundred dollars worth of Silk without interfering with his ordinary agricultural operations. But in order to avail himself of this facility to obtain competency and wealth, which our soil and climate have given him, he must possess himself of information on the subject—for without it his attempts will be fruitless. It is, therefore, the object of the Committee to diffuse this information as extensively as possible, and at the cheapest rate. The publication will contain a complete manual or directory from sowing the seed to reeling the Silk, together with such facts and experiments, as will enable farmers to raise Silk and prepare it for market, without further knowledge or assistance. It will also contain interesting matter on agricultural subjects in general. TERMS—The Culturist will be published in monthly numbers of Eight Quarto Pages, at Fifty Cents a Year. No subscription will be received unless paid in Advance, and for not less than a year. Subscribers received by F. G. Constock, Secretary, Hartford, Conn., to whom, also, Communications may be addressed, which, if post paid, will be attended to. Hartford, April, 1835.

Harris, formerly the Bank—where she opens the largest & most splendid Assortment of Millinery ever brought to this market. She flatters herself, that from the knowledge of business acquired in seven years employment in the most extensive and fashionable establishments in the City of New York, and being well acquainted with most of the Millinery and Mercantile Establishments in that city, she is enabled to purchase goods low, and have her Millinery made up in a superior style and on the most reasonable terms. It will be printed on fine double-royal paper, made up in quarto form, like the Extra and Congressional Globes published by us last year. The 26 numbers will make 416 royal quarto pages. It will contain the principal original articles of the Daily and Semi-Weekly Globes—foreign and domestic News—notice of the public meetings—the elections, and public proceedings in every State in the Union, in relation to the canvass for the next Presidency—a contest which the indications of the present year will go far to decide. The first number will contain the Proceedings of the Democratic National Convention, to be held at Baltimore on the 20th of next month. An excellent Reporter has already been engaged to report the Proceedings of the Convention, and the Speeches which may be made on the occasion. We request the favor of those friends to whom this Prospectus may be sent, to circulate it, for the purpose of obtaining subscribers. A copy of the work will be sent to the newspapers that copy this Prospectus. Subscribers should forward their names in time to reach us before the 25th May. If they do not, we may not be able to furnish them with all the numbers; because the work is put at so low a price, that we cannot afford to reprint any numbers that may be exhausted.

TERMS. One Dollar per copy, in advance. Eleven copies will be furnished for ten dollars; twenty-two copies for twenty dollars, and so on in proportion. The price of this paper is so low, that we cannot afford to open accounts with those who subscribe for it. Therefore no attention will be paid to any order unless the money accompanies it. BLAIR & RIVES. Washington, April 10th, 1835.

HISTORY OF THE Kehukee Association. JUST PUBLISHED, and for sale at the office of the Tarboro' Press. "A concise History of the Kehukee Baptist Association, from its original rise to the present time—by Elder Joseph Biggs—under the supervision of a committee (consisting of Elders Josiah Lawrence, William Hyman, and Luke Ward, and brethren Thomas Biggs, Joseph D. Biggs, and Cushion B. Hassell) appointed by the Association." Price $1 each, or $10 per dozen. October, 1834.

COMPREHENSIVE Commentary on the Bible. THE Subscriber having been requested to act as Agent for this highly interesting work, informs the public that the first volume can be seen at his office, where subscriptions will be received. The first volume is a specimen of the execution of the work, editorial and mechanical. It is to contain all that is valuable in the writings of those great lights in the Christian Church, Henry, Scott, Doddridge, Gill, Adam Clark, Patrick, Pool, Lowth, Burder, and others; the whole designed to a digest and combination of the advantages of the best Bible commentaries. On the whole, it is believed all will admit that the work is what it has been pronounced to be—a credit to the country; and the publishers and editors pledge themselves and their characters (and they can do no more) that every effort shall be put forth to make it, both in the literary and mechanical parts, lastingly useful, and worthy a liberal support. But to sustain them in so expensive an enterprise, the low price fixed for the work requires that it should have an extensive sale, and no publisher would feel warranted in prosecuting the work without a large subscription list; and, however unpopular such a course may be in regard to ordinary works, no hesitation is felt in resorting to it in this case, so manifestly necessary and proper. They appeal in confidence to the religious public and to all, who wish to see it circulate, for their names and patronage. There is a Baptist edition, differing in no respect from the general edition except in the ordinance of Baptism, in reference to which the Rev. Joseph A. Warner, Editor of the Baptist edition, makes the following remarks, viz: All that was promised in the Baptist edition, as such, was that whatever was found in the work as published for Pedobaptists generally, which did not correspond with the views of Baptists, should be removed, and the matured views of their own best writers substituted. It is confidently believed that no point connected with what is peculiar to the Baptist denomination, has been left unguarded; and when it is considered that on no points but those do Baptists differ from Henry, Scott, Doddridge, &c. there can be scarcely a doubt but that the denomination in general will feel that they have now a Commentary, in the reading of which they are sure to find what will fan the flame of love, and satisfy the appetite for truth, and this without that diminution of their enjoyment with which they were accustomed to meet in reading the authors, arising out of their different views of a christian ordinance.

Terms.—The work will be comprised in five volumes, averaging not less than 800 pages per volume, royal 8vo handsomely printed on fine paper, and well bound in sheep, and lettered with double titles, at 3 dollars per volume. There will be several engravings, frontispieces, vignette titles, and several neatly engraved maps, with other illustrative wood cuts, &c. Copies bound in extra gilt spring backs, $4.50; plain calf, $3.75. GEO. HOWARD. March 13th, 1835.
