acres of ground, with a new two story dwelling, 32 x 18 feet, with other necessary out houses, well

BARGAINS,
To be had in Land.

THE Subscriber offers for sale, on the most advantageous terms, his

Tract of Land,

Lying four miles west of Tarboro', containing 280 acres, the whole wood land and timbered interior to none in this section of country. The abundance and superiority of the timber, the convenience to market and great demand, (saying nothing of the fertility of the soil,) will in a very short time render this land almost invaluable. There are at this time about fifteen thousand turpentine boxes on the land, which were cut the last spring, and there can be at least ten thousand more which will make a sufficient quantity for three hands to work.
He is also authorized to sell

Two other Tracts, Belonging to Richard W. and William Garrett, one of which contains 190 acres, with about 80 cleared—the other contains 270 acres, with a comfortable dwelling, kitchen, &c.

The three Tracts are adjoining, and will be sold in one parcel, if desired. Should he fail to sell the whole before Tuesday in August Court, in Tarboro', he will sell each Tract separate at that day and place to the highest bidder. Terms made known on the day of sale, or on application to

JAMES J. GARRETT.

PROSPECTUS
OF THE
Anson Advertiser.

THE subscriber proposes to publish in the Town of Wadesborough, Anson County, North Carolina, a weekly paper entitled.

"The Anson Advertiser."

According to custom, he proceeds to lay before the public an analysis of the plan upon which his paper will be conducted.
Its columns will be devoted to the cause of Politics, Agriculture, Internal Improvement, Literature and Science in general.

It is the intention of the Editor diligently and fairly to report the passing political and other news of the day, and while he cannot, consistently with his principles, advocate the course pursued by the present administration, he assures the public that he feels every disposition to do full justice to its merits. The press will be open to both parties—the Editor will endeavor to adhere strictly to principle and to disregard all party influence.

The Editor intends to avail himself of the advantage of many of the best publications on the subjects of agriculture and internal improvement, he of course will be able to select and lay before his readers, a large number of Essays which cannot fail of being interesting to every one who has at heart the prosperity of his country. All the most important and interesting proceedings of Congress and the State Legislature will be duly reported, and a portion of the paper will at all times be devoted to poetic Literature.

The subscriber is aware of the many difficulties he must encounter in advancing to public favor; he relies greatly upon the liberality always shown by an enlightened public towards enterprise well conducted, and assures his patrons, that no pains shall be wanting on his part to render his paper both a useful and interesting publication.

TERMS

The Anson Advertiser will be printed on an imperial sheet at $3.00 per annum in advance, or $3.50 at the end of the year; the first number to issue as soon as Seven Hundred Subscribers are obtained; no subscription will be received for a less period than twelve months; and the paper will not be discontinued until orders are received to that effect, and all arrearages paid up.

Advertisements not exceeding 12 lines, inserted three times for one dollar, and 25 cents for each subsequent insertion.

Communications addressed to the editor must be post paid.

can have them by applying to me.
I shall attend next Tarboro' Court

Books for $1 25.

THE thirteen numbers of Waldie's Select Circulating Library, now issued for the year 1835, contain the following valuable and entertaining books, for the very small sum of $1 25, with the additional advantage of being received in all parts of the Union by mail, at newspaper postage:—

1. The adventures of Japhet in search of a Father, by the author of Peter Simpple, &c.
2. Jennings' Landscape Annual for 1835:
the Fall of Granada, by Thomas Roscoe, Esq.
3. Letters and Essays in prose and verse, by Richard Sharp.
4. Baring Out, from the life of a Sub-editor.
5. Antonio, the Student of Padua.
6. The Fashionable Wife and Unfashionable Husband, by Mrs. Opie.
7. Traditions of the American War of Independence.
8. Travels into Eshkara, and a voyage on the Indus, by Lieutenant Burnes.
9. The Siege of Vienna, a historical romance, by Madame Fiechter.
10. Travelling Troubles.
11. My Cousin Nicholas, a humorous tale, from Blackwood's Magazine.

Of the above works there is preparing, or prepared, for publication by the bookseller, Japhet, Sharp's Letters and Essays, Burnes's Travels, the Siege of Vienna, and my Cousin Nicholas; these alone will cost purchasers more than a whole year's subscription to the Circulating Library, to consist of 54 numbers including two supplements, and in addition to this, the Journal of Belles Lettres, printed on the cover of the Library, contains, weekly, one-fourth as much matter as the Library itself; thus forming the cheapest publication of even this cheap era of periodicals.

Waldie's Select Circulating Library having been long established in the good opinion of the public, and sustained as it is by an unprecedented amount of patronage, no fear on the part of subscribers can now be entertained that the publisher will not comply with his part of the engagement.

Subscriptions to the Library $5.00 in advance, or in clubs of five, $4.00 each.
Waldie's Port Folio and Companion to the Select Circulating Library, commenced on the first of January, 1835, being a reprint of the best articles in the English Magazines, combined with original matter, is supplied to clubs of five, at $2.00 each, or to individual subscribers who take the Library at $2.50.

The Museum of Foreign Literature, Science & Art, at $6.00, or in clubs, at $5.00, is published at the same office.

NEW

Coach & Gig Manufactory.

THE Subscriber respectfully informs his friends and the public in general, that he has commenced business for himself on his lot in Tarborough, near the Bridge, where he will be prepared to carry on the above business in all its various branches. He served a regular apprenticeship under Mr. Thos. Cobbs, of Raleigh, who carried on the business very extensively, and kept in his employ regular northern workmen. If several years acquaintance with the business in one of the most extensive establishments in the State could ensure his success, he feels confident he should meet it; but he is perfectly aware that attention is equally necessary, and this attention he is determined to render. He hopes, therefore, that all persons who may favor him with their patronage, will never become dissatisfied or disappointed. His work shall be faithfully executed and of the best materials. He expects to have in a short time a general assignment of materials from New York, which will enable him to do his work not inferior to any done in this section of country. Repairing done with neatness and despatch.
