T has fallen to the humble lot of the un-der-igned to have presented to the A merican People, a third edition of the Biographies of the two above named highly distinguished patriotic citizens, whose constant devotion to the best interests of our Government has led to their designation, as a testimony of the estimation in which their services are regarded by the PropLE. whom they have served, as candidates for the two first offices within the gift of a FREE, HAPPY, and FLOURISHING NATION This token of respect gives to the world additional proof that faithful service shall not go unrewarded.

Thus we shall perpetuate the principles of Jefferson, which have been so signally revived, no bly acted upon, and TRIUMPRASILY carrued out by ANDREW JACKSON, who, spurning all flattery, knew nothing but the PEOPLE, the WHELE PROFLE, and their respective rights, regardless of their fortunes. whether rich or poor; thus readering his NAME and RENOWS as durable as the EVER-LASTING HILLS.

The arrangement of the volume will be as follows: -

1st. Portrait of Andrew Jackson. To whom the volume will be inscribed, with an address by the Publisher.

2d. Portrait of M. 3d. Portrait of R M Johnson. To be followed by his Biography, cularged, including various Speeches, Suspay MAIL REPORTS, and other documents; illustrative of his long continued public hie. which has ever been devoted to the good of his country; including an authentic account of the fall of the renowned Indian warrior, TECHNSER, on the ever memorable 5th of October, 1813-with an engraved view of the battle field.

The work will be complete in one valume of about 400 pages. The price to be fixed at the moderate sum of One Dollar," neatly bound with cloth backs; or calf and gilt, with the additional expense of binds ing The work, which is now in a state of preparation, shall be such as to give entire sati-fac ion; as it is in the hends of gentlemen who have for nearly forty years been personally and intimately acquainted with the private and public life of the above named distinguished citizens.

There is a Baptist edition, differing in m respect from the general earlon except on the ordinance of Baptism, in reference to which the Rev. Joseph A. Warne, Editor of the Baptist edition, makes the following remarks, viz: All that was promised in the Baptist edition, as such, was that whatever was found in the work as published for Predobaptists generally, which did not correspond with the views of Baptists, should be removed, and the maturest views of their own best writers substituted. It is confidently believed that no point connected with what is peculiar to the Baptist denomination, has been left unguarded; and when it is considered that on no points but those do Baptists differ from Henry, Scott, Doddridge, &c. there can be scarcely a doubt but that the denomination in general will feel that they have now a Commentary, in the reading of which they are sure to find what will fan the flame of love, and satisfy the appetite for truth, and this without that diminution of their enjoyment with which they were accustomed to meet in reading the authors, arising out of their different views of a christian ordinance.

Tarboro,' 30th Sept. 1834. The Silk Culturist.

THE Executive Committee of the Bartford County Silk Society, have commenced a monthly publication, called the Silk Culturist and Farmer's Manual. The object of the publication is to disseminate a thorough knowledge of the cultivation of the Mulberry Tree, in all its varieties-The rearing of Silk Worms-The production of Cocoons and the Reeling of Silk, in the most approved method, The importance of this knowledge will appear from the fact that the nett profit of and devoted to the culture of Silk, is double, if not triple, to that derived from any other crop which can be put upon it. It is also a fact, that every moderate tarmer can taise several hundred dollars worth of Silk without interfering with his ordinary agricultural operations. But in order to avail bimself of this facility to obtain competency and wealth, which our soil and climate have given him, he must possess himself of information on the subect-for without it his attempts will be fruitless. It is, therefore, the object of the Committee to diffuse this information as extensively as possible, and at the cheaps est rate. The publication will contain a complete manual or directory from sowing the seed to reeling the Silk, together with such facts and experiments, as will coable farmers to raise Silk and prepare it for market, without further knowledge or as sistance. It will also contain interesting matter on agricultural subjects in general TERMS - The Culturist will be published in monthly numbers of Eight Quarter

Pages, at Fifty Cents a Year. No subscription will be received unless paid in Advance, and for not less than a year. Subscribers received by F. G. Comstock Secretary, Haitford, Conn., to whom, also Communications may be addressed, which, if post paid, will be attended to. Hartford, April, 1835.
