

Martin Van Buren,
OF NEW YORK.
Richard M. Johnson,
OF KENTUCKY.

IT has fallen to the humble lot of the undersigned to have presented to the American People, a third edition of the Biographies of the two above named highly distinguished patriotic citizens, whose constant devotion to the best interests of our Government has led to their designation, as a testimony of the estimation in which their services are regarded by the People whom they have served, as candidates for the two first offices within the gift of a FREE, HAPPY, and FLOURISHING NATION. This token of respect gives to the world additional proof that faithful service shall not go unrewarded.

The object of this appeal to the republican portion of our fellow citizens, is to obtain their co-operation in the circulation of an edition of 100,000 copies of the joint Biography of MARTIN VAN BUREN & RICHARD M. JOHNSON, enlarged, revised and corrected, so as to be valuable to every lover of his country, and alike honorable to the distinguished citizens whom we THE PEOPLE intend still further to honor, by their election to the offices of President and Vice-President of the United States, in the election of 1836. Thus we shall perpetuate the principles of Jefferson, which have been so signally revived, nobly acted upon, and triumphantly carried out by ANDREW JACKSON, who, sprung from all flattery, knew nothing but the PEOPLE, the WHOLE PEOPLE, and their respective rights regardless of their fortunes, whether rich or poor; thus rendering his NAME and REPUTATION as durable as the EVER-LASTING HILLS.

The arrangement of the volume will be as follows:—

1st. Portrait of Andrew Jackson.

To whom the volume will be inscribed, with an address by the Publisher.

2d. Portrait of M. Van Buren.

To be followed by his Biography, enlarged, including several valuable documents, illustrative of his public character, and exhibiting the magical powers of his eloquent mind, which has ever been devoted to sustain the rights of his country, and the glory and prosperity of his fellow citizens.

3d. Portrait of R. M. Johnson.

To be followed by his Biography, enlarged, including various Speeches, Sundry MAIL REPORTS, and other documents; illustrative of his long continued public life, which has ever been devoted to the good of his country; including an authentic account of the fall of the renowned Indian warrior, LACUMESH, on the evening of the 5th of October, 1813—with an engraved view of the battle field.

The work will be complete in one volume of about 400 pages. It is printed on the finest of the most durable paper, and is bound with cloth covers of salt and gilt, with the additional expense of hand-binding. The work, which is now in a state of preparation, shall be such as to give entire satisfaction; as it is in the hands of gentlemen who have the nearly forty years been personally and intimately acquainted with the private and public life of the above named distinguished citizens.

The celebrated address of the Hon. Thomas H. Benton, of Missouri, bearing testimony to the high character of Martin Van Buren; and the eloquent speech of the Hon. James Barbour, of Virginia, in the U. S. Senate portraying the chivalry of Col. Johnson on the field, and in the councils of the nation, will be appended to the work.

As there is among our republican citizens, an extensive population of German origin, the work will appear simultaneously in both the English and the German languages. It will, therefore, be necessary for subscribers who wish to have the work in the German, to signify the same on the subscription order.

It will, in order to give prompt and extensive circulation to the work, be indispensable for all subscribers to pay at the time of subscribing—all money to be at a proper time forwarded with the lists of signatures to the publishing committee, which will be duly made known by a notice in the Washington Globe.

Democratic editors disposed to encourage the work, will confer a favor, which will be gratefully acknowledged by the Subscriber, in giving publicity to the above and receiving subscriptions at their respective offices, to whom a reasonable per centage will be allowed.

The People's obedient servant,
WM. EMMONS,
Washington City, June 1, 1835.

Classical Institute.

THE undersigned, will open a Classical English School,

At Sparta, No. Ca.

On the 1st Oct. 1835, in which will be taught orthography, reading, penmanship, grammar, philology, geography, history, arithmetic, book keeping, composition.

Board can be had in the vicinity on moderate terms. Terms of tuition the same as in other institutions of eminence.

J. F. HUGHES.

N. B. I will not only endeavor to tache "the young idea how to shoot," but will use my undivided and indefatigable exertions, to make it blossom as the rose, and flourish with the magnificence of the most fragrant literary flower.

The above Goods having been purchased on very advantageous terms, and selected by herself, she can with confidence recommend them, as being of excellent quality and also remarkably cheap. She invites an examination of them, as they cannot fail to please.
Tarboro, May 1, 1835.

THE NEW Millinery Store.

MISS MITCHELL,

BEGS leave to inform her friends and the public, that she has taken the Store House next door to Mr. W. Harris, formerly the Bank—where she opens the largest & most splendid Assortment of Millinery ever brought to this market. She flatters herself, that from the knowledge of business acquired in seven years employment in the most extensive and fashionable establishments in the City of New York, and being well acquainted with most of the Millinery and Mercantile Establishments in that city, she is enabled to purchase goods low, and have her Millinery made up in a superior style and on the most reasonable terms. Among her assortment will be found

250 Tuscan Bonnets,

(different sizes and patterns) at from $1.50 up to the finest made.

A handsome assortment of Northern made velvet, satin, and silk Bonnets.

A variety of Caps, Capes and Turbans.

Black, white, blue, pink and yellow Italian Crapes.

Black, white, blue, yellow and variegated Ostrich Feathers.

Artificial Flowers, feather and velvet Flowers.

Gold and silver do.

Black and white blond Edgings and Footings.

Hair Braids, Puffs and Curls.

A few elegant painted lustrous Shawls and Reticules.

A handsome assortment of Ribbons, with many other articles too numerous to mention.

Miss M. respectfully invites the Ladies of Halifax and the adjoining counties to call and examine her stock before purchasing—and assures them that she will sell every article in her line, lower than any other establishment in this section of country.

N. B. She has purchased a new Apparatus for cleaning and pressing Tuscan, Leghorn and Straw Bonnets, in the Northern style.

Specimens of her work, both in that and the Dress Making, may be seen at her Store, where all orders will be thankfully received and punctually attended to.
Halifax, Feb. 25.

100 Dollars Reward
ESCAPED from the Subscriber, while encamped at the house of Col. A. Watt, in Rockingham county, (N. C.) on the night of the 10th of May, 1834, a negro man named
JOHN,

He is about 31 years old, about 5 feet 11 inches high; no marks recollected; had on a homespun jeans long coat, and common thread and cotton pantaloons. John was purchased from Archibald Forbes, in Pitt county, near Greenville, and it is probable he will endeavor to get back to the same neighborhood.

The above reward of One Hundred Dollars will be paid to any one who will apprehend and lodge the said Negro in any jail, so that the Subscriber can get him again. Letters addressed to the undersigned, at New Store P. O. Buckingham county, (Va.) will receive immediate attention.

COMPREHENSIVE
Commentary on the Bible.

THE Subscriber having been requested to act as Agent for this highly interesting work, informs the public that the first volume can be seen at his office, where subscriptions will be received.

The first volume is a specimen of the execution of the work, editorial and mechanical. It is to contain all that is valuable in the writings of those great lights in the Christian Church, Henry, Scott, Doddridge, Gill, Adam Clark, Patrick, Poul, Lowth, Burder, and others; the whole designed to a digest and combination of the advantages of the best Bible commentaries. On the whole, it is believed all will admit that the work is what it has been pronounced to be—a credit to the country; and the publishers and editors pledge themselves and their characters (and they can do no more) that every effort shall be put forth to make it, both in the literary and mechanical parts, lastingly useful, and worthy a liberal support. But to sustain them in so expensive an enterprise, the low price fixed for the work requires that it should have an extensive sale, and no publisher would feel warranted in prosecuting the work without a large subscription list; and however unpopular such a course may be in regard to ordinary works, no hesitation is felt in resorting to it in this case, so manifestly necessary and proper. They solicit confidence to the religious public, and to all, who wish to see it circulate, for their names and patronage.

There is a Baptist edition, differing in no respect from the general edition except on the ordinance of Baptism, in reference to which the Rev. Joseph A. Warne, Editor of the Baptist edition, makes the following remarks, viz: All that was promised in the Baptist edition, as such, was that whatever was found in the work as published for Presbyterians generally, which did not correspond with the views of Baptists, should be removed, and the maturest views of their own best writers substituted. It is confidently believed that no point connected with what is peculiar to the Baptist denomination, has been left unguarded; and when it is considered that on no points but those do Baptists differ from Henry, Scott, Doddridge, &c. there can be scarcely a doubt but that the denomination in general will feel that they have now a Commentary, in the reading of which they are sure to find what will fan the flame of love, and satisfy the appetite for truth, and this without that diminution of their enjoyment with which they were accustomed to meet in reading the authors, arising out of their different views of a christian ordinance.

Terms.—The work will be comprised in five volumes, averaging not less than 800 pages per volume, royal 8vo hand-somely printed on fine paper, and well bound in sheep, and lettered with double titles, at 3 dollars per volume. There will be several engravings, frontispieces, vignette titles, and several neatly engraved maps, with other illustrative wood cuts, &c. Copies bound in extra gilt spring backs, $4.50; plain calf, $3.75.

Six Months in a Convert

RUSSELL, ODIORNE & CO. have in press and will publish in a few days, a new work, with the above title, being the Narrative of Miss Rebecca Theresa Reed, who was under the influence of the isoman Catholics about two years, and an inmate of the Convent on Mount Benedict, Charleston, nearly six months in 1831-2.

The book contains a concise history of the rules and regulations, the employments and ceremonies of the Ursuline order; and as it is the first account ever given in this country of a similar institution, the writer has confined herself strictly to a narration of facts that transpired under her own eye, and that were noted down after her escape. It will contain a volume of 200 pages, 18 mo. finished and bound in the neatest manner.

Oxford Examiner.
THE Subscriber invites propositions to succeed him as printer and proprietor of the "Oxford Examiner," to take effect not sooner than the 1st of next October. A practical Printer could invest a small sum to considerable advantage in this Establishment. Any gentleman possessing a few hours leisure each day might devote them with the certainty of profit to the conducting of a paper in this place. The income has enabled the present Editor to live comfortably for more than five years, although he commenced and has all along labored under embarrassing disadvantages. But little exertion would ensure a more extended patronage. Should an application be made which would likely prove agreeable to the public, a bargain may be had. The establishment is deemed a permanent one as the people have manifested a determination to sustain a Press in their country Town.

PROSPECTUS
OF THE Anson Advertiser.

THE subscriber proposes to publish in the Town of Wadesborough, Anson County, North Carolina, a weekly paper entitled,

"The Anson Advertiser."

According to custom, he proceeds to lay before the public an analysis of the plan upon which his paper will be conducted. Its columns will be devoted to the cause of Politics, Agriculture, Internal Improvement, Literature and Science in general.

It is the intention of the Editor, diligently and fairly to report the passing political and other news of the day, and while he cannot, consistently with his principles, advocate the course pursued by the present administration, he assures the public that he feels every disposition to do full justice to its merits. The press will be open to both parties—the Editor will endeavor to adhere strictly to principle and to disregard all party influence.

The editor intends to avail himself of the advantage of many of the best publications on the subjects of agriculture and internal improvement, he of course will be able to select and lay before his readers, a large number of Essays which cannot fail of being interesting to every one who has at heart the prosperity of his country. All the most important and interesting proceedings of Congress and the State Legislature will be duly reported, and a portion of the paper will at all times be devoted to polite Literature.

The subscriber is aware of the many difficulties he must encounter in addressing to public favor; he relies greatly upon the liberality always shown by an enlightened public towards enterprise well conducted, and assures his patrons, that no pains shall be wanting on his part to render his paper both a useful and interesting publication.

TERMS.

The Anson Advertiser will be printed on an imperial sheet at $3 00 per annum in advance, or $3 50 at the end of the year; the first number to issue as soon as Seven Hundred Subscribers are obtained; no subscription will be received for a less period than twelve months; and the paper will not be discontinued until orders are received to that effect, and all arrearages paid up.

Advertisements, not exceeding 12 lines, inserted three times for one dollar, and 25 cents for each subsequent insertion.

Communications addressed to the editor must be post paid.

COTTON GINS.
THE Subscriber, who for several years past has been engaged in The Gin Making business. In Kingston, has established himself IN GREENVILLE,

Where he carries on the above business in all its various branches. All those who wish to supply themselves with Gins of the best quality, are respectfully solicited to apply to the Subscriber personally or by letter. All orders for Gins will be promptly executed. From the Subscriber's long experience in his business, and from the approbation which his work has hitherto met with, he hesitates not to promise entire satisfaction to all who may see fit to extend to him their patronage. Gins out of order will be expeditiously repaired. The Subscriber takes the liberty of calling the attention of those who wish to procure new Gins, or to have old Gins repaired, to the expediency of applying to him in time. When all wait as is usually the case, until the work is wanted, it causes such a pressure of business, that many are obliged of necessity to submit to a longer delay than they wish.

ALLEN TISON,
In connexion with this establishment, carries on the

Lock & Gunsmith business
He also makes Saw Mill Boxes, and Mill Inks, and Gudgeons, of a composition invented by Daniel Peck, of Raleigh—Grist Mill Spindles, with Steel Collars, (turned?) These articles equal to any manufactured in the United States.

All letters and orders must be directed to the Subscriber at Greenville.

The Silk Culturist.
THE Executive Committee of the Hartford County Silk Society, have commenced a monthly publication, called the Silk Culturist and Farmer's Manual.

The object of the publication is to disseminate a thorough knowledge of the cultivation of the Mulberry Tree, in all its varieties—the rearing of Silk Worms—the production of Cocoons and the Reeling of Silk, in the most approved method. The importance of this knowledge will appear from the fact that the net profit of land devoted to the culture of Silk, is double, if not triple, to that derived from any other crop which can be put upon it. It is also a fact, that every moderate farmer can raise several hundred dollars worth of silk without interfering with his ordinary agricultural operations. But in order to avail himself of this facility to obtain competency and wealth, which our soil and climate have given him, he must possess himself of information on the subject—for without it his attempts will be fruitless. It is, therefore, the object of the Committee to diffuse this information as extensively as possible, and at the cheapest rate. The publication will contain a complete manual or directory from sowing the seed to reeling the Silk, together with such facts and experiments, as will enable farmers to raise Silk and prepare it for market, without further knowledge or assistance. It will also contain interesting matter on agricultural subjects in general.

TERMS.—The Culturist will be published in monthly numbers of Eight Quarto Pages, at Fifty Cents a Year. No subscription will be received unless paid in Advance, and for not less than a year.

Subscribers received by F. G. Constock, Secretary, Hartford, Conn., to whom, also, Communications may be addressed, which, if post paid, will be attended to.

PROPOSALS,
For publishing by subscription
The Debates
IN THE
Convention of N. Carolina,
Which assembled at Raleigh June 4, 1835, to amend the Constitution.

IN consequence of the numerous applications on the subject, the Subscribers have determined to give sufficient encouragement to publish in a neat volume, with all convenient dispatch, The Debates in the Convention, which recently met in this city. For the purpose of ascertaining whether a sufficient number of subscribers can be obtained to justify the undertaking, these Proposals are issued.

The volume, which will probably make from 300 to 400 pages, will be printed with a handsome type, on good paper, and will be furnished to Subscribers, bound in boards, at Three Dollars a copy, payable on delivery.
