

TARBORO' PRESS.

SATURDAY, OCT. 10, 1835.

The Washington Whig replies as follows to our invitation to join issue on the question, "Is Mr. Pettigrew a Jackson man, or an anti-Jackson man?"

"We have already told the Editor of the 'Tarboro' Press,' how far Mr. Pettigrew is a 'Jackson man,' viz: that he will support General Jackson when he is right; but that he is opposed to all the prominent acts of his administration. His votes in the next Congress will decide. As to the merits of our 'songs' and his 'sermons,' we propose, that our brother come to Washington and preach one of them—say the 'Mouse Trap,' and we will sing our 'song,' and the public shall decide which is best. We leave the appointment to him, and we will copy it in our paper."

Wonderful! this is the manner in which our direct and unequivocal assertion that Mr. Pettigrew repeatedly declared himself to be "a Jackson man," is met by those who ventured to charge us with practising manoeuvres to convey the impression that he is a Jackson man. We were satisfied that the Editors of the Whig would not hazard a contrary assertion, and we therefore unhesitatingly bro't them to the rack. We believe that there is not now, and we trust there never will be, any person holding the dignified and important station of a member of Congress, who will support this or any other Administration "right or wrong." If Mr. Pettigrew supports Gen. Jackson when he is right, we know we speak the sentiments of the Republicans in this part of the district when we say, that is all they ask of him.

But it seems the Editors of the Whig are as regardless of the code of chivalry in their challenges, as they are of truth in their flights of fancy. Agreeably to modern usage, the challenged party has the right to name time, place, and weapons—partially availing ourselves of this right, we will designate the last day of the present year for them to meet us at the Court House in this place, and we assure them that after they have sung one of their "songs" in a happy style, we will give them such a lecture upon the impropriety of Editors giving their readers fancy sketches for sober truths, as will probably induce them to turn over a new leaf the coming year—at any rate, it assuredly will be far more advantageous to them than any sermon they could select. In the meantime, being somewhat wearied in counteracting their "manoeuvres," we bid the Editors of the Whig a friendly—farewell!

This is the week for Wake Superior Court, but we regret to state that his Honor, Judge Seawell, is so seriously indisposed, with a violent bilious attack, as to render it certain, that he will be unable to hold the Term. There was no Court, last week, in Johnston county, the Judge being too unwell to reach there.—Ral. Reg.

Revenue of the State.—We understand that every Sheriff in the State settled his Public Accounts with the proper Officers, the present year, within the time prescribed by law.—ib.

Fanatics.—Meetings continue to be held throughout the State on the subject of the Northern fanatics. Since our last we perceive that the people of Beaufort and Sampson counties have been moving.—ib.

Singular law case.—A case was recently tried in the county court of Brooks, Virg. in which the parties were C. Truesdell vs. R. McConnell and wife: the defendant resisted the payment of a note given by his wife previous to marriage, on the plea of lunacy; and the jury found a verdict in his favor, the evidence having gone to prove the lady a lunatic before marriage. The lawyers were unable, in all their researches, find any precedent, to meet this novel case.—Ral. Standard.

Lewis Tappan has addressed an insulting letter to the Committee of Vigilance at Charleston, S. C. in which he tells them that in July the Abolition Society issued 175,000 copies of their incendiary papers and pamphlets, only 1-175th part of which were destroyed at Charleston; and that "the rest are accomplishing the designs intended throughout the United States;" that they will persevere at all hazards; and that the proceedings at Charleston and Richmond had produced such a great excitement in the centre of New York, that there had been a great anti-slavery meeting held, to which the most influential persons had united themselves; and that measures were on foot for establishing a grand "New York Anti-Slavery Society."—Ral. Star.

Rail Road from Raleigh to Roanoke.—A charter for this enterprise it will be recollected, was granted by our Legislature two years ago—but as it contained some features objectionable to capitalists, and there being withal a great want of public spirit among us, it was treated with cold neglect. Books were not even opened to receive subscriptions—and the charter has slept undisturbed to the present day. We are highly gratified to learn, however, that an effort will be made at the next Legislature to revive it—by those too who have the ability—the weight of character and purse—to push forward the work to its consummation. Gentlemen of capital hereabouts, in whose sound judgment and prudent forecast, the public have the utmost confidence, are determined to embark spiritedly in the enterprise provided suitable amendments in the charter can be effected—and, as we cannot permit ourselves to doubt that the wisdom of the Legislature will readily grant the desired alterations, we may venture to congratulate the citizens of the State, and especially of this city, on the prospect of a certain and speedy commencement of this important undertaking.

In the mean time, the subject should be thoroughly examined by those most deeply interested. The Register proposes a public meeting during the week of Wake Superior Court: and it affords us pleasure to learn that the people are becoming alive to the importance of such a movement.—ib.

Shipwreck—Nine lives lost.—The ship Jacob Perkins, Capt. Shoof, which arrived this morning from Cronstadt, that on the 22d inst. Cape Cod, W. S. W. 55 miles, fell in with the wreck of the brig Washington, Rider, hence for Cadiz, keel up, having been upset in a squall the night previous, 12 hours out—took from the keel one of the crew, a Scotchman, with an American protection, purporting to be Joseph Hoskins, the only survivor. The names of the officers and crew, as per the Custom House list, were: Wm. Rider, master; Jacob M. G. Rider mate, of Bedford, N. H. aged 28; Abel Gould, 2d mate, of Lisbon, Me. 27; Joseph Hoskins, (the Scotchman, saved); Benj. S. Haven, Portsmouth, N. C. 17; Enoch Freeman, Providence, 20; Wm. E. Richardson, Pawtucket, 40; Henry Dennison, New York, 14; Emanuel Lopes, (apprentice) Malaga; and Peter Smith. The brig was a new vessel, 170 tons, on her first voyage, built at Washington, N. C. had a cargo of staves, and was owned by Messrs. Wm. Gray, of this city, and Charles Moules, of Washington, N. C. Insured at the Warren office for $6,800, and at the Fishing for $4,000.—Boston Trans.

A producer.—Col. Thos. H. Meachum, of Richland, Otsego co. in this state, made a cheese weighing fourteen hundred pounds, which he intends to present to the President of the United States. He had also made several weighing eight hundred pounds each.—N. Y. Star.

Counterfeit notes on the Bank of the Valley are in circulation. The Clarksburg paper states that a $20 counterfeit note on that Bank was lately received in that town. It purported to be payable at Winchester, letter H. and was dated Nov. 23, 1833. It was badly executed.—Pet. Int.

Purchase of Texas.—We stated, some days ago, on the authority of a Natchez paper, that a treaty between this country and Mexico was in progress, by which Texas would be annexed to the United States. In relation to this subject, the Alexandria Gazette remarks, that "great curiosity exists throughout the country to know the views of the Administration relative to the expediency of annexing Texas to the territory of the United States, and even, as to the fact, whether negotiations on the subject have not been commenced between Mexico and our government. It is generally believed that the President is warmly in favor of the purchase and it is thought he is desirous of arranging the matter during his term of office."—ib.

The celebrated horse Eclipse Lightfoot, which was recently sold to Mr. Mark R. Cockrell, of Tenn. for $12,000, died in Nashville on the 16th ult.

Awful Shipwreck.—The Limerick Chronicle states that the Monarch of Liverpool, on her way to New York, was recently wrecked when under the command of the mate, who was in a state of intoxication, and that of 240 souls on board 225 perished.

Wooden Pavements.—The section of Broadway, near the corner of Chambers street, which has been experimentally paved by our enterprising corporation, with hexagonal blocks of hemlock wood, and then tarred and earthed over, is now complete. To judge by the agreeable and elastic movement of the carriage over it, and the absence of all rumbling, or jarring, or dust, we should decidedly give it a preference, if it prove practicable, to all other modes of paving. The blocks are about a foot in length, near half a foot diameter, set up perpendicularly, and closely wedged together by solid curb stone, embedded to the same depth, and by median line of blocks running lengthways in the centre of the street, the whole structure resting on a mass of solid stone pavement beneath. As each block becomes worn another may be inserted in its place, like the cubic plugs of stone used in the streets of London and Paris. It is undoubtedly very expensive, but will not perhaps prove more so in the end than our present defective modes. The experimental mode in question has been called Russian, on what authority precisely we are not accurately informed.—N. Y. Star.

Revolution at Para.—On the night of the 14th August, the natives made an attack on Para, a City of Brazil, and succeeded in taking it on the 23d, and made a general massacre of all the white inhabitants they could get at, the majority of which had taken boats and went to the shipping on the first alarm.

Magnificent.—His Majesty, William the Fourth, lately received, as presents from the King of Oude E. I. various articles to the value of £80,000. The principal articles are, a bedstead and table, both of solid gold, and two chairs of solid silver, both richly cased and ornamented; two elephants, male and female, eleven years old; two Arabian horses, and two dwarf buffaloes of the size of the common pig, beautiful creatures, and as a curiosity unique.

PROPOSALS,

For publishing in the town of Tarborough,

N. C. a semi-monthly paper, entitled

The Primitive Baptist.

EDITED BY MARK BENNETT.

Printed and Published by Geo. Howard. THIS publication is principally intended to defend the old school United Baptist from the many aspersions cast upon them by deluded persons professing their faith, because they cannot conscientiously engage in the various money-making schemes of the day, ostensibly intended to promote Christianity, but evidently having for their object the destruction of the principles upon which it is based, by making a gain of gold. We wish to let it distinctly understood, that we are inimical to Masonry, Temperance, the tribulation of the Bible, or the sword of G-ospel—but we do condemn the conduct of professors and non-professors of religion in societies, and the making of religious matters, in every shape, a form whatsoever.

Believing that Theological Schools, Bibles, Missionary, Tract, and Sunday School Societies, are the same in principle—unscriptural—sway more of "good" than of "good will towards men," we are opposed to them.

Some of the children of God, naturally with, and interspersed among, the advocates of Missionary and other societies, have denied the happiness of converting those of the same judgment. Others, grieved with beholding conversions of the Gospel, are not able to speak for their relief. This is designed, under the name of the "Primitive Baptist," to give a more to afford matter for solid and glowing comfort, than to give a more to the cause of truth and of Christianity, is our cause. Deeply impressed with the belief that the blessing event of their lives is of the Head of the Church, we exert ourselves upon Him, and send our little abroad, praying the Lord to carry with some joy to those who are in tribulation, and a little rest to those who are weary.

TERMS.

The Primitive Baptist will be published in super-royal octavo form, 16 pages, on the second and fourth Saturdays in each month, commencing in January next—at One Dollar per year, payable on receipt of the first number. Six copies will be sent to one Post-Office or neighborhood for Five Dollars.

Communications must be sent to Geo. Howard, Tarboro', and directed to the Publisher. Editors in the South will receive a favor by giving the above one or two insertions.

Persons holding Subscription papers will please send them to Geo. Howard, Tarboro', in the middle of December next.
