

Martin Van Buren,
OF NEW YORK.

Richard M. Johnson,
OF KENTUCKY.

It has fallen to the humble lot of the undersigned to have presented to the American People, a fourth edition of the Biographies of the two above named highly distinguished patriotic citizens, whose constant devotion to the best interests of our Government has led to their designation, as a testimony of the estimation in which their services are regarded by the People whom they have served, as candidates for the two first offices within the gift of a FREE, HAPPY, and FLOURISHING NATION. This token of respect gives to the world additional proof that faithful service shall not go unrewarded.

The object of this appeal to the republican portion of our fellow citizens, is to obtain their co-operation in the circulation of no less than 100,000 copies of the joint Biography of MARTIN VAN BUREN & RICHARD M. JOHNSON, enlarged, revised and corrected, so as to be valuable to every lover of his country, and alike honourable to the distinguished citizens whom WE THE PEOPLE intend still further to honor, by their elevation to the offices of President and Vice-President of the United States, in the election of 1836. Thus we shall perpetuate the principles of Jefferson, which have been so signalized, mainly noted upon, and triumphantly carried out by Andrew Jackson, who, squiring all others, knew nothing but the PEOPLE, the whole People, and their respective rights regardless of their fortunes, whether rich or poor; thus rendering his name and record as durable as the EVERLASTING HAIL!

The arrangement of the volume will be as follows:

1st. Portrait of Andrew Jackson. To whom the volume will be inscribed, with an address by the Publisher.

2d. Portrait of M. Van Buren. To be followed by his Biography, enlarged, including several valuable documents, illustrative of his public character, and exhibiting the grandeur of his gigantic mind, which has ever been devoted to the good of his country; including an authentic account of the fall of the renowned Indian warrior, SECHOGA, on the 26th of October, 1813—with an engrossed view of the heroic field.

The work will be complete in one volume of about 400 pages. The price to be fixed at the moderate sum of One Dollar, neatly bound with cloth backs; or calico and gilt, with the additional expense of binding. The work which is now in a state of preparation, shall be such as to give entire satisfaction; as it is in the hands of gentlemen who have for nearly forty years been personally and intimately acquainted with the private and public life of the above named distinguished citizens.

The celebrated address of the Hon. Thomas H. Benton, of Missouri, bearing testimony to the high character of Martin Van Buren; and the eloquent speech of the Hon. James Barbour, of Virginia, in the U. S. Senate, portraying the cavalry of Col. Johnson on the field and in the councils of the nation, will be appended to the work.

As there is among our republican citizens, an extensive population of German origin, the work will appear simultaneously in both the English and the German languages. It will, therefore, be necessary for subscribers who wish to have the work in the German, to signify the same on the subscription book.

It will, in order to give prompt and extensive circulation to the work, be indispensable for all subscribers to pay at the time of subscribing—all money to be at a proper time forwarded with the lists of signatures to the publishing committee—which will be duly made known by a notice in the Washington Globe.

Democratic editors disposed to encourage the work, will confer a favor, which will be gratefully acknowledged by the Subscriber, in giving publicity to the above and receiving subscriptions at their respective offices, to whom a reasonable per centage will be allowed.

The People's obedient servant,

W. M. EMMONS.

PROPOSALS,
For publishing by subscription.

The Debates

IN THE

Convention of N. Carolina,

Which assembled at Raleigh,

June 4, 1835, to amend the Constitution.

In consequence of the numerous applications on the subject, the Subscribers have determined, if sufficient encouragement be given, to publish in a neat volume, with all convenient dispatch.

The Debates in the Convention, which recently met in this city. For the purpose of ascertaining whether a sufficient number of Subscribers can be obtained to justify the undertaking, these Proposals are issued.

The volume, which will probably make from 300 to 400 pages, will be printed with a hand-type, on good paper, and will be furnished to Subscribers, bound in boards, at Three Dollars a copy, payable on delivery.

THE NEW Millinary Store.

MISS MITCHELL,

BEGS leave to

inform her friends and the public, that she has taken

the Store House

next door to Mr.

W. Harris, formerly the Bank—where she opens the largest & most splendid

Assortment of Millinary

ever brought to this market. She flatters herself, that from the knowledge of business acquired in seven years employment in the most extensive and fashionable establishments in the City of

New York, and being well acquainted with most of the Millin-ary and Mercantile Establishments in that city, she is enabled to purchase goods low, and have her Millinery made up in a superior style and on the most reasonable terms. Among her assortment will be found

150 Tuscan Bonnets,

(different sizes and patterns) at

from $1.50 up to the finest made.

A handsome assortment of Northern made velvet, satin, and silk

Bonnets.

A variety of Caps, Capes and Tur-

bans.

Black, white, blue, pink and yellow

Italian Crapes.

Black, white, blue, yellow and variegated Ostrich Feathers.

Artificial Flowers, feather and velvet Flowers.

Gold and silver do.

Black and white blond Edgings and Footings.

Hair Braids, Puffs and Curls,

A few elegant painted lustring Shawls and Reticules.

A handsome assortment of Ribbons,

with many other articles two numrous to mention.

Miss M. respectfully invites the Ladies of Halifax and the adjoining counties to call and examine her stock before purchasing—and assures them that she will sell every article in her line, lower than any other establishment in this section of country.

M. She has purchased a new

Apparatus for cleaning and pressing Tuscan, Leghorn and Straw

Bonnets, in the Northern style.

Specimens of her work, both in that and the Dress Making, may be seen at her Store, where all orders will be thankfully recived and punctually attended to.

100 Dollars Reward

ESCAPED from the Subscriber, while encamped at the house of Col. A. Watt, in Rockingham county (N. C.)

on the night of the 10th May,

1834, a negro man named

JOHN,

He is about 31 years old, about 5 feet 11 inches high; no marks to collect; had on a homespun jeans long coat, and common thread and cotton pantaloons. John was purchased from Archibald Forbes, in Pitt county, near Greenville, and it is probable he will endeavor to get back to the same neighborhood.

The above reward of One Hundred Dollars
will be paid to any one who will apprehend and lodge the said Negro in any jail, so that the Subcriber can get him again. Letters addressed to the undersigned, at New Store P. O. Buckingham (Va.) will receive immediate attention.

COMPREHENSIVE Commentary on the Bible.

THE Subcriber having been requested to act as Agent for this highly interesting work, informs the public that the first volume will be seen at his office, and the subscriptions will be received.

The first volume is a specimen of the execution of the work, editorial and mechanical.

It is to contain all that is valuable in the writings of those great lights in the Christian Church—Henry, Scott, Doddridge, Gill, Adam Clark, Patrick, Pool, Lowth, Burder, and others; the whole designed to a digest and combination of the advantages of the best Bible commentaries.

On the whole, it is believed all will admit that the work is what it has been pronounced to be—a credit to the country; and the publishers and editors pledge themselves and their characters (and they can do no more) that every effort shall be put forth to make it, both in the literary and mechanical parts, lastingly useful, and worthy a liberal support.

But to sustain them in so expensive an enterprise, the low price fixed for the work requires that it should have an extensive sale, and no publisher would feel warranted in prospecting the work without a large subscription list; and, however unpopular such a course may be in regard to ordinary works, no hesitation is felt in resorting to it in this case, so manifestly necessary and proper. They appeal in confidence to the religious public, and to all, who wish to see it circulated, for their names and patronage.

There is a Baptist edition, differing in no respect from the general edition except on the influence of Baptism, in reference to which the Rev. Joseph A. Warner, Editor of the Baptist edition, makes the following remarks, viz: All that was promised in the Baptist edition, as such, was that whatever was found in the work as published for Baptists generally, which did not correspond with the views of Baptists, should be removed; and the matured views of their own best writers substituted. It is confidently believed that no point connected with what is peculiar to the Baptist denomination, has been left unguarded; and when it is considered that, on no points but those do Baptists differ from Henry, Scott, Doddridge, &c. there can scarcely be doubt but that the denomination in general will feel that they have now a Commentary, in the reading of which they are sure to find what will fan the flame of love, and satisfy the appetite for truth, and this without that diminution of their enjoyment with which they were accustomed to meet in reading the authors, arising out of their different views of a christian ordinance.

Terms.—The work will be comprised in five volumes, averaging not less than 800 pages per volume, royal 8vo hand-somely printed on fine paper, and well bound in sheep, and lettered with double titles, at 3 dollars per volume. There will be several engravings, frontispieces, vignette titles, and several neatly engraved maps, with other illustrative wood cuts &c. Copies bound in extra gilt springs, $4.50; plain calf, $3.75.
