

Martin Van Buren, OF NEW YORK.

Richard M. Johnson,

OF KENTUCKY.

If has fallen to the bounds for of the modereigned to have presented to the A merican People, without contour of the Bosgraphies of the two times named logids distinguished parrio ic citiz us, whose constant devotion to the best interests of our Government has led to their designation, us a testimony of the estimation in which their services are remaded by the Proper whom they have served, as candidates for the two first offices within the gift of a REE, HATTY, and PROURISHING NATION This taken of respect gives to the world additional export that faithful service shall not go unrewarded. The object of this appeal to the republican portion of our fellow citizens, is to als tain their co operation in the circulation of an edition of 100,000 copies of the joint Biography of MARTIN VAN BUREN & RICHARD M JOHNSON, enlarged, revised and corrected, so as to be valuable to every lover of his country, and alike non orable to the distinguished citizens whom WE THE PROPLE, intend still further to honor, by their elevation to the offices of President and Vice President of the United States, in the election of 1836. Thus we shall perpetuate the principles of Jefferson. which have been so signally revived, no bly acted upon, and TRIDWPHASTLY CATried out by ANDREW Jackson, who, spurning all flattery, knew nothing but the PROPER the WHOLE PROPER, and their respective rights, regardless of their fortunes, diether rich or pany; thus rendering his NAME and BENOWS as durable as the EVER-LASTING BILLS.

The arrangement of the volume will be

1st. Partrait of Andrew Jackson, To whom the volume will be inscribed with an address by the Poidsber-

2d. Portrait of M. Van Buren. To be followed by his Boography, enlorged, including several valuable documents. illustrative of his miblic character, and exhibiting the married powers of his gigantic mind which has ever been deverted to sustain the rights of his country, and the glory and presperity of his fellow cit zens.

3d. Portrait of R M Johnson, To be followed by his Biography, enlars ged including various Speeches, Suspay MAIL REPORTS, and other documents; illustrative of his long continued public life which has ever been devoted to the good of his country; including an authentic ac count of the full of the renowned Indian warrior, Vertusen, on the ever momera-ble 5th of October, 1813 -with an engraved view of the barrle from.

The work will be complete in one roll one of about 400 pages. The price to be fixed at the moderate sound On Dollar, neatly bound with chick backs; or valid and gilt, with the additional expense of binds The work, which is now in a state of preparation, shall be such as to give entire attende ions as it is in the hands of a mus who have for nearly forty years been per onally and intimately a quainted with the private and politic life or the above named distinguished currents.

The exletrated address of the Hon-Thomas II beaton of Missouri, bearing testament to the high character of Mortin Van Buren; and the ejoquent speech of the Hon James Barbour, of Virginia in the U S. Senate, portraying the colivary of Col. Johnson on the field and in the councils of the nation, will be appended to the work.

As there is among our republican esta zees, an estensive population of German origin, the work will appear simultaneously in both the English and the German languages. It will, therefore, be necessary for subscribers who wish to have the work in the German, to signify the same on the subscription book.

It will, in order to give prompt and extensive circulation to the work, be indispensable for all subscribers to pay at the time of subscribing-all money to be at a proper time forwarded with the lists of signatures to the publishing committeewhich will be doly made known by a notice in the Washington Globe

D'Democratic editors disposed to encourage the work, will conter a favor, which will be gratefully acknowledged by the Subscriber, in giving publicity to the above and receiving subscriptions at their respective offices, to whom a reasonable per centage will be allowed. The People's obedient servant,

Notice.

AS I have not been known to the people, and they have not been acquainted with my work, I therefore will make some remarks upon my business. All persons having any

Brick work or Plastering To do, or any kind of brick work whatever, particularly such as brick walls, cornices, faciss, strait arches, cheme arches, hips and valleys in tyling and water courses, all piers, pilasters, rustie work, &c. would oblige themselves in employing me, as I have got a form or architect, (printed in England,) superior to any that ever has been seen here; it is a new form and the first one that ever has been brought here. And with what I have learned here, and with the assistance of my book, can execute any job of work in a neater style than ever has been done about here. As I am now capable of carrying on the business, I would be very thankful to the people to employ me; and if my work does not prove to be better formed, stronger and nicer than any that has ever been done by any brick mason in this section, I will not charge any thing for my work, and will do it on as reasonable terms as could be expected. On any large jobs I would wish to make the bricks, Consequence of the numerous appli- I would wish to make the bricks, for I know that I can make a smoother brick than ever has been made any where here. I will warrant my work from bursting, smoking, or any thing else that does not become the work, and to be superior to any that has ever been done here.

All orders from any distance may be sent to Tarborough Post Office, or any person living not a distance may come or send word to Silas Everitt's, near Little Coneto Creek meeting house, Edgecombe county.

On the whole, it is believed all will admit that the work is what it has been pronounced to be-a credit to the country; and the publishers and editors pledge themselves and their characters (and they can do no more) that every effort shall be put forth to make it, both in the literary and mechanical parts, lastingly useful, and worthy a liberal support. But to sustain them in so expensive an enterprize, the law price fixed for the work requires that it should have an extensive sale, and no pubtisher would fell warranted in prosecution the work without a large subscription list; and, however uncopular such a course may be in regard to ordinary works, no hesi ation is felt in resorting to it in this case, so manifestly necessary and proper. They by the Sabra, James L. Simmons appeal in confidence to the religious public, and to all, who wish to see it circulate, for their names and patronage.
