

Miscellaneous.

FOR THE TARBORO' PRESS.

The DESPONDING LOVER. Talk not of ease, the haughty fair, With triumph views my sad despair; Pleas'd with a smart she does not feel, And wounds which none but she can heal.

GOOD NIGHT.

Good night! To the weary, slumbers light. Day draws softly to its close, Busy hands now soft repose, Till awakes the morning bright.

Slumbers sweet! Dreams of heaven around thee meet. Him, whom love torments by day, Shall the dreams of night repay, Him the lov'd one's voice shall greet.

Slumber, till the dawn is bright, Slumber, till another morn'g Comes with all its care and sorrow; Our Father watches, fear takes flight.

EPGRAM.

For age and want save what you may, No morning's sun lasts the whole day.

Bacon and Lard.

The Subscriber is now receiving and offers for sale, four hundred barrels prime

Cut Herrings.

Also, in store, a quantity of prime BACON and LARD. J. W. COTTEN. Tarboro', 14th May, 1835

$25 Reward.

LEFT my camp in Nash county, my negro boy DECATUR.

About 18 or 19 years old, about six feet high, straight and slender, and yellow complexioned, and one of his fore fingers is still, caused from a cut through the joint. This boy I purchased of Lewis Wilson, Pitt county, and where he will probably make his way back where he was brought from. All persons are forewarned from harboring said boy, and all masters of vessels, under the severest penalty of the law, as I intend to have him. His mother lives with said Wilson, and his father with his brother, as I am informed. Any person who will apprehend said boy and commit him to jail, so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward—and let me know at Warrenton, North Carolina.

JOHN G. YANCEY. Sept. 18. 1835.

PROPOSALS.

For publishing by subscription. The Debates

IN THE

Convention of N. Carolina, Which assembled at Raleigh, June 4, 1835, to amend the Constitution.

In consequence of the numerous applications on the subject, the Subscribers have determined, if sufficient encouragement be given, to publish in a neat volume, with all convenient dispatch

The Debates in the Convention. Which recently met in this city. For the purpose of ascertaining whether a sufficient number of subscribers can be obtained to justify the undertaking, these Proposals are issued.

The volume, which will probably make from 300 to 400 pages, will be printed with a handsome type, on good paper, and will be furnished to subscribers, bound in boards, at Three Dollars a copy, payable on delivery.

JOS. GALES & SON. Raleigh, Aug. 1st, 1835.

Subscriptions to the above book received at this Office.

To COUNTRY MERCHANTS.

Boots, Shoes, and HATS.

Hastings, Peirce & Co.

WOULD now very respectfully invite all those Merchants who are in the habit of purchasing with convenience purchase their goods in Petersburg, to call and examine their stock of

Boots, Shoes, and Hats,

Previous to purchasing elsewhere. They flatter themselves they will now be able to accommodate and please almost every one with both article and price. As a great many of their goods are manufactured in their own Factory at the North, under the immediate inspection of one of the partners, and the balance of their stock purchased by another partner who has spent two months amongst manufactures of different sections of the country, and has endeavored to make such a selection of goods as we think cannot & hope will not fail to suit and please both purchaser and consumer. And now, after having laid in with the utmost care, direct from the manufacturer, and as cheap as the cheapest, a fresh and extensive assortment of goods well adapted to the coming season, we can assure those merchants, one and all who may favor us with a call, that we shall use our best endeavors to make it to their advantage. We can and will sell them any goods in our line quite as low as they can be purchased in New York or any other part of the country by the same quantity; and our accommodations for payment shall be as good as any.

We invite dealers indiscriminately to call in and examine our stock and prices, assuring them that we shall take much pleasure in exhibiting our goods, while to purchase will be at their option.

Hastings, Peirce & Co. Petersburg, Va. Sept. 22.

Piano Forte for sale.

I HAVE a very handsome PIANO for sale—persons wishing to purchase, would do well to call and examine it.

J. W. COTTEN. May 21st, 1835.

Notice.

AS I have not been known to the people, and they have not been acquainted with my work, I therefore will make some remarks upon my business. All persons having any

Brick work or Plastering

To do, or any kind of brick work whatever, particularly such as brick walls, cornices, facias, strait arches, chime arches, hips and valleys in tiling and water courses, all piers, pilasters, rustic work, &c. would oblige themselves in employing me, as I have got a form or architect, (printed in England,) superior to any that ever has been seen here; it is a new form and the first one that ever has been brought here. And with what I have learned here, and with the assistance of my book, can execute any job of work in a neater style than ever has been done about here. As I am now capable of carrying on the business, I would be very thankful to the people to employ me; and if my work does not prove to be better formed, stronger and nicer than any that has ever been done by any brick mason in this section, I will not charge any thing for my work, and will do it on as reasonable terms as could be expected. On any large jobs I would wish to make the bricks, for I know that I can make a smoother brick than ever has been made any where here.

I will warrant my work from bursting, smoking, or any thing else that does not become the work, and to be superior to any that has ever been done here.

All orders from any distance may be sent to Tarborough Post Office, or any person living not a distance may come or send word to Silas Everitt's, near Little Coneto Creek meeting house, Edgecombe county.

H. M. J. P. BROWN. August 17, 1835. 34

100 Dollars Reward.

ESCAPED from the Subscriber, while enamped at the house of Col. A. Watt, to Rockingham county, (N. C.) on the night of the 10th May, 1834, a negro man named

JOHN,

He is about 31 years old, about 5 feet 11 inches high; no marks recollected; had on a homespun jeans long coat, and common thread and cotton pantaloons. John was purchased from Archibald Forbes, in Pitt county, near Greenville, and it is probable he will endeavor to get back to the same neighborhood.

The above reward of One Hundred Dollars will be paid to any one who will apprehend and lodge the said Negro in any jail, so that the Subscriber can get him again. Letters addressed to the undersigned, at New Store P. O. Buckingham county, (Va.) will receive immediate attention.

JOHN L. MORRIS. June 24, 1835. 26

COMPREHENSIVE

Commentary on the Bible.

THE Subscriber having been requested to act as Agent for this highly interesting work, informs the public that the first volume can be seen at his office, where subscriptions will be received. The first volume is a specimen of the execution of the work, editorial and mechanical. It is to contain all that is valuable in the writings of those great lights in the Christian Church, Henry, Scott, Doddridge, Gill, Adam Clark, Patrick, Pool, Lowth, Blunder, and others; the whole designed to a digest and combination of the advantages of the best Bible commentaries. On the whole, it is believed all will admit that the work is what it has been pronounced to be—a credit to the country; and the publishers and editors pledge themselves and their characters (and they can do no more) that every effort shall be put forth to make it, both in the literary and mechanical parts, lastingly useful, and worthy a liberal support. But to sustain them in so expensive an enterprise, the low price fixed for the work requires that it should have an extensive sale, and no publisher would feel warranted in prosecuting the work without a large subscription list; and however unpopular such a course may be in regard to ordinary works, no hesitation is felt in resorting to it in this case, so manifestly necessary and proper. They appeal in confidence to the religious public, and to all, who wish to see it circulate, for their names and patronage.

There is a Baptist edition, differing in no respect from the general edition except on the ordinance of Baptism, in reference to which the Rev. Joseph A. Warner, Editor of the Baptist edition, makes the following remarks, viz: All that was promised in the Baptist edition, as such, was that whatever was found in the work as published for Postobaptists generally, which did not correspond with the views of Baptists, should be removed, and the maturest views of their own best writers substituted. It is confidently believed that no point connected with what is peculiar to the Baptist denomination, has been left unguarded; and when it is considered that on no points but those do Baptists differ from Henry, Scott, Doddridge, &c. there can be scarcely a doubt but that the denomination in general will feel that they have now a Commentary, in the reading of which they are sure to find what will facilitate their love, and satisfy the appetite for truth, and this without that diminution of their enjoyment with which they were accustomed to meet in reading the authors, arising out of their different views of a christian ordinance.

Terms.—The work will be comprised in five volumes, averaging not less than 800 pages per volume, royal 8vo handsomely printed on fine paper, and well bound in sheep, and lettered with double titles, at 3 dollars per volume. There will be several engravings, frontispieces, vignette titles, and several neatly engraved maps, with other illustrative wood cuts. Copies bound in extra gilt spring backs, $4.50; plain calf, $3.75.

GEO. HOWARD. March 13th, 1835.

To the Afflicted.

GRAY'S invaluable Ointment for the cure of white swelling, scrofula and other tumours, sore legs and ulcers, and fresh wounds, sprains, bruises, swellings and inflammations, &c. &c.

Beckwith's anti-dyspeptic pills. Rowland's genuine tonic mixture, a perfect cure for ague and fever. The above valuable medicines may be had wholesale or retail on application to J. W. Cotten, Agent for Tarborough, 1835.

Six Months in a Convent

RUSSELL, ODIORNE & CO. have in press and will publish in a few days, a new work, with the above title, being the Narrative of Miss Rebecca Threan Reed, who was under the influence of the Roman Catholics about two years, and an inmate of the Convent on Mount Benedict, Charleston, nearly six months in 1831-2.

The book furnishes a concise history of the rules and regulations, the employments and ceremonies of the Ursuline order; and as it is the first account ever given in this country of a similar institution, the writer has confined herself strictly to a narration of facts that transpired under her own eye, and that were noted down after her escape. It will contain a volume of 200 pages, 18 mo. finished and bound in the neatest manner. Boston, March 2, 1835.

HISTORY OF THE

Kehukee Association.

JUST PUBLISHED, and for sale at the Office of the Tarboro' Press. VERY BEST Cotton Yarn and Twine

FOR SALE.

THE Subscribers feel grateful for the liberal patronage which they received the past year, and hope by assiduity and punctuality in business to merit a continuance of past favors.

They now have and expect to keep constantly on hand the Very best Cotton Yarns,

From Nos. 2 to 18 inclusive. Also, various sizes of the best Cotton Seine Twine—its durability and strength has been fairly tested, and the Subscribers feel no hesitation in pronouncing it inferior to none, if not superior to any in market. Both the above articles they expect to deliver to purchasers on as liberal terms as articles of the same quality can be procured elsewhere. The usual charge for conveyance will be made.

Terms of sale—for all quantities of Yarn over one thousand pounds, six months credit will be allowed—for any quantity under one thousand pounds, four months, the purchaser giving note (without interest) at the time the Yarn is delivered, payable at the above stated times.

The proprietors of fisheries will do well to apply to the Subscribers for twine for the future, as a very liberal credit will be given.

Messrs. Hassel & Williams will act as agents for the Subscribers at Wilmington—Mr. Benj. Bell, at Greenville—and Messrs. Simmons & Eare, at Halifax—where Yarn and Twine can be bought on the same terms as at the Factory.

BATTLE & BROTHERS. Falls Tar Jan. River, 10, 1835.

COTTON GINS.

THE Subscriber, who for several years past has been engaged in The Gin Making business. In Kingston, has established himself IN GREENVILLE,

Where he carries on the above business in all its various branches. All those who wish to supply themselves with Gins of the best quality, are respectfully solicited to apply to the Subscriber personally or by letter. All orders for Gins will be promptly executed. From the Subscriber's long experience in his business, and from the approbation which his work has hitherto met with, he hesitates not to promise entire satisfaction to all who may see fit to extend to him their patronage. Gins out of order will be expeditiously repaired. The Subscriber takes the liberty of calling the attention of those who wish to procure new Gins, or to have old Gins repaired, to the expediency of applying to him in time. When all wait as is usually the case, until the work is wanted, it causes such a pressure of business, that many are obliged of necessity to submit to a longer delay than they wish.

ALLEN TISON,

In connexion with this establishment, carries on the

Lock & Gunsmith business

He also makes Saw Mill Boxes, and Mill Inks, and Gudgeons, of a composition invented by Daniel Peck, of Raleigh—Grist Mill Spindles, with Steel Collars, (turned.) These articles equal to any manufactured in the United States.

All letters and orders must be directed to the Subscriber at Greenville.

HENRY CHAMBERLAIN July 12, 1834.

Two second hand Cotton Gins for sale low for cash. SAMUEL D. PROCTER. Tarboro', 30th Sept. 1834.

The Silk Culturist.

THE Executive Committee of the Hartford County Silk Society, have commenced a monthly publication, called the Silk Culturist and Farmer's Manual.

The object of the publication is to disseminate a thorough knowledge of the cultivation of the Mulberry Tree, in all its varieties—The rearing of Silk Worms—The production of Cocoons and the Reeling of Silk, in the most approved method. The importance of this knowledge will appear from the fact that the net profit of land devoted to the culture of Silk, is double, if not triple, to that derived from any other crop which can be put upon it.

It is also a fact, that every moderate farmer can raise several hundred dollars worth of Silk without interfering with his ordinary agricultural operations. But in order to avail himself of this facility to obtain competency and wealth, he must possess himself of information on the subject—for without it his attempts will be fruitless. It is, therefore, the object of the Committee to diffuse this information as extensively as possible, and at the cheapest rate. The publication will contain a complete manual or directory from sowing the seed to reeling the Silk, together with such facts and experiments, as will enable farmers to raise Silk and prepare it for market, without further knowledge or assistance. It will also contain interesting matter on agricultural subjects in general.

TERMS—The Culturist will be published in monthly numbers of Eight Quarto Pages, at Fifty Cents a Year. No subscription will be received unless paid in Advance, and for not less than a year. Subscribers received by F. G. Comstock, Secretary, Hartford, Conn., to whom, also, Communications may be addressed, which, if post paid, will be attended to. Hartford, April, 1835.

PAMPHLETS,

Published and for sale at this Office. A PATRIOTIC DISCOURSE—the North Carolina Whig's Apology for the Kehukee Association—and, A Basket of Fragments, by the Rev. Joshua Lawrence. Also, A Review of Clark's defence and justification to the Kehukee Association, written by a lay member of the Association—and, Occurrences in the Life of Elder Joseph Biggs, wrote by himself. Tarborough, Aug. 9.

Remnants, &c.

A GREAT VARIETY of Remnants every description of Goods, will be Sold at half their value. J. WEDDELL. 20th Feb. 1835.

Yes! O Yes!

EVERY man or woman interested in the cause of the South, is requested to call and settle the account, and to be as convenient, either by cash or by note. The cash would be preferred, but if it cannot be had, will take a note.

PROPOSALS.

For publishing in the town of Wilmington, N. C. a weekly newspaper, entitled the Wilmington Advertiser.

THE Subscriber is unwilling to be understood in the most commercial part of the State, and adjacent counties, where a Newspaper cannot be properly supported, and having embarked in the business, he is both to abandon it until the experiment is fairly tested. He feels gratified to be afforded to him by the support of the People's Press; but cannot consent from himself and has no wish to be a part of the public, that its circulation will soon render a less number of copies than will be expected by any person capable of conducting a Newspaper. The list of subscribers is already increased, (of which the post gives some evidence) and it is supposed that the circulation will be increased, and that it will be able to keep his establishment in operation—but he expects more than this, and for his services he cannot consent to put up any business so laborious and perplexing, without the prospect of a continuance, within a reasonable time. In these circumstances the subscriber is desirous that these proposals for the Advertiser be devoted to Literature, Commerce, Agriculture and the general interests of North Carolina; so far as the latter are concerned with the integrity of the Union, with which it is believed they will be in accord. It is intended to be low enough to influence; and it is supposed that the position of this character will be a yet unsolved question, whether a paper can be permanently and regularly supported in Wilmington.

If sufficient patronage is offered by the first of December next, the Wilmington Advertiser will commence on the 1st of January following. If not, and should the People's Press receive no additional support it will be reduced from 24 to 16 pages, and continued as heretofore.

TERMS.

The Advertiser will be the same as the People's Press, at 25 per annum, payable in advance. No paper discontinued until all arrearages are paid unless at the option of the editor. Those who fail to give notice of a discontinuance of their paper, before a year commences, will be considered bound for that year, and by the same rule, all succeeding years.

Persons holding subscription Papers are requested to forward them to Wilmington, by the 1st of December, 1835.

THOMAS LORING. Sept. 11, 1835.

PROPOSALS,

For publishing in the town of Tarboro', N. C. a semi-monthly paper, entitled The Primitive Baptist.

EDITED BY MARK BENNETT. Printed and Published by Geo. Howard. THIS publication is principally intended to defend the old school of Baptists from the many aspersions cast upon them by deluded persons professing their faith, because they cannot consistently engage in the various unscriptural schemes of the day, ostensibly to promote Christianity, but really designed to destroy the great and fundamental principles upon which it is based, by means of a gain of ground. We believe it is distinctly understood, that we are inimical to Masonry, to the spirit of the Gospel—but we do condemn the neglect of professors and non-professors of religion in societies, and the talking of religious matters, in every shape and form whatsoever.

Believing that Theological Tracts, Missionary Tracts, and Sunday School Union Societies, are the same as profane—unscriptural—savor more of the spirit of "good will towards men" than of "good will towards God," we are opposed to them.

Some of the children of God, contented with, and interspersed among, the duties of Missionary and other societies, denied the happiness of conversing with those of the same judgment. Others, grieved with beholding the corruption of the Gospel, are not able to speak for themselves. This is designed, to give relief. We shall aim not to give pleasure to the fancy, as to inform the judgment—more to afford matter for solid and lasting comfort, than to give a momentary glow to the feelings. We cannot but believe that the blessing even of truth, is our cause. Deeply impressed with the belief that the blessing even of truth, is our cause. Deeply impressed with the belief that the blessing even of truth, is our cause. Deeply impressed with the belief that the blessing even of truth, is our cause.

TERMS.

The Primitive Baptist will be published in super-royal octavo form, 16 pages, on the second and fourth Saturdays in each month, commencing in January next—at One Dollar per year, payable on receipt of the first number. Six copies will be sent to one Post-Office or neighborhood for Five Dollars.

Communications must be sent and directed to the Publisher. Editors in the South will confer a favor by giving the above notice two insertions.

Persons holding Subscription papers will please send them to Geo. Howard, Tarboro', the middle of December next. October 3, 1835.
