Miscellancous.

TO THE LADY OPPOSITE. I wish the girl would move away-Why need she all the while Sit beaming at her window seat With that eternal smile? 'Tis very strange and very odd, And very like a plan, With such a look and such an air, And I a single man!

There sat she like a seraph chained In morning's earliest flame, And there she leaned upon her hand

When crimsoned sunset came, And there she was at twilight hour-

I saw the shutters close, How slowly as with vain regret

They folded up my rose!

I know her mother thinks it wrong-1 know mama is right-I know a matron and a maid

Declare she is a fright---I know what many folks would think, I know what some will sav--

I know all this, and yet, an! yet I cannot keep away.

And I will sit, mysterious maid, And watch by morning sun; And foudly gaze thro' mist and shade

When the fair day is done. And love the tips-the rosy lips

That ne'er to me have spoken, And wear the chains that silence wove

And words have never broken.

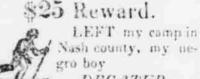

To live-to die-to sicep-to sigh; And this is life-just all my eye!

THE Subscriber is now receiving and offers for sale, four hundred barrels prime

Cut Herrings. Also, in store, a quantity of prime BACON and LARD. J. W. COTTEN.

Tarbore,' 14th May, 1835

DEC.ITUR. About 18 or 19 years old, about six feet high, strait and slender. and yellow complected, and one of his fore fingers is stiff, caused from a cut through the joint. This boy 1 purchased of Lewis For publishing in the town of Tarborough Wilson, Pitt county, and where he will probably make his way back where he was brought from. All persons are forewarned from harboring said boy, and all masters of vessels, under the severest penalty of the law, as 1 intend to have him. His mother lives with his brother, as I am informed. Any person who will apprehend said boy and commit him to juil. so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward-and let me know at Warrenton, North i sa ah ng

J. W. COTTEN. May 21-t, 1835.

Notice.

AS I have not been known to the people, and they have not been acquainted with my work, I therefore will make some remarks upon my business. All persons having any

To do, or any kind of brick work whatever, particularly such as brick walls, cornices, facias, strait attention arches, cheme arches, hips and valleys in tyling and water courses, all piers, pilasters, rustic work, &c. would oblige themselves in employing me, as I have got a form or architect, (printed in England,) superior to any that with what I have learned here, and with the assistance of my book, can axceute any job of work in a neater style than ever has been done about here. As I am now capable of carrying on the business, I would be very thankful to the people to employ me; and if my work dues not prove to he better formed, stronger and nicer than any that has ever been done by any brick mason in this section, I will not charge any thing for my work, and will do be expected. On any large jobs I would wish to make the bricks, for I know that I can make a tion is felt in resorting to it in this case, so made any where here.

I will warrant my work from bursting, smoking, or any thing else that does not become the work, and to be superior to any that has ever been done here.

All orders from any distance may be sent to Tarborough Post Office, or any person living not a distance may come or send word to Silas Everitt's, near Luttle Coneto Creek meeting house, Edgecombe county.

WM. J. P. BROWN. August 17, 1835.

PROPOSALS.

ESCAPED from the Sub criber, while encamped at the house of Col. A. Watt, in Rockingham county, (N.C. on the night of the 10th May 1834, a negro man named

JOHN,

He is about 31 years old, about 5 feet 11 inches high; no marks recollected; had on a homespun jeaus long coat, and common fully determined on making Tarthread and cotton pantaloons. John was purchased from Archibald Forbes, in Pitt county, near Greenville, and it is probable dence, and is now at the North he will endeavor to get back to the same laying in a neighborhoed.

The above reward of One Hundred Dol lars will be paid to any one who will ap-prehend and lodge the said Negro in any Brick work or Plastering juil, so that the Subscriber cau get him together excel any of his former again. Letters addressed to the undersigned, at New Store P.O. Buckingham county, (Va.) will receive immediate

> JOHN I. MORRIS. June 24, 1835. 26

COMPREHENSIVE

Commentary on the Bible. PHE Subscriber having been requested to act as Agent for this highly interesting work, informs the public that the ever has been seen here; it is a first volume can be seen at his office where subscriptions will be received. new form and the first one that The first volume is a specimen of the exe ever has been brought here. And cution of the work, editorial and mechanical. It is to contain all that is valuable in the writings of those great lights in the Christian Church, Henry, Scott, Dod-dridge, Gill, Adam Clark, Patrick, Pool, Lowth, Burder, and others: the whole designed to a digest and combination of the advantages of the best Bible commentaries On the whole, it is believed all will admit that the work is what it has been pronoune ed to be-a credit to the country; and the publishers and editors pledge themselves and their characters (and they can do no more) that every effort shall be not forth to make it, both in the literary and mechanical parts, lastingly useful, and worthy a liberal support. But to sustain them in so expensive an caterprize, the low price fixed for the work requires that it should have an extensive sale, and no pubit on as reasonable terms as could hisher would fell warranted in prosecuting the work without a large subscription list; and, bewever unpopular such a course may be in regard to ordinary works, no hesitasmoother brick than ever has been | manifestly necessary and proper. They append in confidence to the religious public. and to all, who wish to see it circulate, for their names and patronage.

There is a Baptist edition, differing in no respect from the general edition except on the ordinance of Baplism, in reference to: which the Rev. Joseph A. Warne, Editor of the Baptist edition, makes the following remarks, viz: A'l that was promised in the Baptist edition, as such, was that whatever was found in the work as published for Feedobaptists generally, which did not correspond with the views of Baptists, should be removed, and the maturest views of by the Sabra, James L. Simmons their own best writers substituted. It is and Claremont, confidently believed that no point connected with what is peculiar to the Bap. 285 cases of Boots & Shoes, tist denomination, has been left unguarded; All selected by one of the firm diand when it is considered that on no points but those do Baptists differ from rect from the Manufactory; and Henry, Scott, Doddridge, &c. there can they pledge themselves to sell be scarcely a doubt but that the denomi- them to Country merchants as low nation in general will feel that they have now a Commentary, in the reading of as they can be bought in Phila-

tinued in Tarboro'. -: ||:--

James Weddell, HAVING abandoned the idea of moving to the West, has horo' his permanent place of resi-

Large Supply of Goods,

Which he flatters himself will alstocks in point of

VARIETY.

Quality and Cheapness.

His friends and the public in general may rest assured that every exertion on his part shall be used to insure a continuance of the extensive patronage he has hitherto received.

Saturday, 10th Oct. 1835.

Bacon for Sale.

QUANTITY of prime Bacon can be had on reasonable terms by applying to

I. B. BRADY. Aug 12, 1835.

BECKWITH'S

Anti-dyspeptic Pills.

1115 most valuable medicine for the cure of DYSPEPSIA, and the prevention of bilious fevers, colic, &c. &c. is kept constantly on hand and for sale by J. W. COTTEN.

Tarboro,' 25 Sept. 1835.

September, 1835. FALL AND WINTER Bools, Shoes and Paper.

ROBINSON & NEWSOM,

COTTON GINS. THE Subscriber, who for several years past has oven engaged in The Gin Making business.

In Kiaston, has established himself IN GREENVILLE,

Where he carries on the above business in all its various branches. All those who wish to supply themselves with Gins of the best quality, are respectfully solicited to apply to the Subscriber personally or by letter. All orders for Gins will be promptly executed. From the Subscriber's long experience in his business, and from the approbation which his work has hitherto met with, he hesitates complete of every article not to promise enfire satisfaction line of business, which a to all who may see fit to extend sold low for cash or object to him their patronage. Gins out punctual customers. Gende of order will be expeditiously re- wishing to purchase Ches paired. The Subscriber takes the particularly invited to call liberty of cailing the attention of examine for themselves. All those who wish to procure new dersfrom a distance will betta Gins, or to have old Gins repair. fully received and punctually ed, to the expediency of applying tended to. to him in time. When all wait as is usually the case, until the work is wanted, it causes such a pressure of business, that many are obliged of necessity to submit to a longer delay than they wish.

ALLEN TISON.

In connexion with this establishment, car ries on the Lock& Gunsmith business He also makes Saw Mill Boxes and Mill Inks. and Gudgeons, of a composition invented by Daniel Peck, of Raleigh-Grist Mill Spindles, with Steel Collars, embody the parliamentary atm. (turned) These articles equal to any manufactured in the United States.

All letters and orders must be directed to the Subscriber at Greenville. HENRY CHAMBERLAIN July 12, 1834.

Cotton Gins THE Subscriber has established

L himself in the houses formerly occupied by the late Joseph Lackey, dee'd, near the river, and a short distance below Benjamin M. Jackson's store, where he carries on

The making and repairing Cotton Gins.

All those who wish to supply work will contain between in themselves with Gins of the best and five hundred pages, and w quality, are respectfully solicited us the cheapest publication a

Henry Johnston MERCHANT TAILOR. ITAS just received from y H York his Fall Supply GOODS.

In his line of business

CONSISTING OF-Superfine Cloths and Cassing all the most fashienable Drab and olive Petershams in coats,

Goat's hair Camblets, for cloub Canton Flannel,

A very splendid assortment of ings, consisting of plan and f Velvets-Warthin and Va a very superior article, &c.

In fact his assortiment at

Tarboro', Oct 22d, 1835

PROSPECTUS OF THE

Congressional Globe

THE success of the experim I we have made to furnish as cinct history of the proceeding. Congress, from day to day, a sketches of the Debates, and the undersigned to perseven their plan to extend and perfor They have resolved that the gressional Globe shall not a of the country, but shall also nish an Appendix, which a contain the finished specks the prominent speakers, on a most important subjects, with out by the members thensity from the notes and printed skee es of the Reporters.

The Congressional Glube, aan Index, will be published upl. ly, upon double royal paper, octavo form, as heretolere, no dollar for the session. It man subscribed for separately. [appendix of finished speech will, also, be published form dollar.

It is probable that the neurosion of Congress will contra hearly seven months; if so the

JUHN G. FANCEY. Sept. 18, 18,45. 391

PROPOSALS.

For publishing by subscription. The Debates IN THE Convention of N. Carolina, Which assembled at Raleigh, Constitution.

I consequence of the numerous applicotions to the autijust, the Subscribers have determined, if sufficient encourage. ment be given, to publish in a near volume, with all conventient disputch

The Debates in the Convention. Which recently met in this city. For the purpose of asc- trining woether a sufficient number of Subscribers can be obtained in justify the undertaking, these Proposals are issued. The volume, which will probably make from 300 to 400 pages, will be printed with | and a little rest to those who are troubled. a handsome type, on good paper, and will be futnished to Subscribers, bound in boards, at Three Dollars a copy, payable on delivery. JOS. GALES & SON. Raleigh, Aug. 1st, 1835.

CP Subscriptions to the above book received at this Office.

PAMPHLITS.

Published and for Sale at this Office. PATRIOTIC DISCOURSE --- the A North Carolina Whig's Apology for the Kelukee Association - and, A Basket of Fragments, by the Rev. Joshua Lawrence. Also, A Beview of Clark's defence and jus-tification to the Kehukee Association, written by a lay member of the Associationund, Occurrences in the Life of Elder Joset b Biggs, wrote by himself.

Tarborough, Aug. 9.

The Primitive Baplist, EDUED BY MARK BENNETT.

Printed and Published by Geo Howard. THIS publication is principally intended to detend the old school United Baptists from the many aspersions cast upon them by deladed persons processing their own faith, because they cannot consemptionssaid Wilson, and his father with by engage in the various money-making alo mes of the day, estensibly intended to promote Curistianity, but evidently tending to destroy the great and fundamental principles upon which it is based, by mak ing a gain of godhurss. We wish to have it distinctly understood, that we are not minural to Masonry. Femperance, the distribution of the Bible, or the spread of the Gospet-but we do condema the mogling of professors and non-professors of rehgian in societies, and the making a "craft" of religious matters, in every shape and um whatsnever.

Believing that Theological Schools, Bible, Mi siomary, Tract, and Sunday School Uni in Societies, are the same in principle - unscriptural-savor more of "lucre than of "good will towards men," we are pposed to them. Some of the children of God, surrounded with, and interspecsed amongst, the advocutes of Missionary and other societies, are denied the happiness of conversing with those of the sume judgment. Others, while June 4, 1835, to amend the grieved with beholding comptions of the Gospel, are not able to speak for themseives. This is designed, under God, for their relief. We shall and not so much to please the facer, as to inform the judgment -more to afford matter for solid and lasting comfort, than to give a momentary glow to the feelings. We consider that the cause of truth and of Christian solaer, our cause. Deeply impressed with the belief that the blessing even of nuth itself is of the Head of the Church, we cast ourselves upon ilim, and send our little paper abroad, preying the Lord to carry with it some joy to those who are in tribulation,

TERMS.

The Primitive Baptist will be published in super-royal octavo form of 16 pages, on the second and fourth Saturdays in each month, commencing in January next-at One Dollar per year, payable on receipt of the first number. Six copies will be sent to one Post-Office or neighborhood for Five Dollars.

Communications must be post paid and directed to the Publisher.

TEditors in the South will confer a favor by giving the above one or two insertions.

Persons holding Subscription papers will please send them to Geo. Howard, Tarboro', by the middle of December next. October 3, 1835.

which they are sure to find what will tan delphia, New York or Boston, or the flame of love, and satisfy the appetite their usual credits. for both, and this without that dominution of their enjoyment with which they were accustomed to meet in reaching the authors, Shoe Thread, Shoe Brushes and arising out of their different views of a Blacking.

christian ordinance.

Terms .- The work will be comprised in five volumes, averaging not less than S00 pages per volume, royal 5 vo handsomely printed on five paper, and well bound in sheep, and lettered with double titles, at 3 dollars per volume. There will be several engravings, frontispieces rignette titles, and several neatly engraved maps, with other illustrative wood cuts. Copies bound in extra gilt, spring Sec. backs, $4,50; plain calf, $3,75.

GEO. HOWARD. March 13th, 1835

To the Afflicted.

GRAY'S invaluable Ointment for the cure of white swellings scrofula and other tumours sore legs and ulcers, and fresh wounds, sprains, bruises, swell ings and inflammations, &c. &c. Beckwith's anti-dyspeptic pills.

Rowand's genuine tonic mixture, a per fect cuse for ague and fever.

The above valuable medicines may be had wholesale or retail on application t J. W. Collen, Agent for Tarborough. 1835.

Remnants, Remnants!

RUM.

FOR SALE, at 40 cents per sin gle gallou, and 38 cents per gal

HISTORY OF THE

Kehnkee Association.

Price S1 each, or $10 per dozen.

October, 1831.

D. KNIGHT & CO.

ion by the barrel, by

Oct. 22d, 1835.

J. WEDDELL. 1,000 gallons N. E.

N. B. Also, a large quantity of Petersburg, Va. Sept. 10.

VERY BEST Cotton Yarn and Twine

FOR SALE.

THE Subscribers feel grateful for the liberal patronage which they received the past year, and hope by assiduity and punctuality in business to merit a continuance of past favors.

They now have and expect to seep constantly on hand the Very best Cotton Yarns, From Nos. 2 to 18 inclusive. Also, various sizes of the best Cotton Seine Twine--its durability and strength has been fairly tested, and the Subscribers feel no hesitation in pronouncing it inferior to none, if not superior to any in market. Both the above articles they expect to deliver to purchasers on as liberal terms as A GREAT VARIETY of Remnants of articles of the same quality can be procured elsewhere. The usube procured elsewhere. The usual charge for conveyance will be made.

> Terms of sale -- for all quantities of Yarn over one thousand pounds, six months credit will be allowed-for any quantity under one thousand pounds, four months, the purchaser giving note (without interest) at the time the Yarn is delivered, payable at the above stated times.

The proprietors of fisheries will do well to apply to the Subscribers for twine for the future, as a very liberal credit will be given.

Messrs. Hassel & Williams JUST PUBLISHED, and for sale at the will act as agents for the Subscrioffice of the Tarboro' Press, "A coubers at Williamston-Mr. Benj. cise History of the Kehukee Baptist Asso-Bell, at Greenville- and Messrs. ciation, from 'its original rise to the present time-by Elder Joseph Biggs-under Simmons & Eure, at Halifaxthe supervision of a committee (consisting where Yarn and Twine can be of Elders Joshua Lawrence, William Hybought on the same terms as at man, and Luke Ward, and brethren Tho mas Biggs, Joseph D. Biggs, and Cushion the Factory. B. Hassell.) appointed by the Association."

BATTLE & BROTHERS. Falls Tar River, Jun. 10, 1835. to apply to the Subscriber person- haps in the world. ally, or by letter. All orders for Gins will be promptly executed.

tiously repaired. Blacksmithing, of every des- replete with interest, as its to cription, executed in the best style. will have great influence in fact (Jo I'wo second hand Cotton the destiny of the Republic Gins for sale low for cash. SAMUEL D. PROCTER. Tarboro,' 30th Sept. 1834.

Coffield King, MERCHANT TAILOR,

BEGS leave to inform his numerous customers and the public generally, that he has just returned from New York, where he purchased a Splendid Assortment of FALL AND WINTER 600DS.

In his line of business, viz,---Superfine blue and black Cloths, Superfine brown and green do. Superfine claret and mixed do. Superfine black, ribbed, and drab Cassimeres-striped and mixed do. Petersham and goats hair Camlet, Plain black and figured Velvets, Wooten Velvets and fig'd Toilinetts, highly useful, all who take I Plain black and fir'd Valencia, Black Silk and satan Vestings, Plain black and fancy Stocks, Bosoms and Collars, Men's black buck and hoskin Gloves, Elastic and nett Suspenders, &cc.

All of these Goods will be sold low for eash, or on a short credit to punctual customers. Gentlemen's clothing made and trimmed in the most fashionable style. All orders from a distance will be Prospectus, if our attention of thankfully received & punctually directed to it by a mark w attended to. Call at C. King's, Our Exchange List is so ha three doors above the Planter's we would not observe it, pro Hotel, immediately opposite the unless this be done.

Brick store. Tarboro', Oct. 14; 1835.

BOY of steady habits and a-A bout fourteen years old, is wanting to the tailoring business. COFFIELD KING. Oct. 14, 1835.

The next session of Concewill probably be the most en-Gins out of order will be expedi- ful one which has occured many years, and will certainly years to come. Immediately p ceding, as it does, the next Post dential election, and contain the leading minds of all the tre tending parties in the emerit deep and abiding interest will tend the debates. The unit drama will be faithfully exhibit in the Congressional Globe st the Appendix.

We have already provided our reporting corps, emments and ability in one branch of fill gress, and we expect to obtain adequate reinforcement of call persons in the other, by the it meets, to fulfil our own wat and the expectations of the Me bers. No pains or cost on part will be spared to accomple it. As the work will be con ed regularly, and be made po nent, authentic, and there terest in the political affairs of country will do well to begin !! subscription with the next sessi-

TERMS. Congressional Globe-1 copy the session, do. 11 copies dura do. session,

Appendix .- Same price. The Congressional Globe will sent to those papers that copy

Payment may be made br possage paid, at our risk. The of any specie-paying Bank will a

17" No attention will be paid order, unless the money it, or unless some responsible known to us to be so, shall pay it before the session expli-BLAIR & RIVES Washington City, Oct. 14,10

Sold at half their value. 20th Feb. 1835.