THE FALL OF THE LEAF.

See the leaves around us falling, Dry and wither'd to the ground!

"Sons of Adam! once in Eden, Blighted when like us you fell,

Virgins! much, too much presuming, In your boasted white and red,

Gripping Misers! nightly walking, See the end of all your cares;

Sons of Honor! fed on praises, Flattering high on fancied worth

Learned Sophists! in systems jaded, Who for new ones daily call,

Youths! tho' yet no losses grieve you, Gay in health and manly grace,

Venerable Sires! grown hoary, Hither turn the unwilling eye;

Yearly in our course retiring, Messengers of shortest stay,

On the Tree of Life eternal, Man! let all thy hopes be stayed,

PROPOSALS,

For publishing by subscription.

The Debates

IN THE Convention of N. Carolina, Which assembled at Raleigh, June 4, 1835, to amend the Constitution.

IN consequence of the numerous applications on the subject, the Subscribers have determined, if sufficient encouragement be given, to publish in a neat volume, with all convenient dispatch

The Debates in the Convention, Which recently met in this city. For the purpose of ascertaining whether a sufficient number of Subscribers can be obtained to justify the undertaking, these Proposals are issued.

The volume, which will probably make from 300 to 400 pages, will be printed with a handsome type, on good paper, and will be furnished to Subscribers, bound in boards, at Three Dollars a copy, payable on delivery.

Notice.

AS I have not been known to the people, and they have not been acquainted with my work, I therefore will make some remarks upon my business.

Brick work or Plastering

To do, or any kind of brick work whatever, particularly such as brick walls, cornices, facias, strait arches, chime arches, hips and valleys in tiling and water courses, all piers, pilasters, rustic work, &c. would oblige themselves in employing me, as I have got a form or architect, (printed in England,) superior to any that ever has been seen here; it is a new form and the first one that ever has been brought here.

I will warrant my work from bursting, smoking, or any thing else that does not become the work, and to be superior to any that has ever been done here.

All orders from any distance may be sent to Tarborough Post Office, or any person living not a distance may come or send word to Silas Everitt's, near Little Conecote Creek meeting house, Edgecombe county.

W. M. J. P. BROWN, August 17, 1835.

PROPOSALS,

For publishing in the town of Tarborough, N. C. a semi-monthly paper, entitled

The Primitive Baptist.

EDITED BY MARK BENNETT, Printed and Published by Geo. Howard.

THIS publication is principally intended to defend the old school United Baptists from the many aspersions cast upon them by included persons professing their own faith, because they cannot conscientiously engage in the various money-making schemes of the day, ostensible, intended to promote Christianity, but evidently tending to destroy the great and fundamental principles upon which it is based, by making a gain of godliness. We wish to have it distinctly understood, that we are not inimical to Missouri, Tennessee, the distribution of the Bible, or the spread of the Gospel—but we do condemn the mingling of professors and non-professors of religion in societies, and the making a "craft" of religious matters, in every shape and form whatsoever.

Believing that Theological Schools, Bible, Missions, Tract, and Sunday School Union Societies, are the same in principle—unscriptural—favor more of "incirc" than of "good" will towards men, we are opposed to them.

Some of the children of God, surrounded with, and interspersed among, the advocates of Missionary and other societies, are denied the happiness of conversing with those of the same judgment. Others, while grieved with beholding corruptions of the Gospel, are not able to speak for themselves. This is designed, under God, for their relief. We shall aim not so much to please the fancy, as to inform the judgment—more to afford matter for solid and lasting comfort, than to give a momentary glow to the feelings. We consider that the cause of truth and of Christian solace, is our cause. Deeply impressed with the belief that the blessing even of truth itself is of the Hand of the Church, we cast ourselves upon Him, and send our little paper abroad, praying the Lord to carry with it some joy to those who are in tribulation, and a little rest to those who are troubled.

TERMS. The Primitive Baptist will be published in super-royal octavo form of 16 pages, on the second and fourth Saturdays in each month, commencing in January next—at One Dollar per year, payable on receipt of the first number. Six copies will be sent to one Post-Office or neighborhood for Five Dollars.

Communications must be post paid and directed to the Publisher. Editors in the South will confer a favor by giving the above one or two insertions.

Persons holding Subscription papers will please send them to Geo. Howard, Tarboro', by the middle of December next.

October 3, 1835.

100 Dollars Reward.

ESCAPED from the Subscriber, while camped at the house of Col. A. Watt, in Rockingham county, (N. C.) on the night of the 10th May, 1834, a negro man named

JOHN,

He is about 31 years old, about 5 feet 11 inches high; no marks recollected; had on a homespun jeans long coat, and common thread and cotton pantaloons. John was purchased from Archibald Forbes, in Pitt county, near Greenville, and it is probable he will endeavor to get back to the same neighborhood.

The above reward of One Hundred Dollars will be paid to any one who will apprehend and lodge the said Negro in any jail, so that the Subscriber can get him again. Letters addressed to the undersigned, at New Store P. O. Buckingham county, (Va.) will receive immediate attention.

JOHN I. MORRIS, June 24, 1835.

COMPREHENSIVE

Commentary on the Bible.

THE Subscriber having been requested to act as Agent for this highly interesting work, informs the public that the first volume can be seen at his office, where subscriptions will be received. The first volume is a specimen of the execution of the work, editorial and mechanical. It is to contain all that is valuable in the writings of those great lights in the Christian Church, Henry, Scott, Doddridge, Gill, Adam Clark, Patrick, Pool, Lowth, Burder, and others; the whole designed to a digest and combination of the advantages of the best Bible commentaries. On the whole, it is believed all will admit that the work is what it has been pronounced to be—a credit to the country; and the publishers and editors pledge themselves and their characters (and they can do no more) that every effort shall be put forth to make it, both in the literary and mechanical parts, lastingly useful, and worthy a liberal support. But to sustain them in so expensive an enterprise, the low price fixed for the work requires that it should have an extensive sale, and no publisher would feel warranted in prosecuting the work without a large subscription list; and, however unpopular such a course may be in regard to ordinary works, no hesitation is felt in resorting to it in this case, so manifestly necessary and proper. They appeal in confidence to the religious public, and to all, who wish to see it circulate, for their names and patronage.

There is a Baptist edition, differing in no respect from the general edition except on the ordinance of Baptism, in reference to which the Rev. Joseph A. Wayne, Editor of the Baptist edition, makes the following remarks: viz: All that was promised in the Baptist edition, as such, was that whatever was found in the work as published for Pledobaptists generally, which did not correspond with the views of Baptists, should be removed, and the manifest views of their own best writers substituted. It is confidently believed that no point connected with what is peculiar to the Baptist denomination, has been left unguarded; and when it is considered that on no points but those to Baptists differ from Henry, Scott, Doddridge, &c. there can be scarcely a doubt but that the denomination in general will feel that they have now a Commentary, in the reading of which they are sure to find what will fan the flame of love, and satisfy the appetite for truth, and this without that diminution of their enjoyment with which they were accustomed to meet in reading the authors, arising out of their different views of a Christian ordinance.

TERMS.—The work will be comprised in five volumes, averaging not less than 800 pages per volume, royal 8vo handsomely printed on fine paper, and well bound in sheep, and lettered with double titles, at 3 dollars per volume. There will be several engravings, frontispieces, vignette titles, and several neatly engraved maps, with other illustrative wood cuts. Six Copies bound in extra gilt spring backs, $1,50; plain calf, $3,75.

PROSPECTUS

OF THE Congressional Globe.

THE success of the experiment we have made to form a concise history of the proceedings of Congress, from day to day, sketches of the Debates, &c. the undersigned to prosecute their plan to extend and perfect. They have resolved that the Congressional Globe shall not only embody the parliamentary proceedings of the country, but shall also furnish an Appendix, which shall contain the finished speeches of the prominent speakers, on the most important subjects, written out by the members themselves from the notes and printed speeches of the Reporters.

The Congressional Globe, as an Index, will be published weekly, upon double royal paper, octavo form, as heretofore, at one dollar for the session. It may be subscribed for separately. The appendix of finished speeches will, also, be published for one dollar.

It is probable that the next session of Congress will continue nearly seven months; if so, the work will contain between five and five hundred pages, and will be the cheapest publication perhaps in the world.

The next session of Congress will probably be the most useful one which has occurred in many years, and will certainly replete with interest, as its work will have great influence in the destiny of the Republic for years to come. Immediate proceeding, as it does, the next Presidential election, and restoring the leading minds of all the contending parties in the country, deep and abiding interest will attend the debates. The drama will be faithfully exhibited in the Congressional Globe and the Appendix.

We have already provided our reporting corps, eminent for ability in one branch of Congress, and we expect to obtain adequate reinforcement of correct persons in the other, by the time it meets, to fulfil our own wish and the expectations of the Members. No pains or cost on our part will be spared to accomplish it. As the work will be continued regularly, and be made permanent, authentic, and therefore highly useful, all who take an interest in the political affairs of the country will do well to begin their subscription with the next session.

TERMS.

Congressional Globe—1 copy for the session.

do. do. 11 copies during the session.

Appendix.—Same price.

The Congressional Globe will be sent to those papers that copy it, or, unless some responsible person known to us to be so, shall be directed to it by a mark with a postage paid, at our risk. The price of any specie-paying Bank will be received.

No attention will be paid to orders, unless the money accompany it, or unless some responsible person known to us to be so, shall be directed to it by a mark with a postage paid, at our risk. The price of any specie-paying Bank will be received.
