Miss Frances Campbell,

RETURNS her most grateful acknowledgments to her friends and numerous customers for the very liberal patronage hitherto received from them, and begs leave to inform them she has just received from one of the most fashionable Millinery establishments in the city of New York, her Winter Supply of Articles, In her line, consisting in part of the following, viz:—

Latest style of pattern Silk bonnets, " Florence, Swiss and Tuscan straw do.
" Pattern silk Dresses, Silks & Satins, " Plain and figured Muslins, " Fashionable bonnet and cap Ribbons, " White, blue, black & gray Feathers, " Plain and feather'd Flowers,
" Ladies worked Caps,
" Ladies and gentlemen's silk Gloves,
" " silk and cotton Hose,
" " Black worsted do.
" Ladies black and white Veils,
" Silk and cotton Velvets, Plush Caps, excellent article for winter, Thread and bobbinet Laces, Blond Edgings and Flutings &c.

She also expects to receive in a few days India rubber Aprons, mobair Caps, worked lace Caps, French worked Capes and Collars, fancy Handkerchiefs and Shawls—and has made such arrangements that she will continue to receive regularly every two or three months, additional supplies of any and every article in her line; so that her assortment will generally be found good and complete. She also continues to make and trim dresses and cloaks in the most neat and fashionable manner, as well as all other articles entrusted to her—and hopes by unremitting attention to her business, with a constant desire to please, that she will receive a liberal share of the public patronage. All orders from a distance will be thankfully received, and executed with the utmost dispatch and punctuality.

FRESH
FALL AND WINTER
DRY GOODS.
S. Pender & Son

HAVING just returned from the North, respectfully inform their friends and the public generally, that they are now receiving and opening at the Storehouse one door below S. Pender's Hotel in Tarbo-rough, their

Fall Goods,

Direct from New York.
The pressure of business at this moment will not allow us to say more, therefore we leave it to the inspection of those who will favor us with a call, as we do not charge for looking, and as we feel no hesitation in pronouncing that we will give satisfaction if selling Goods low will do it—which we are determined to sell as low as the lowest, if not a little lower, being anxious to sell our present Stock to make room for a Spring supply. We assure the public that we consider ourselves permanently located in Tarborough.

We will give the highest market price in Cash or Barter, for all kinds of produce that a farmer has to dispose of, poultry not excepted.

Notice: New Firm.

MR JAMES J. GARRETT having withdrawn himself from the Copartnership heretofore existing under the firm of Knight, Garrett & Co.

The same is there dissolved by mutual consent. The business will hereafter be conducted under the firm of

D. Knight & Co.

At the old Stand. We take the liberty to remark to our friends and the public generally, that we are thankful for their past favours, hoping that their future ones if not increased will not be diminished, as we shall endeavor to give general satisfaction to all who may favor us with their custom.
We are now receiving our Fall & Winter Supply of GOODS,

Which we are determined to sell as low as the lowest bring anxious to sell out our present Stock in order to make room for a more general assortment in future. We assure the public that we consider ourselves permanently located in Tarboro' for life, unless sunk by an earthquake or blown up by bankruptcy, and we are happy to say that we have as little apprehensions of the latter as of the former of these horrible catastrophies, provided we are so fortunate as to continue to share the "loaves and fishes" of public patronage with our neighbors, which we shall endeavor to merit with all our might.

To the Public.

THE Subscriber, after returning his profound thank to his former patrons and friends, respectfully begs leave to announce to them and the community at large, that he has just returned from the Northern cities, having purchased

A very extensive Stock of SEASONABLE
GOODS,

Which for quality cannot be surpassed, and which he is prepared to sell on as moderate terms as any similar establishment in the State. He wishes it to be distinctly understood that this is no idle puff, and for his truth appeals with confidence to the judgment of an intelligent people.

He asks permission further to state, that as he is aware that the promotion of his own interests depends solely on the degree of confidence, with which he can inspire a generous public in his integrity, nothing shall be left undone on his part to merit the same.

He deems it unnecessary to enumerate the different articles comprised in his stock, but will only say, that they are in every respect adapted to the season.

The highest prices in Cash or barter, will be given for all such articles of Country Produce as are usually bought in this place for the Northern markets or for exportation. Call at the first door above the Planter's Hotel, on Main street.
HENRY KING.
Tarboro', Oct. 29, 1835.

Please to call and settle.

AS I have sold off the most of my Goods at cost, I think there is no impropriety to give all those indebted to me, without exception, fair notice to come and settle the same on or before the first day of January next, otherwise I shall be under the disagreeable necessity of placing their claims in the hands of an officer for collection—and all those having claims against me, will present them for settlement.
I still continue to sell the following articles at cost, viz:—

Fur and wool Hats,
DRY GOODS,
GLASS,

Crockery and Tin ware, Collins's, King's, and Harrison's CAST STEEL AXES.
And Hardware in general

And many other articles. Any person wanting the above named articles, would find them positively cheaper than they could otherwise procure them in this place.
N. H. ROUNTREE.
Tarboro', 23th Oct. 1835.

Last Notice.
THE Subscriber requests all persons indebted to him, by Note or account, to call and settle the same forthwith, or they will probably find them in the hands of another person, who may not be quite so accommodating as I have been.

New Millinery.

Miss Mitchell,

BEGS leave to inform her Customers and the public generally, that she has just returned from New York with

An extensive Assortment

Of almost every article in her line of business.

She deems it unnecessary to enumerate the various articles comprising her Stock, but flatters herself that an examination it will be found extensive and complete, having spared no pains in its selection.

Miss M. returns her thanks to the public generally for the liberal patronage hitherto bestowed, and hopes by unremitting attention to continue to give satisfaction to all those who may favor her with a call. She would further add, that having purchased her Goods under advantageous circumstances, she is enabled to dispose of them at unusually low prices, and it is her determination to UNDERSELL all those who may come in competition.
Halifax, Oct. 12, 1835.

Notice.

THE Subscribers will in a few days be in receipt of their Fall purchases in New York and in Petersburg, of a general Assortment of Groceries, And the important articles to the Planter at this season of the year.

We also intend to keep three wagons employed in the transportation of Cotton from this to Halifax, and will at all times give the highest prices for baled Cotton delivered in this place.

ACADEMY.
THE EXAMINATION of the Students in this Academy will take place 26th and 27th inst.
Nov'r. Parents and Friends are invited to attend.

The next session will commence on Monday, 11th January. Prices of Board and Tuition, as formerly, (viz:) $45 per session of five months for those of 16 years of age, $40 for those under that age.

In this Academy are taught the languages and the various branches of an English education, aided with Maps, Globes and mathematical instruments.

The constant increase of patronage, for four years past, the health enjoyed by my pupils, and the impossibility for them to contract habits of dissipation and extravagance, has induced me to enlarge my building so that I am enabled to remove the limits to which I have formerly confined myself, yet I pledge myself that not more will be received than can properly be accommodated and well attended to by myself and a very competent assistant.

I cannot feel a willingness to make many promises lest I fall short of a fulfilment, but I prom-
