

Martin Van Buren,
OF NEW YORK.
Richard M. Johnson,
OF KENTUCKY.

It has fallen to the humble lot of the undersigned to have presented to the American People, a third edition of the Biographies of the two above named highly distinguished patriotic citizens, whose constant devotion to the best interests of our Government has led to their designation, as a testimony of the estimation in which their services are regarded by the People whom they have served, as candidates for the two first offices within the gift of a FREE, HAPPY, and FLOURISHING NATION. This taken of respect gives to the world additional proof that faithful service shall not go unrewarded.

The object of this appeal to the republican portion of our fellow citizens, is to obtain their co-operation in the circulation of an edition of 100,000 copies of the joint Biography of MARTIN VAN BUREN & RICHARD M. JOHNSON, enlarged, revised and corrected, so as to be valuable to every lover of his country, and alike honorable to the distinguished citizens whom WE THE PEOPLE, intend still further to honor, by their elevation to the offices of President and Vice President of the United States, in the election of 1836. Thus we shall perpetuate the principles of Jefferson, which have been so signally revived, nobly acted upon, and triumphantly carried out by ANDREW JACKSON, who, spurning all flattery, knew nothing but the PEOPLE, the WIDEST PEOPLE, and their respective rights, regardless of their fortunes, whether rich or poor; thus rendering his name and renown as durable as the EVER-LASTING HILLS.

The arrangement of the volume will be as follows:—

1st. Portrait of Andrew Jackson.
To whom the volume will be inscribed, with an address by the Publisher.

2d. Portrait of M. Van Buren.
To be followed by his Biography, enlarged, including several valuable documents, illustrative of his public character, and exhibiting the magical powers of his gigantic mind, which has ever been devoted to sustain the rights of his country, and the glory and prosperity of his fellow citizens.

3d. Portrait of R. M. Johnson.
To be followed by his Biography, enlarged, including various Speeches, SENATE AND HOUSE REPORTS, and other documents; illustrative of his long continued public life, which has ever been devoted to the good of his country; including an authentic account of the fall of the renowned Indian warrior, TECUMSEH, on the ever memorable 6th of October, 1813—with an engraved view of the battle field.

The work will be completed in one volume, of about 400 pages. The price to be fixed at the moderate sum of One Dollar, neatly bound with cloth backs; or calf and gilt, with the additional expense of binding. The work, which is now in a state of preparation, shall be such as to give entire satisfaction; as it is in the hands of gentlemen who have for nearly forty years, been personally and intimately acquainted with the private and public life of the above named distinguished citizens.

The celebrated address of the Hon. Thomas H. Benton, of Missouri, bearing testimony to the high character of Martin Van Buren; and the eloquent speech of the Hon. James Barbour, of Virginia, in the U. S. Senate, portraying the civility of Col. Johnson on the field, and in the councils of the nation, will be appended to the work.

As there is among our republican citizens, an extensive population of German origin, the work will appear simultaneously in both the English and the German languages. It will, therefore, be necessary for subscribers who wish to have the work in the German, to signify the same on the subscription book.

It will, in order to give prompt and extensive circulation to the work; be indispensable for all subscribers to pay at the time of subscribing—all money to be at a proper time forwarded with the lists of signatures to the publishing committee, which will be duly made known by a notice in the Washington Globe.

Democratic editors disposed to encourage the work, will confer a favor, which will be gratefully acknowledged by the Subscriber, in giving publicity to the above and receiving subscriptions at their respective offices, to whom a reasonable per centage will be allowed.

The People's obedient servant,
WM. EMMONS.

Notice.
O YES! O yes! you are requested to call, And examine the Groceries I've purchased this Fall;
My assortment, I assure you, is entirely complete,
My Store likewise is nearly replete
With all those good things which will hunger destroy,
And make an epicure leap for joy.
Then fear nothing, friends, and be of good cheer,
Scotch herrings and crackers are "call'd sever";
I have apples, oranges, butter and cheese,
Such things I am sure will your hunger appease.
My drinkables too you may be sure,
Are unadulterated "real Simon Pure,"
Then call on me all ye that are athirst,
For here you can allay it with none of the worst.
I have several baskets of the best champagne,
Who can from drinking such liquor refrain?
Besides I've brandy, rum, whiskey and gin,
And bottles and jugs to put the "truck" in.
Tobacco I have too, I think half a ton,
Manufacturer'd in Richmond, call'd Brown's No. 1;
Best Spanish cigars, Lorillard's Scotch snuff,
And packs of those papers with which you play bluff.
My Candies rely on it are of the best kind,
That I could in the metropolis find;
For instance, my peppermint, rock and lemon,
Are sweet enough to make a saint of a demon;
Also jubate paste—this I am told,
Is an excellent remedy in case of a cold.
All of these things, and a great many more,
May be bought at my Confectionary Store.

Muckle John,
WILL STAND this spring and season at Wm G. Bulluck's—at Col. David Daniel's, Rocky Mount—and at Nashville, Nash county. He will stand at the following very low prices, to wit: SIX DOLLARS the single leap, TWELVE Dollars the season, and TWENTY Dollars to insure a mare to be in foal—with 25 cents to the Groom in every instance. The insurance money to be paid as soon as the mare is ascertained to be in foal. A transfer of property forfeits the insurance. A fair and liberal deduction will be made, if any responsible person will make up a club of five mares. The season is now commenced, and will terminate by 1st July next.

Muckle John,
Was got by old Byrod, he by old Sir Archie. Harrod's dam by old Diomed, his grandam by old Bellair, his g. grandam by the imported Sir Henry. MUCKLE JOHN's dam by old Collector, his grandam by the old imported Citizen, his g. grandam by the imported Union, his g. g. grandam by the imported Buckskin. It is unnecessary to trace him further, as the above is sufficient to give him a pedigree not surpassed by any horse in the country. His pedigree has heretofore been incorrectly though inadvertently represented in his former advertisements.

Conetoe Jack,
WILL STAND the ensuing season at my Stable in Pitt county, one mile from Greenville—and will be let to mares at Three Dollars the single leap, Five Dollars the season, and Eight Dollars to insure a mare to be in foal—with 25 cents to the Groom in every instance. A transfer of property forfeits the insurance. A fair and liberal deduction will be made, if any responsible person will make up a club of five mares. The season will commence the 1st day of March next, and will end the 1st of July. All possible care will be taken, but no liability for accidents.
Conetoe Jack is six years old this spring—of large size and good form, and has proved himself to be a sure foal getter.

COMPREHENSIVE Commentary on the Bible.
THE Subscriber having been requested to act as Agent for this highly interesting work, informs the public that the first volume can be seen at his office, where subscriptions will be received. The first volume is a specimen of the execution of the work, editorial and mechanical. It is to contain all that is valuable in the writings of those great lights in the Christian Church, Henry, Scott, Doddridge, Gill, Adam Clark, Patrick, Pool, Louth, Burder, and others; the whole designed to a digest and combination of the advantages of the best Bible commentaries. On the whole, it is believed all will admit that the work is what it has been pronounced to be—a credit to the country; and the publishers and editors pledge themselves and their characters (and they can do no more) that every effort shall be put forth to make it, both in the literary and mechanical parts, lastingly useful, and worthy a liberal support. But to sustain them in so expensive an enterprise, the low price fixed for the work requires that it should have an extensive sale, and no publisher would sell warranted in prosecuting the work without a large subscription list; and, however unpopular such a course may be in regard to ordinary works, no hesitation is felt in resorting to it in this case, so manifestly necessary and proper. They appeal in confidence to the religious public, and to all, who wish to see it circulate, for their names and patronage.

There is a Baptist edition, differing in no respect from the general edition except on the ordinance of Baptism, in reference to which the Rev. Joseph A. Warne, Editor of the Baptist edition, makes the following remarks, viz: All that was promised in the Baptist edition, as such, was that whatever was found in the work as published for Pædobaptists generally, which did not correspond with the views of Baptists, should be removed, and the maturest views of their own best writers substituted. It is confidently believed that no point connected with what is peculiar to the Baptist denomination, has been left unguarded; and when it is considered that on no points but those do Baptists differ from Henry, Scott, Doddridge, &c. there can be scarcely a doubt but that the denomination in general will feel that they have now a Commentary, in the reading of which they are sure to find what will fan the flames of love, and satisfy the appetite for truth, and this without that diminution of their enjoyment with which they were accustomed to meet in reading the authors, arising out of their different views of a Christian ordinance.

RANAWAY from the Subscriber, on the night of 29th September last, my negro man named
DANIEL,
20 or 21 years of age, 6 feet high, black complexion, has a pleasing countenance, inclined to be knock-kneed, his feet somewhat turned out, particularly his left foot, his clothing not recollected. He was formerly the property of Asabel Farmer, his mother, brothers and sisters belonging to said Farmer—his father is in the same neighborhood working about as a blacksmith, nearly as a free man. It is believed he is lurking about in the neighborhood of said Farmer, also in Nash county. The above reward will be paid to any person that will apprehend said negro, and deliver him to me or secure him in any jail so that I get him again. I forewarn any person from harboring said negro, or carrying him off, under the strict penalty of the law. Any information respecting him will be thankfully received by the Subscriber, at Oak Grove, Edgecombe county.

Silk Culturist.
THE Executive Committee of the Hartford County Silk Society, have commenced a monthly publication, called the Silk Culturist and Farmer's Manual.
The object of the publication is to disseminate a thorough knowledge of the cultivation of the Mulberry Tree, in all its varieties—The rearing of Silk Worms—the production of Cocoons and the Reeling of Silk, in the most approved method. The importance of this knowledge will appear from the fact that the net profit of land devoted to the culture of Silk, is double, if not triple, to that derived from any other crop which can be put upon it. It is also a fact, that every moderate farmer can raise several hundred dollars worth of Silk without interfering with his ordinary agricultural operations. But in order to avail himself of this facility to obtain competency and wealth, which our soil and climate have given him, he must possess himself of information on the subject—for without it his attempts will be fruitless. It is, therefore, the object of the Committee to disseminate this information as extensively as possible, and at the cheapest rate. The publication will contain a complete manual or directory from sowing the seed to reeling the Silk, together with such facts and experiments, as will enable farmers to raise Silk and prepare it for market, without further knowledge or assistance. It will also contain interesting matter on agricultural subjects in general.

TERMS.—The Culturist will be published in monthly numbers of Eight Quarto Pages, at Fifty Cents a Year. No subscription will be received unless paid in Advance, and for not less than a Year.
Subscribers received by F. G. Combs, Secretary, Hartford, Conn., to whom all Communications may be addressed, which, if post paid, will be attended to.

PROPOSALS,
For publishing in the town of Tarborough, N. C. a semi-monthly paper, entitled
The Primitive Baptist,
EDITED BY MARK BENNETT,
Printed and Published by Geo. Howard.

THIS publication is principally intended to defend the old school United Baptists from the many assertions cast upon them by deluded persons professing their own faith, because they cannot conscientiously engage in the various money-making schemes of the day, ostensibly intended to promote Christianity, but evidently tending to destroy the great and fundamental principles upon which it is based; by making a gain of godliness. We wish not to be distinctly understood, that we are not inimical to Masonry, Temperance, the distribution of the Bible, or the spread of the Gospel—but we do condemn the mingling of professors and non-professors of religion in societies, and the making "crafts" of religious matters, in every shape and form whatsoever.

Believing that Theological Schools, Bible, Missionary, Tract, and Sunday School Societies, are the same in principle—unscriptural—error more of "lures" than of "good will towards men," we are opposed to them.

Some of the children of God, surrounded with, and interspersed amongst, the advocates of Missionary and other societies, are denied the happiness of conversing with those of the same judgment. Others, while grieved with beholding corruptions of the Gospel, are not able to speak for themselves. This is designed, under God, for their relief. We shall aim not so much to please the fancy, as to inform the judgment—more to afford matter for solid and lasting comfort, than to give a momentary glow to the feelings. We consider that the cause of truth and of Christian solace, is our cause. Deeply impressed with the belief that the blessing even of truth itself is of the Head of the Church, we cast ourselves upon Him, and send our little paper abroad, praying the Lord to carry with it some joy to those who are in tribulation, and a little rest to those who are troubled.

TERMS.
The Primitive Baptist is published in super-royal octavo form of 16 pages, on the second and fourth Saturdays in each month—at One Dollar per year, payable on receipt of the first of number. Six copies will sent to one Post Office or neighborhood for Five Dollars.
Communications must be post paid and directed to the Publisher.
Persons holding Subscription papers will please send them, or the names on them, to Geo. Howard, Tarborough, N. C.
