

SCOTLAND NECK Female Seminary.

The undersigned most respectfully informs the public that he has engaged the services of Miss MATILDA B. ROWAN, of New York, who will take charge of the above Seminary, at his residence in Scotland Neck, where he has recently erected a comfortable building for the purpose.

The exercises of this institution will commence on Monday next, and the following branches of education will be taught:—viz: 1st Division. Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, Grammar, Geography, Parley's History, Ancient and Modern History.— Terms, $10.

2d Division. Rhetoric, Logic, Natural Philosophy, Astronomy, Moral and Intellectual Philosophy, Natural Theology, Elements of Criticism, each in addition to the first division, $1 per session.

Chemistry and Botany each, $3 00
French, : : 10 00
Drawing, : : 10 00
Flower Painting, : : 10 00
Oil Painting, : : 10 00
Music, : : 15 00

Each session consists of five months. Miss Rowan comes highly recommended by some of the first literary men of the North, as well qualified to teach all the above branches, except Music, a competent teacher of which is expected from the North in a few days.

It is highly important that all pupils should enter school at the beginning of the Session. Each young lady must have every article of clothing marked with her whole name.

Board for fifteen or twenty young ladies can be had in the Subscriber's family at $5 per month, where young ladies will be carefully under the care of the Preceptress, and where they will meet every kindness and attention from Mrs. Parker and herself. The location of this School is held to be one of the healthiest in Scotland Neck; the water unsurpassed by any in this section of country, and on the whole few as high and pleasant situations will be found in the eastern part of the State.

For the high moral standing of Miss Rowan, and her capability of discharging the duties of the Seminary of which she has taken charge, the following among other testimonials in her favor is referred to.

Lew'l L. Parker.

TYPE FOUNDRY.
White & Hagur,
RESPECTFULLY inform the Printers of the United States, to whom they have been long known as established

TYPE FOUNDERS,
That they have now formed a CO-PARTNERSHIP in all business and hope from their united skill and experience to be able to give satisfaction to all who may favor them with their orders. The introduction of machinery in place of the unwholesome process of setting type by hand, a desideratum by the American and European founders, was by American ingenuity and heavy expenditure of time and money on the part of the senior partner, first successfully accomplished.

Extensive use of the machine to cast letters has fully tested and established its superiority over that cast by the old process. The printing business, will hereafter be carried on by the parties above named, under the firm of

WHITE, HAGUR & CO.
The specimen exhibits a complete series from diamond to seventeen line pica. The book and news type being in the most modern light and shade.

WHITE, HAGUR & CO. are agents for the sale of Smith and Rust

PRINTING PRESSES,
which they furnish to their customers at the manufacturers' prices. Clases, cases, composing sticks, ink, and every article used in the printing business, kept for sale and furnished at short notice. Old type taken in exchange for new, at nine cents per pound.

Newspaper proprietors, who will give the above advertisement three insertions, will be entitled to $5 in such articles as they may select from our specimens.

New York, 1836. E. WHITE.
W. HAGUR.

M. EDWARD MANNING,
ORDERS all persons indebted to him to come forward and make immediate payment. Also, the inhabitants of Districts Nos. 15 and 16, to pay their taxes without delay, as he contemplates on going to the North the 1st of Sept. and will not return in six months. Those concerned will please obey the above mandate, as he cannot go without a full adjustment of his affairs before his departure. Those having claims against him will please be so considerate as to present them for adjustment within the time prescribed.

He will also have a couple of

Horses for Sale,
one of which is extraordinarily gentle, suitable for a family gig horse. One can be delivered the 1st of August, and the other the 1st of Sept. Strict justice rendered, and necessary demands, that the horse article shall be attended to.

TO THOSE Whom it may concern!

THE UNDERSIGNED,
Having received
His Summer Supply of GROCERIES,

Adopts this means of apprising his "constituents" of this important and splendid accession to his old stock. It seems unnecessary to descend, and but for one article only, I would forbear. The one alluded to is CHAMPAGNE—rare stuff, indeed—quite exhilarating—a sovereign remedy for despondency; or, to be as brief as possible, it has never entered the hearts of those who have not tried it, to conceive the excellencies of my

"Fox brand Champagne."

As much might be said in behalf of many other things among my stock, which consists of the following articles:—

A great variety of Candies, Muscatel and bunch Raisins, Apples, Oranges and Lemons, English walnuts, Palm nuts, Butter and water Crackers, Sugar Crackers, Pine apple Cheese, Scotch HERRINGS, best lump Sugar, Príncipe and Spanish Segars, CHAMPAGNE, very superior quality, Champagne brandy, French brandy, Holland Gin, Jamaica Rum, Port wine, Irish whiskey, N-w England Rum, Spanish smoking Tobacco, Lemon Syrup, London Porter, Cider in bottles, Scotch Whisky, tall-w Candles, sea bread, Coffee, Pongkeepsie Ale, Brown's best Soap, common Soap, Children's books, Jews harps, Loco loco Matches, Playing cards, Marbles, &c. &c.

All which may be had for the consideration of twenty-five per cent. on their original cost.

NEW GOODS.

THE Subscriber after returning her most cordial thanks for the very liberal encouragement she has hitherto received at the hands of her patrons, begs leave to announce through the medium of the Press, that she has just returned from New York, and is hourly expecting the arrival of her purchases. With due deference to the public, truth and justice to herself and Goods compels her to say that,
A MORE NEAT AND Valuable Assortment,
Was never offered in this section, and that they surpass any of her former purchases as much as the effulgence of the sun does the pallid light of the moon—and she would simply suggest to those persons who are desirous of procuring articles in her line of business, of the most fashionable style and at the cheapest rates, to favor her with a call ere they purchase elsewhere, or they may sincerely regret their non-compliance with this intimation. She thinks it highly probable that among her assortment may be found articles vastly superior both in style and texture to any in this place. Believing they will be in great demand, and relying in the truth of the old saying that, they who live for others live the more for themselves, she assures her friends that her prices for those Goods will not be more exorbitant on that account, than if every store in town was filled to overflowing with similar ones. The following list of articles comprise her Stock:—
