TEXAS.

The following message was received from the President of the United States.

To the House of Representatives of the United States:

During the last session information was given to Congress, by the Executive, that measures had been taken to ascertain "the political, military, and civil condition of Texas."

No steps have been taken by the Executive towards the acknowledgment of the independence of Texas; and the whole subject would have been left without further remarks...

The acknowledgment of a new State as independent and entitled to a place in the family of nations, is at all times an act of great delicacy and responsibility...

It has thus been made known to the world that the uniform policy and practice of the United States is, to avoid all interference in disputes which merely relate to the internal government of other nations...

is so firmly established and well understood in favor of this policy, that no serious disagreement has ever arisen among ourselves in relation to it...

In the preamble to the resolution of the House of Representatives, it is distinctly intimated that the expediency of recognising the Independence of Texas should be left to the decision of Congress.

It is scarcely to be imagined that a question of this character could be presented, in relation to which it would be more difficult, for the United States to avoid exciting the suspicion and jealousy for other Powers...

In the contest between Spain and her revolted colonies we stood aloof, and waited not only until the ability of the new States to protect themselves was fully established...

separate independence of New Grenada, or Venezuela, and of Ecuador, only after their independent existence was no longer a subject of dispute...

Upon the issue of this threatened invasion the independence of Texas may be considered as suspended; and were there nothing peculiar in the relative situation of the U. S. and Texas...

The Mexican troops newly arrived at San Luis, are under Gen. Bravo, Valencia and Ramirez, and amount to 2000 infantry, 600 cavalry, and a battery of 8 field-pieces.

We are advised that Steam Packets of a superior class are about being contracted for by the Wilmington and Raleigh Rail Road Company...

Having thus discharged my duty, by presenting with simplicity and directness the views which, after much reflection, I have been led to take of this important subject, I have only to add the expression of my confidence that, if Congress shall differ with me upon it their judgment will be the result of dispassionate, prudent, and wise deliberation...

ANDREW JACKSON.

Important from Mexico and Texas.—Release of Santa Anna and Almonte.—March of 8000 Mexican troops upon Texas.—Simultaneous with the important intelligence brought by the way of New Orleans...

The release of Santa took place at Columbia, Nov. 27th, upon Gen. Houston's own responsibility, he having first apprised the Senate of his determination to do so, and demanded of them their advice.

The campaign will not open till spring, either by land and across the Rio Bravo, or embarking Matamoros.—N. Y. Star.

New Line between Portsmouth and Charleston, via Washington.—We are gratified to learn from the article below, that arrangements are in progress to bring our town immediately within the great line of travel between North and South.

By this route the traveller secures expedition, comfort, and almost entire exemption from the dangers and sickness of a more extended sea trip.

Wilmington Advertiser. Expeditious Travelling.—

At the commencement of the spring, a new line of communication will most probably go into operation between the North and South, which will go ahead of any thing in the country for expedition and comfort...

The project is as follows:—A daily line of boats to ply from Baltimore or some point of the Port Deposit Rail Road to Portsmouth to connect with the Portsmouth and Roanoke Rail Road, which will take travellers to Weldon, at which place they will be met by a splendid line of stages which are to go over the road to Wilmington, a distance nearly equal to that now travelled from Blakely to Fayetteville...

By this arrangement 43 hours will be saved from Philadelphia to Augusta, besides avoiding the tedious and tiresome journey from Baltimore to Petersburg, via short changes of Rail Road, stages, and steam boats...

Portsmouth Va Times.

Elopement at Boston.—The fashionable circle at Boston has been somewhat thrown into a flurry by the elopement of one of the Belles. It seems that a young man of classical education, imposing manners and fine appearance, visited Nahant during the summer, where he first became acquainted with the young lady, and fell in love with her.

Horrid Murder.—Besides the murder of Messrs. Wright and Husky, and 4 negroes in Hot Spring county, in Arkansas, already noticed in our paper, we have another to record in the same state, of equal atrocity. A man named Richardson, and his wife and two children, residing on St. Francis River, were found murdered, and their house burnt down, a few weeks since.
