a weekly newspaper under ile: dore reflection on the subject,

From update is flection on the subject, and some columbation with men of experience, it is believed, that, by connecting the ordinary variety of a Newspaper, with practical legal maxims, advice, approved forms, &c. in the transaction of business—the publication may be rendered useful, and generally acceptable, at least to the citizens of this State.

It is difficult to enumerate beforehand all the subjects that may be considered.

all the subjects that may be considered within the design of this paper; but among other things, due attention will be paid to Religion, Morality, Education, Polulos, Agriculture, Commerce, &c. together with the news of the day, foreign and domestic.

The business matter will be similar in character to that which appears in the 1st and 2d vols, of the "Man of business;" and if necessary, some of the subjects there treated of, will be more fully explained. In politics, the publication is pledged to no party. And it is hoped and believed that no improper prejudice will be indut-Iddor promises without reserve, the strict-test attention to the chastity of his col-nums; and so far as practicable to render blication exactly such as every worthy citizen will t he pleasure in introdu-cing to the notice of his family & friends.

TERMS: The Citizen will be issued every Saturday morning, on a fine super-royal sheet, at $2 per annum in advance; or $3, if not paid within three months from the date of he first No. received, &c.

For five or ax years previous to the spring of 1834, a negro man of mine had wen much afflicted with an ulcerated arm and hand, which rendered him almost use less. The older embraced that part of his arm from the elbow down, including his estire hand, which was literally a mass of purrelaction. A joint of one fin.er, and a part of the thumb, perished and dropt off, A more distressing and hopeless case I have never beheld. It was abandoned by his physician as incurable, except by amputation of the hand.

The best medical treatment having failed to relieve the man, I placed him under the care of Mr. William W. Gray, in this place, who, with his Omtment, has effectu-WILL STAND the ensuing season at ally cured the case, although the negro my stable, on the north side of was frequently absent, for weeks and Tar River, on the road leading from Teat's mooths together. PROPOSALS.

For publishing in the town of Tarborough N. C. a semi-monthly paper, entitled

THE PRIMITIVE BAPTIST,

EDITED BY MARK BENNETT. Printed and Published by Geo. Howard

HIS publication is principally intended to defend the old school United Baptists from the many aspersions cast upon them by deladed persons processing their own faith, because they cannot conscientiously engage in the various money-making schemes of the day, ostensibly intended to promote Christianity, but evidently tonding to destroy the great and fundamental principles upon which it is based, by mak ing a gain of godliness. We wish to have it distinctly understood, that we are not inimical to Masoury. Temperance, the distribution of the Bible, or the spread of the Gospei- but we do condemn the mingling of professors and non-professors of religion in societies, and the making a "craft" of religious matters, in every shape and form whatsoever Believing that Theological Schools, Bi ole, Mi-sionary, Tract, and Sunday School Union Societies, are the same in principle -unscriptural-savor more of than of "good will towards men," we are opposed to them

Some of the children of God, surrounded with, and interspersed amongst, the advocates of dissionary and other societies, are denied the happiness of conversing with those of the same judgment. Others, while gri-ved with beholding corruptions of the Gospel are not able to speak for themselves. This is designed, under God, for their relief. We shall aim not so much to please the fancy, as to inform the ju gment -more to afford matter for solid and tast ing comfort, than to give a momentary We consider that glow to the feelings. the cause of truth and of Christian solace, s our cause. Deeply impressed with the belief that the blessing even of truth itself is of the Head of the Church, we cast ourselves upon Him, and send our little paper abroad, praying the Lord to carry with it some joy to those who are in tribulation, and a little rest to those who are troubled.
