A Slave.—A letter from Matanzas, published in the New York Journal of Commerce, under date of the 8th ult. says, "A schooner arrived yesterday from Africa, and landed about 300 negroes at Camaroca. The steambont Almendares went immediately for them, and the schooner arrived here last evening, and this morning is lying in our harbor with the American flag flying!! I understand she has an American register—that is currently believed here—and I trust the business will be looked after. It is outrageous that this should be allowed.

The New York Express states that the disclosures made by the various Ward Charity Meetings, in relation to the sufferings of the poor in that city, are of the most awful character. It is asserted on the authority of the central committees that at the present period, not less than forty thousand persons in the city of New York are dependent on the hand of charity for their daily supplies of food and fuel. Amongst these are found not only the vicious and improvident, but thousands of the most industrious, and hitherto laborious of the population, but they do not work merely because they can find nothing to do—labor being at present out of the question.—The Express adds that there is not a day passes in that city in which there are not more or less deaths from want of food and fuel.

Newspaper Stock.—We learn from an advertisement inserted on the fourth page of the New York Courier and Enquirer, that the proprietor of that paper intends applying to the Legislature of New York, now in session, to authorize him to convert the Morning Courier and Enquirer into a Stock Company, with a capital of Three Hundred Thousand Dollars. A very good idea, and calculated to afford the means of making a powerful and useful press. The London Times and its contemporaries, are all owned by stock companies.

Foreign.

Latest from Europe.—Liverpool dates to the 24th Feb. have been received at New York. The markets continue without any material change. The freedom of the city of London was presented to our Minister, Mr. Stevenson, which he promptly declined, stating he was not at liberty to accept it, under the Constitution and usages of his country.

Liverpool Cotton Market, Feb. 23.—In the early part of the week, and indeed up to the close of Wednesday, there was a very good demand, and the recent import being not then fairly on the market, there was a competition shown by the trade to purchase, led to an advance of 1-8 to 3d per lb. on middle and fair American descriptions; yesterday and to day buyers have been less anxious to supply themselves, whilst the quantity offering has considerably increased and with it a desire to realise, producing a reaction in prices, and they now remain with scarcely any advantage gained upon those of Friday last.

New York Market, March 24.—Cotton droops and prices are 4c. per lb. lower; sales of the week 3,350 bales at 8 1/2 a 12 cts. Southern Corn has sold at 75 cts. measure.

Washington Market, March 27.—Turpentine, new dip, $1.90; Old $1.60. Tar, $1.20.—Whig.

Petersburg Market, March 27.—Cotton, dull, 8 1/2 to 9 1/2—Flour, 7 25 to 7 50—Corn, (wholesale,) 3 50 to 3 75—Bacon, (Hog Round,) 9 1/2 to 10 1/2 cts.—Int.

Norfolk Market, March 27.—Cotton, 9 to 9 1/2 cents; Corn, 63 to 65 cents; Lard, 10 cents.—Herald.

March, 1838

MUCKLE JOHN,

WILL STAND the ensuing spring at the stable of William G. Bulluck, at the following prices, (to wit): TWENTY FIVE DOLLARS the season, and FORTY Dollars the insurance, with fifty cents to the Groom in every instance. Every exertion will be carefully observed to prevent accidents, but no liability will be incurred if any should happen.

It is entirely unnecessary to make any comment upon this thorough bred horse, as his Pedigree which is given below, should, independent, of the fine performances of the few colts of his get, on the racing Turf, recommend him, to all unprejudiced judges, as a horse that should not as to genuineness of blood, stand inferior to none others in the State of North Carolina. The many good crosses both of American and imported stock, should justly entitle him to a reputation sufficient, to entitle him justly to an extensive patronage, by all those, who are anxious to raise race horses of never flinching game, connected also with no small degree of speed. With correct and proper crosses his colts cannot fail to figure as splendidly on the Turf as any others in America.—For an account of his colts' races see Turf Register and Spirit of the Times. If this opportunity is not accepted by those who are anxious to improve their stock, a source of regret may hereafter be occasioned, as another so favorable may not be given. A liberal deduction will be made if any responsible person will make up a club of five mares. The season will commence 1st March and end 1st July.—MUCKLE JOHN is fifteen years old this spring, and now possesses all the liveliness of action as a colt of 3 years old.

Pedigree.

MUCKLE JOHN was got by Old Harrod, he by Old Sir Archie. Harrod's dam by Old Diomed, his grandam by Old Bellair, his g. grandam by the Imported Sir Harry. Muckle John's dam by Old Collector, his grandam by Old Imported Citizen, his g. grandam by the Imported Union, his g. g. grandam by the Imported Buckskin. It is unnecessary to trace him further, as the above is sufficient to give him a pedigree not surpassed by any horse in the country.

He will serve mares at SIXTY DOLLARS the season, payable at the expiration of it, and ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS insurance, payable as soon as the mare is discovered to be in foal or the property changed; with one dollar to the Groom in every instance. Any gentleman sending six mares shall have the season of one gratis. Large and extensive pasturage sown in small grain for mares left with the horse. Separate stables and lots expressly for mares and colts, and board of servants gratis. My usual attention, but cannot be liable for accidents of any kind that may happen.
