Here must be great loss of property, if not also of life. It is a hard case for these industrious lamber craft in their perilous life. There are none of our coasters, not even the Cape Cod fishermen, that lead a rougher life than those in this trade between N Carolina, and the W. Indies, and Northern States.-N. Y. Star.

MUCKLE JOHN.

WILL STAND the ensuing spring at the stable of William G. Bulluck, at the following prices, (to wit:) TWEN IY FIVE DOLLARS the season, and FORTY D Hars the insurance, with fifty outs to the Groom in every instance Every exertion will be carefully observed to prevent accidents, but no liability will be incurred if any should happen.

It is entirely unnecessary to make any comment upon this thorough bred horse. - his Pedigree which is given below. should, independent, of the fine performances of the few colts of his get, on the racing Turf, recommend him, to all unprejudiced judges, as a horse that should not as to genomeness of blood, stand interior to none others in the State of North Carolina. The many good crosses both of American and imported stock, should just y entitle him to a reputation sufficient, to entitle him jostly to an extensive patronage, by all those, who are anxious to aise race horses of never fluching game, connected also with no small degree of being about to do so, I offer speed. With correct and proper crosses his colts cannot fail to figure as splendidly on the Turf as any others in America. -For an account of his colts' races see Turl Register and Spirit of the Times. It this opportunity is not accepted by those who are anxious to improve their stock, a source of regret may hereafter be occasioned, as another so favorable may not be given. A liberal deduction will be made if any responsible person will make up a club of five mares. The season will commence 1st March and end 1st July .-MUCKLE JOHN is fifteen years old this This celebrated Racer and Stallion, care spring, and now possesses all the liveliness of action as a colt of 3 years old.

Pedigree.

MUCKLEJOHN was got by Old Har rod, he by Old Sir Archie. Harrod' dam by Old Diomede, his grandam by Old Bellair, his g grandam by the Imported Sir Harry. Muckle John's dam by Old Collector, his grandam by Old Imported Citizen, his g. grandam by the Imported Union, his g. g. grandam by the Imported Buckskin. It is unnecessary to trace him further, as the above is sufficient to give him a pedigree not surpassed by any horse in the country.
