Opposite the Bank.

A CARD.
The Northampton Academy.
HAVING learned that it is reported in the lower counties, that I design to abandon the charge of the "Northampton Academy,"
I take this method of informing my friends, patrons, and the public generally, that the rumor, from whatever source proceeding, is false and unfounded. The Exercises of the Institution were resumed, as may be seen from the handbills of the Trustees.
On Monday, the 16th inst.
Under the management of the same teachers that have heretofore discharged the duties of both departments. As this report may have a tendency to detain some who, otherwise, would have reached the Academy before this time, notice is hereby given, that charge is made only from the period of admission to the termination of the session.
ROBERT A. EZELL.
Jackson, N. C. July 20th, 1838.

$50 Reward.
THE undersigned will give the above reward of Fifty Dollars, for the apprehension and confinement in the jail at Louisburg, N. C. of Pleasant Burnett, Sen'r.
who was found guilty of the murder of PLEASANT BURNETT, Jun'r. by a Coroner's Inquest held over the body of the deceased, in February, 1837, since which time he has not been heard of, so as to be reached by a process of law.
PLEASANT BURNETT, Sen'r is about fifty two or fifty three years old; supposed to be six feet high; with a down look when spoken to; large eyebrows, meeting in the middle and extending a little on the nose; with small blue eyes; round face; and an excellent set of teeth; tolerably dark curly hair; and wears a truss.
He is supposed to be lurking in this County or Nash, or in reach of his wife's father, (ROBERT MELTON,) who lives in Nash, at which place, I have been creditably informed, he has been seen several times since the murder.
In addition to the above reward of fifty dollars, I will pay all reasonable charges for his apprehension and confinement in Franklin jail, or any other jail in this State, so that he can be brought to justice.

SHOCCO SPRINGS.
THE Subscriber informs the public and her friends that her Establishment at Shocco Springs, Was opened for the reception and accommodation of visitors,
On the first day of June, inst.
She deems it almost unnecessary to say any thing as regards the healthfulness of the waters of the Springs, as they have been so frequently the means of restoring to health many of the most valuable members of society, and their medical properties have been so frequently tested by gentlemen and Physicians of first rate talents in the country.
The Raleigh and Gaston Rail Road runs within ten miles of the Springs, and the Cars will pass daily by the fourth of July next; and, for the accommodation of visitors, the Subscriber will regularly run a Hack from the Depot at TWITTY'S to the Springs.

Notice.
THE subscriber, as Administrator on the estate of
Thomas Dickenson, dec'd,
Hereby notifies all the heirs of said Dickenson to come forward or make known their title to deceased's estate. It is conjectured that William Dickenson, brother of the deceased, who removed to South Carolina several years since, is now living or has left heirs who are entitled to part of said estate. The will of the deceased was made void, and all the heirs come in according to law. The estate is now ready for settlement, and if application is not made to the subscriber in Edgecombe county, North Carolina, within the time limited by law, I will feel myself authorized to settle with the heirs that are known.

PROSPECTUS
OF
The Republican.
"Let there be light."
IT is proposed to establish in the Town of Washington, North Carolina, a new paper under the above title and motto. The title indicates the political character of the paper, and the motto indicates its purpose. It will advocate strongly and warmly the doctrines of the Old Republican party—the doctrines of 1776, '99—the doctrines of Thomas Jefferson. It will maintain a strict construction of the Federal Constitution. It will of course resist the re-charter of a National Bank in every form which Federal ingenuity can propose. Such an institution is believed to be not only at war with the Constitution, but the worst foe to the commercial independence of the South. It has besides, many dangerous political tendencies. The Republican will advocate a divorce between Bank and State. The union of Bank and State is mutually corrupting, just as the union of Church and State has been found in all past history. And as in our free government it has been found, that government can get along very well without the aid of church, and the church best maintain its purity without the interference or aid of government; so it will be found equally advantageous to separate Government and Bank, and let each rest upon its own merits. A great question is now before the people of this country. It is: "Shall the people govern the banks, or the banks govern the people?" It involves another question: Are the people capable of self-government? Are they prepared to succumb to the dominion of a moneyed aristocracy? The odds are formidable: money is power, and a power ever adverse to popular freedom. The danger from such power is in proportion to its concentration; and it may safely be asserted, that a more extensive and formidable concentration of the money power never existed in any country than now exists in our own. It is waging open war with the people. It is even now sweeping counties and States in its ruthless and conquering march. All the purchasable talent of the country is enlisted against the people. Popular liberty is in danger. The people must rally to the rescue. Thanks to the wisdom and valor of our forefathers, the political power is still in the hands of the people; and surely it can only be necessary that they should be aroused to a sense of the danger. The Republican will be found on the side of the people and against irresponsible power. Will the people be true to themselves!
The interests of the Farmer will not be overlooked. A portion of the columns of the Republican will be devoted to improvements in Agriculture, Markets, &c.
The Republican will be published on a Superroyal sheet, weekly, at two dollars fifty cents if paid within three months after the receipt of the first number, three dollars if paid afterwards.—All communications addressed, "Publisher of the Republican," will receive attention.

STRAYED from Josiah Barrett's, in this county, about the 20th May last,
A small bay jenny MULE,

Belonging to the Subscriber, with shoes on her fore feet, (whether her hind feet were shod is not now recollected,) about three years old. I purchased said Mule from a horse drover, so it is very uncertain which way she may have gone; but when last heard from, she was in the county of Edgecombe. I suppose she has been taken up by some one before this, and if so, any information respecting her will be thankfully received, and the person amply compensated for his trouble.

PROSPECTUS
OF THE
N. Carolina Journal.
IN assuming the Editorial department of the North Carolina Journal, we propose to make it a vehicle of general and useful information, giving the earliest information of the passing events of the day.
The Politics of the Journal will be the same as heretofore. We will advocate the course of the present National Administration, as long as they oppose the chartering of any Bank of the United States; and are in favor of an Independent Treasury; and support the leading principles of the Republican family.
Our Politics are of the Jeffersonian Democratic principles, in contradistinction to the "No Party" measures of the Whigs, Bankites, Clayites, and Conservatives, of the present day, who seek to shelter themselves under the mask of "No Party Men." Our party is known, and therefore we will advocate our cause with truth and justice, and at the same time, treat our political opponents with that respect which ought to be observed among men.
We intend to improve the general appearance of the Journal in its typographical execution, and print it on as good paper as the market affords.
We further propose to reduce the price of the Journal, in order to give our friends a chance of being liberal in subscribing; and assisting us in promoting the good cause of Democracy.
TERMS.
The Journal will be published in future, at two dollars and fifty cents per annum, if paid in advance, three dollars if paid at the end of six months, and three dollars and fifty cents at the end of the year.
