

Doctor W. EVANS'
SOOTHING SYRUP
 For children Teething,
 PREPARED BY HIMSELF.
 To Mothers and Nurses.

THE passage of the Teeth through the gums produces troublesome and dangerous symptoms. It is known by mothers that there is great irritation in the mouth and gums during this process. The gums swell, the secretion of saliva is increased, the child is seized with frequent and sudden fits of crying, watchings, starting in the sleep, and spasms of peculiar parts, the child shrieks with extreme violence, and thrusts its fingers into its mouth. If these precursory symptoms are not speedily alleviated, spasmodic convulsions universally supervene, and soon cause the dissolution of the infant. If mothers who have their little babes afflicted with these distressing symptoms, would apply Dr. William Evans's Celebrated Soothing Syrup, which has preserved hundreds of infants when thought past recovery, from being suddenly attacked with that fatal malady, convulsions.

A real blessing to Mothers.
 Dr. W. Evans' celebrated Soothing Syrup for children cutting their teeth.

This infallible remedy has preserved hundreds of Children, when thought past recovery, from convulsions. As soon as the Syrup is rubbed on the gums, the child will recover. This preparation is so innocent, so efficacious, and so pleasant, that no child will refuse to let its gums be rubbed with it. When infants are at the age of four months, though there is no appearance of teeth, one bottle of the Syrup should be used on the gums, to open the pores. Parents should never be without the Syrup in the nursery where there are young children; for if a child wakes in the night with pain in the gums, the Syrup immediately gives ease by opening the pores and healing the gums; thereby preventing Convulsions, Fevers, &c.

Proof positive of the efficacy of Dr. Evans' Soothing Syrup.

To the Agent of Dr. Evans' Soothing Syrup: Dear Sir—The great benefit afforded to my suffering infant by your Soothing Syrup, in a case of protracted and painful dentition, must convince every feeling parent how essential an early application of such an invaluable medicine is to relieve infant misery and torture. My infant, while teething, experienced such acute sufferings, that it was attacked with convulsions, and my wife and family supposed that death would soon release the babe from anguish till we procured a bottle of your Syrup; which as soon as applied to the gums a wonderful change was produced, and after a few applications the child displayed obvious relief, and by continuing in its use. I am glad to inform you, the child has completely recovered, and no recurrence of that awful complaint has since occurred; the teeth are emanating daily and the child enjoys perfect health. I give you my cheerful permission to make this acknowledgment public, and will gladly give any information on this circumstance. WM. JOHNSON.

Moffat's Life Pills
 And Phenix Bitters.

THE UNIVERSAL ESTIMATION in which the celebrated Life Pills and Phenix Bitters are held, is satisfactorily demonstrated by the increasing demand for them in every State and section of the Union, and by the voluntary testimonials to their remarkable efficacy which are every where offered. It is not less from a deeply gratifying confidence that they are the means of extensive and inestimable good among his afflicted fellow creatures, than from interested considerations, that the proprietor of these pre-eminently successful medicines is desirous of keeping them constantly before the public eye. The sale of every additional box and bottle is a guarantee that some person will be relieved from a greater or less degree of suffering, and be improved in general health; for in no case of suffering, and from disease can they be taken in vain. The proprietor has never known nor been informed of an instance in which they have failed to do good. In the most obstinate cases of chronic disease, such as chronic dyspepsia, torpid liver, rheumatism, asthma, nervous and bilious headache, costiveness, piles, general debility, scrofulous swellings and ulcers, scurvy, salt rheum, and all other chronic affections of the organs and membranes, they effect cures with rapidity and permanency which few persons would theoretically believe, but to which thousands have testified from happy experience. In colds and coughs, which, if neglected, superinduce the most fatal diseases of the lungs, and indeed of the viscera in general, these medicines, if taken but for three or four days, never fail. Taken at night, they so promote the insensible perspiration, and so relieve the system of febrile action and feculent obstructions, as to produce a most delightful sense of convalescence in the morning; and though the usual symptoms of a cold should partially return during the day repetition of a suitable dose at the next hour of bed-time will almost invariably effect permanent relief, without further aid. Their effect upon fevers of a more acute and violent kind is not less sure and speedy, if taken in proportionable quantity; and persons retiring to bed with inflammatory symptoms of the most alarming kind, will awake with the gratifying consciousness that the fierce enemy has been overthrown, and can easily be subdued. In the same way, visceral turgescence, tho' long established, and visceral inflammations, however critical, will yield—the former to small and the latter to large doses of the

LIFE PILLS;

And so also hysterical affections, hypochondriacism, restlessness and very many other varieties of the Neurotical class of diseases, yield to the efficacy of the Phenix Bitters.

PETERS' PILLS

PUBLIC OPINION has placed these well-known Pills at the head of American Patent Medicines, and the great demand for them throughout Europe, and the counterfeits which have been made of them in both England and France, fully prove that their virtues are extensively appreciated on the other side of the Atlantic. And this popularity is not an ephemeral one, resting upon the purchased eulogy of the proprietor; but is the natural effect of the intrinsic merits of the pills themselves, and therefore must be permanent. Has been so great as not only to place them beyond the need of puffery, but to render a supply impossible; as Dr. Peters will on no account permit a single pill to leave his laboratory, that has not been compounded under his own immediate inspection.

Dr. Peters' Pills

Are purely vegetable, and are so free from any mixture of a deleterious nature as to be impervious to the changes of time or climate, which gives them an immense advantage over the majority of medicines; especially with persons who travel, or have to locate themselves in distant countries. Thus they will be found equally beneficial in the Torrid zone; and it is an actual fact, that (owing to their salubrious influence on the blood) they are considered powerfully efficacious on the usual complaints of those diametrically opposite climates.

The proprietor had flattered himself when he issued his last pamphlet, that he could effect no further improvement in the manufacture of his pills; but he has now to state that in this he was deceived, as he has made two improvements, which greatly enhance their value. These are produced by his two newly invented, and patented machines, the one for making, and the other for counting globular substances; the former of which turns out the pills perfectly smooth and round, which render them much easier to swallow than any that have been previously manufactured; and the latter counts them without in any way effecting their shape, which cannot be the case when they are passed into their boxes by the fingers; and the proprietor would here impress this fact upon the public, that at no time is the hand or fingers made use of in the preparation of his medicine, which ensures its freedom from impurities that it might otherwise inhale from the human flesh. Independent of this, the manufacturing machine, by its great weight, and immense rapidity, mixes, and generalizes the component parts of the medicine much more effectually than the old fashioned grooved plates; and again, the former is composed of steel, while the latter is always made of brass, which gives a decided advantage to the new invention, as the one possesses many medicinal virtues, while the other is pregnant of properties injurious to the human health. The above machines have excited a great deal of attention in New York, as they save the labor of thirty persons; and it is probable the former may supersede the necessity of the shot tower. And the proprietor has the pleasure to add that they were honored with no less than three prizes at the Fair of the American Institute; namely, a gold and a silver medal, and a diploma.

By their almost miraculous effect upon the chyle, which is the fountain head of health and disease, Dr. PETERS' PILLS may be justly considered a universal medicine, but they are peculiarly beneficial in the following complaints:—Bilious Fevers, Fever and Ague, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Sick Headache, Jaundice, Asthma, Dropsy, Rheumatism, Enlargement of the Spleen, Piles, Colic, Femal Obstructions, Heart Burn, Furred tongue, Nausea, Distention of the Stomach and Bowels, Incipient Diarrhoea, Flatulence, Habitual Costiveness, Loss of Appetite, Blatched, or Sallow Complexion, and in all cases of Torpor of the Bowels, where a Cathartic or an Aperient is needed. They are exceedingly mild in their operation, producing neither nausea, griping, nor debility.

Extract from a letter by Dr. Hopsan, of Bangor, Maine, Jan. 1838.
 "They are a peculiarly mild, yet efficient purgative medicine; and produce little, if any griping or nausea. I have prescribed them with much success in sick headaches and slight bilious fevers."
 Extract of a letter from Dr. Pye, of Quebec, L. C., March 6, 1837.
 "For bilious fevers, sick headaches, torpidity of the bowels, and enlargement of the spleen, Dr. Peters' Pills are an excellent medicine."

To all whom it may concern.

WE have been lately asked much to our surprise, "if we were going to break up our business at the Falls." We cannot conceive how such a report could get out, unless it was by some person who could not understand what was meant by having our establishment incorporated as the

ROCKY MOUNT Manufacturing Company,

And thought it must be breaking up the whole concern. We have deemed it proper to say, to prevent our friends at a distance from being misled by such a report, that instead of breaking up we are preparing to enlarge and carry on our business more extensively than ever, and that the prospects of success in our business have never been so encouraging, nor has its profits ever been greater than at present.
