and make the altack; but Mir. S. came in the back door, which frustrated the plan.
They went into the basement story, and Mr. S. entered into familiar conversation about the house, remarked to him that he was going along well, and would soon be through, &e, but seemed to keep his ey a mallet. Thev passed into the 1st story, and there Robinson said 10 Mr. S anat his wife had gone out for pen and ink and would soon return. Mr S. replied, "!'ll walk out a few minutes and return a gain, by that time she may be in," and ad vanced to the door! Robinson stepped be hind him and struck the blow with the mallet which threw of his hat and brough malm on his hands and knees-a second
