

TARBOROUGH!
SATURDAY, JANUARY 21, 1843.

The Gainesville (Ala.) Pilot of the 7th inst. contains the following notice of the sudden and melancholy death of Mr. Thomas Amason, formerly of this county.

Fatal Accident.—On the evening of the 4th instant, Mr. Thomas Amason, returning from this place to his residence near Jameston in this County, was thrown from his horse and so badly injured that he died almost immediately.

Mr. Amason was a most worthy and much esteemed citizen; and his death makes a void in the circle of his friends and acquaintances and in his numerous family, that will long be felt and mourned.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Several members have passed thro' this place on their return home, from whom we learn that the Legislature was to have adjourned yesterday, but that probably it might not adjourn for several days. We also understood that none of the measures proposed for regulating bank affairs would probably be adopted, nor none of the relief projects to make money more plenty, or to prevent the collection of debts. We perhaps may be enabled to insert in our next paper the Captions of the laws passed at the present sitting.

SENATE.

Since our last, the Senate has been principally engaged with various relief measures and maturing private bills.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

This body has been mostly occupied in debating Mr. Francis's instruction resolutions.

On the 17th inst. the bill directing the investment of a portion of the Literary Fund, to prevent the faith of the State from being tarnished by endorsing bonds for the Wilmington and Raleigh Rail Road Company, was taken up on its third reading.

Mr. Barnes, of Edgecombe, moved the following amendment:

Be it further enacted, That the Governor of this State be, and he is hereby directed, in case the said Company shall not pay the bonds herein authorized to be invested, on or before the first day of June next; to institute proceedings to foreclose the mortgage heretofore given to the State by the said Company, according to the provisions of the act of last Session, entitled an act for the relief of the Wilmington and Raleigh Rail Road Company.

Mr. Patterson supported the amendment, and Messrs Avery and Caldwell opposed it; and the amendment was rejected by a vote of 83 to 23.

The bill then passed its third reading, and was ordered to be engrossed.

Gov. Morehead has summoned his Council to convene in this City, on the 9th day of February, to advise with him in the appointment of members of the Literary and Internal Improvement Boards.

Col. Wheeler having executed a new Bond; and the same having been approved both by the Speakers and the Governor, has entered upon the duties of his office.

James Watt, Esq., of Rockingham, has been elected a Councillor of State, to supply the vacancy occasioned by the refusal of Ex-Governor Speight, to accept the appointment recently conferred on him.

Raleigh Register.

A pretty concern.—It is ascertained by the committee appointed to investigate the transactions of the Literary Fund, that there are fifty one borrowers, forty-five of whom are "whigs," and six only are democrats. The forty-five "whigs" have borrowed $97,469, and the six democrats $11,486. Now is not this a pretty concern? Was ever such an instance known of unblushing favoritism. No wonder the whiggery strove to keep off the exposure.

Raleigh Standard.

Money Market.—We learn that there was a sale of 50 shares Bank of the State stock, last week, at $90 per share, on 90 days' time. Less than 12 months since this stock readily commanded 106 to '7, and now it is sold for 90—a depreciation of 16 to 17 per cent. A few weeks ago the Cape Fear Bank stock sold at public auction, in this place, for $78, at 3 months credit, and less than 12 months ago it commanded $100 per share—a depreciation of 22 per cent. So the holders of Bank stock have their property depreciated by the depression of business, as well as the holders of all other kinds of property.—ib.

Wilmington Messenger.—We have received the second number of the Messenger, published in Wilmington in this State, by Mr. Wm. J. Price. It is a democratic paper, and gives indications of being a powerful auxiliary in the good cause. It is among the largest papers in the State, and the typographical execution is good. We regret that we did not come across the Prospectus of the Messenger, till our columns had been too much crowded to admit of its insertion in the Standard, in season to answer any valuable purpose. But the paper will go forth and recommend itself to the patronage of the Democracy of the State.—ib.

Marcus Morton is elected to the Senate of Massachusetts by a vote of 27 to 11, over the late "whig" incumbent, John Davis.—ib.

We regret to see announced, in the Richmond Compiler of the 20th inst. the death of Mr. T. W. White, editor of the Southern Literary Messenger. He died on the morning of the 18th, in the 55th year of his age, of a second attack of paralysis. He was a man of most excellent private character. The great services he has rendered Southern Literature, are too well known and appreciated to require encomium from us.—ib.

Congress.—In the Senate, the Oregon bill—and in the House, the Army appropriation bill—are the principal objects under consideration.

We find the following article in the last Washington Republican:—

To the Democrats of the Eighth (formerly the third) Congressional District.—Now that the Legislature have arranged the Congressional Districts of the State, it becomes the Democratic party in this Congressional District to fix its eye upon some one of its members who will be most likely to lead it to victory on the first Thursday of August next.—This is the ready suggestion of the party's interest and duty. It is not too soon for a proper person to have possession of our standard in this District.—Let us again begin to unfurl our banner to the "wild winds free." It is time to do so; and when the fact is duly considered that the great bulk of the Democratic party in this District, are desirous to run as its next Candidate for Congress, a man whom, while he has done as much for our party as any person in Eastern Carolina, is so highly calculated to inspire it with unity and ardor during an electioneering contest; when it is borne in mind that this man has no superior in the District, in all those moral and intellectual qualifications that make up the prominent statesman; and especially when the fact is duly regarded that so fully and unequivocally is the sentiment of his party in his favour as to dispense with all party nominations; we say when these things are duly considered, it is our duty to let the public at large know, through the press, the name and pretensions of this gentleman.

Shall it be asked who he is? Your understanding and observation well know the man whom we would mention in responding to this question. Most of you anticipate the man to whom we allude, and will corroborate our statement; and say with us, that if a thorough acquaintance with the principles of our party, and an unwavering attachment in the most critical periods to the doctrines and practices of a pure Republicanism—if a long series of years of constant toil, in advocating, without fear or favour, the cause of freedom and his country—if a mind bold, original, comprehensive, and statesman-like—if a man, high minded and magnanimous, incapable of the littleness of petty party intrigues, or the juggling game of policy!—a man whose private life (a rare thing among politicians,) is unspiced by the breath of calumny—if a deep and absorbing sympathy with the great mass of the people, (rendered so doubtless, from the fact of his having lived among them once a poor boy, struggling with the remorseless chains of poverty)—if a man in short whose pure patriotism, splendid talents, and private worth have long challenged the approbation of his fellow citizens: if these facts are worthy of notice, and if one possessing such claims and qualifications as these be the people's choice, then that choice will at once single out HENRY I. TOOLE, Esq., of Pitt County, as our next Democratic Candidate for Congress from this District.

Mr. Toole clearly and decidedly stands first in the gratitude and preferences of the Democracy of the District. This is a truth of which none need doubt. We utter it after much knowledge and long observation on the subject, and after a ready willingness to do full justice towards other prominent Democrats in the District. This preference springs from a noble impulse to reward an ardent and faithful patriot—who has been labouring day and night for what he believes to be the people's best interest, ever since he arrived at the age of discretion. For nearly as long, these patriotic toils have emptied torrents of unjust wrath and thunder storms of political hostility upon him. Every arrow in the quiver of detraction has been for a long, long time hurled against him.—True, his conscious rectitude and high souled magnanimity have caused him to disregard them, as they have fallen harmlessly at his feet; but ought not his character to be more fully and publicly vindicated from such a long and unremitted series of political persecutions? Nothing short of an election to Congress would constitute a proper vindication. The Democracy know this; hence their preference for him, and long existing desire to see him on the broad theatre of our National Hall of Representatives. This patriotic wish is growing warmer and warmer. It spreads constantly, and burns with more and more intensity. Like the approaching spring, it begins to put forth buds of richest promise of a fruitful and glorious August harvest. Mr. Toole is deeply seated in the confidence and admiration of the Democracy of the whole country, especially that of the South. He is known far and wide as a bold and gallant defender of our principles, as a firm and able pillar of the South; hence the Democratic party in this State are anxious to have him in Congress. They are not only anxious to have the aid of his superior talents there, but have also an eye single to the vindication of his character and conduct from the long political ill-treatment and suffering which he has had to bear in battling for equal rights. Go where you may, in any part of this State especially, and the uniform declarations of prominent and disinterested Democrats when he is alluded to are, "Toole ought to be in Congress. There is no one whom we are more anxious to see there than him. He fully deserves it. We want him there." Such being the sentiment towards him of the party in general, is it not right that he should be, and is it not plain that he is, the choice of this great party's fragment embraced by this District? How was it at the last hurried Congressional election? That election shows his popularity, and the uselessness of party nominations this time. During that occasion, most of you well know that notwithstanding and in the face of his positive and published refusal to be a Candidate, the Democrats of this District spontaneously, and especially in the noble County of Edgecombe, where he was born and raised, threw their votes away upon him. So will it be this time, with the probable exception, that your votes instead of being thrown away, will place him in Congress. Mr. Toole's pretensions have only been partially set forth in this introductory communication. We have only very briefly alluded to his abilities, sacrifices, and services. Space will not allow us to do him justice at present. He has troops of friends all "good and true," who will rally around him with a warm and unflinching spirit in the coming election. That election will prove to all, that he is the choice of the people of the District, as he is truly that of the freemen of Flour was selling from the wagons at Cincinnati on the 7th inst. at $2 62.

Foreign.

Late from Europe.—London dated 15 December 14th, and Liverpool to the 15th, have been received in New York. They are said to contain no political news of importance. Cotton was in much less demand in the Liverpool market; and had declined one eighth of a penny per pound. The London Shipping List of Dec. 10th, says: "Letters from the American cotton planters in Bengal state the complete failure in the experiments to grow that commodity in that locality. The hot winds and bad climate appear the preventives."

DIED.

In this county, on Tuesday last, after a lingering illness, in the 65th year of his age, Elder Joshua Lawrence, of the Baptist denomination. The deceased has occupied for a long period a prominent station in public estimation as an eminent divine, and we trust some one of his religious brethren will furnish for publication a suitable obituary notice of his much lamented death.

In Tusculumbia, Alabama, on Monday, the 2nd January, inst., Mrs. Harriet Bell, consort of Capt. J. J. Bell, and daughter of the late Col. Thomas Aldridge, aged 43 years.

In the death of this excellent lady, a large circle of relatives have lost one whom they were accustomed to regard as a mother, and who cherished towards them feelings of truly maternal solicitude & care. Mrs. B. possessed many amiable qualities, which deservedly endeared her to her numerous warmly attached friends. Perhaps, there never was a more obliging neighbor, and of her it may be truly said that she had much of the "milk of human kindness." Her ear was ever open to the tale of sorrow, and her heart was ever ready to sympathize with, and according to her ability, to provide for those in distress and affliction. For many years she was a member of the Presbyterian church in this place, and departed this life in the confidence of glorious and immortal hopes, having renounced all dependence on self, and trusting entirely to the merits of another, even Jesus Christ.

When by the bed of languishment we sit, Or, o'er our dying friends in anguish hang, Wipe the cold dew, or stay the sinking head, Number their moments, and, in every clock, Start at the voice of an eternity; See the dim lamp of life just feebly lift An agonizing beam, at us to gaze, Then sink again, and quiver into death, That most pathetic herald of our own; How read we such sad scenes! As sent to man In perfect vengeance! No: in pity sent, To melt him down, like wax, and then impress, Indelible, death's image on his heart. Franklin (Ala.) Democrat.

Health and long life.

THE immense number of letters which Dr. Moffat has received, and is daily receiving from individuals in different parts of the Union, in testimony of the excellent virtues of the Life Pills and Phoenix Bitters, precludes the possibility of his laying them before the public in a printed form. The Life Medicines Have in many cases been recommended and used by physicians. They have stood the severest test, and proved the most unfailling remedy ever offered to the sufferer, under almost every disease. As a general family medicine they are most invaluable. The Life Medicines have been used with success in almost every disease to which mankind is liable, and for bilious and liver complaints, with their many well known attendants, bilious and sick headache, pain and oppression after meals, giddiness, dizziness, singing noise in the head and ears, drowsiness, heartburn, loss of appetite, wind, spasms, &c.; they are acknowledged to be vastly superior to any thing ever before offered to the public, and for those of a full habit of body, they will prove invaluable; while as a general family aperient, for either sex, they cannot fail to ensure the universal satisfaction. The efficacy of the LIFE PILLS And Phoenix Bitters Is most certain, if freely given on the attack of fever, influenza, measles, sore throat, recent colds, with cough, and other inflammatory disorders. In rheumatism and chronic complaints they have also performed the most extraordinary cures, when used with perseverance. Since the first introduction of Dr. Moffat's Life Medicines to his fellow citizens, they have in every case, fully maintained the high character they so well deserved. Patients who had for years drawn on a miserable existence, and many who had lost the use of their limbs by rheumatism and paralysis, have been restored to health, strength and comfort, after the usual remedies had been found useless. Its astonishing and almost miraculous effects have also been experienced, in the cure of nervous and rheumatic pains of the head and face, paralytic affections, contracted and stiff joints, glandular swellings, pains of the chest and bones, chronic rheumatism, palpitation of the heart, difficult respiration, &c. Complaints arising from a vitiated state of the blood are easily subdued by the powerful efficacy of these mild and salutary medicines. In addition to the numerous testimonials in their favor, which accompany the above medicines, many references in this vicinity of their beneficial effects can be given on application to the subscriber, who offers them for sale. GEO. HOWARD, Agent. Tarboro', January 17, 1843.
