

TARBOROUGH:

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1843.

The attention of the reader is directed to the first page of this paper, for several interesting political articles.

Edgecombe Whiggery.

We understand that the Whigs of Edgecombe, nine in number, held a Convention here on Tuesday last.

When six of them met at Sparta last spring, on the subject of the Congressional campaign, they called it "a Consultation," now nine constitute a Convention. They have risen at least in their titles, if they have not in the odor of their resolutions.

The "Consultation" then recommended Stanly for Congress. The Convention now, recommend him for Governor. For the first, Stanly, after unprecedented exertions of himself and the whole six, successfully "gained a minority of votes." And we will now see if with the help of the whole nine, he can even gain a nomination in the gubernatorial race.

Mr. Stanly's solicitude about the matter is so great that he will attend in person on the great Whig Convention in Raleigh, to unite his influence with that of his cousin George E. Badger, to manage and control its action. And the nine Whigs who recommend him from Edgecombe, are in that Convention from its organization to have the influence of the large vote of this county. A little thimble-full of Whigs here, to have the same influence as the large whig counties.

And what is most absurd, the large Democratic vote of Edgecombe, which has hurled its indignant thunders at Stanly and trampled him in the very dust, is made to speak its loud voice through these nine Whigs, upon the representative principle of the Convention, in favor of this very Stanly.

The Whigs of Edgecombe may hug Mr. Stanly with serpentine delusion to their own bosoms, but they should beware how they recommend him to their brother Whigs. If experience has any virtue, they should be candid, and proclaim it to their brethren. We need not remind them of this, their memory can need no refreshing. The Democracy of North Carolina, can no more have Edward Stanly forced on them, than could the 8th Congressional district.

But perhaps it were prudent for us to withhold our sentiments for the present. But we were so much astonished at the recommendation of Edgecombe of Stanly, that we had to "out with it," and let them gull their brethren if they can. They seem to have assumed the nature as well as name of econs, and are introducing into common use his skulking predatory habits. They will again attempt the great humbuggery of 1840. But we have a strong Democratic belief in the "sober second thought." 'Tis the rock of our salvation from the political humbugs which have been and are again to be proclaimed through the land to seduce the unsuspecting multitude into the snares of a few hungry coons.

Stanlyism in his own district.

We understand that the Whig meeting in Washington county, had quite "a flare up," from an attempt of one of the youngsters of the party to induce them to recommend Mr. Stanly for Governor. Mr. Jos Collins, chairman of the committee who reported the resolutions, recommended in his resolutions no preference to be indicated among the multitude of aspirants, and enforced his motion by cogent and very prudent remarks, urging it as the policy of the party to discard all personal preferences for party good. On the contrary, Mr. Jones, a young scion of the extensive family of Jones's somewhere thereabouts, raised the old cry of "On, Stanly, on," and at tempted by something like a splurge, to keep up the delusion which has so long blinded the population of that county, that Ed. Stanly was the only great man in the Whig ranks.

But they seem to have opened their eyes on the extent of his greatness and "gallantry," and are willing at least to look around for stronger candidates for Governor from their ranks, and be no longer chained to the car of the "conqueror," for they gave no support to the Stanly resolution.

They were honest and kind in not recommending their brethren to take up a hot iron, which had burnt their own hands.

FOR THE TARBORO' PRESS.

EDGE'OMBE COUNTY.

According to previous notice, on Tuesday, the 28th day of Nov. it being County Court week, a portion of the Democracy of Edgecombe met in the Court House in Tarboro'—and, on motion of Wm. Thigpen, Jesse C Knight, Esq. was unanimously called to the Chair, and John P. Sharpe appointed Secretary.

Col. Asa Biggs being called on by the Chair, delivered a neat and pertinent Address, explaining the objects of the meeting, and touching on the various political topics of the day, in a masterly manner.

J. J. Pippen, Esq. then moved that the Chair appoint a committee of five, to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting—whereupon Messrs. Henry T. Clark, J. J. Pippen, Dr. P. Sugg, Herman Ward, and Lunsford R. Cherry, were appointed said committee.

The Committee after retiring a short time, reported the following resolutions, through Henry T. Clark, Esq. which were unanimously adopted:—

The Democrats of Edgecombe approve of the Convention to be held in Raleigh and Baltimore, to secure union and harmony and to select candidates for the support of the party.

Resolved, that we recognize as the Democratic creed, a strict adherence to the constitution—A separation of the Government from the Banks—Opposition to all Tariffs and taxes, except such as are laid for revenue and the necessary expenses of Government—Opposition to any distribution of the public moneys, which are raised by land sales or otherwise—Opposition to all repudiation of honest debts by the Bankrupt Laws of the General Government or by State Legislatures—Economy in public expenditures—And a strict accountability of all public officers. And having full confidence that the Democratic Convention will recommend to our support only "good and true" men, who will faithfully carry out these principles, we hereby waive all personal preferences and agree to support the nominees of the Baltimore Convention for President and Vice President, and of the Raleigh Convention for Governor.

Resolved 2nd, that to secure a proper representation of this county in the State Convention at Raleigh, that 34 delegates be appointed and that the Chairman is authorized to appoint them.

Resolved 3rd, That the Chairman name 17 delegates to attend the district Convention, for this the 8th Congressional District, to nominate a delegate to the Baltimore Convention, as suggested by our Democratic brethren of Craven.

In compliance with the above resolutions, the Chairman appointed the following delegates to the Raleigh Convention: Geo. L. D. Wilson, E. D. Maenair, Wm. Norfleet, R. H. Austin, C. G. Hunter, R. E. Maenair, R. R. Bridgers, Jesse Bullock, Ep. Armstrong, M. Williford, Wm. J. Armstrong, Gen. Joshua Barnes, J. G. Williams, Gen. Wyatt Moyer, Col. R. Bynum, B. Sykes, Wm. Hines, Dr. P. Sugg, S. L. Hart, R. D. Wimberley, Jesse Mercer, Dr. T. N. Mercer, D. G. Baker, Wm. Thigpen, H. Ward, B. Batts, Col. C. Mabry, Blair Bryan, Maj. L. R. Cherry, J. J. B. Pender, James S. Battle, T. L. Manner, H. Pitt, J. P. Sharpe—and to attend the District Convention at Washington: Wm. F. Dancy, John Norfleet, L. L. Dancy, James S. Battle, Wm. D. Petway, John Bridgers, Gen. Wyatt Moyer, Lewis Belcher, Dr. P. Sugg, L. C. Pender, Col. Wm. Hines, K. Thigpen, S. F. Braddy, P. McDowell, Wm. E. Bellamy, D. C. Barlow, Col. C. B. Killebrew. If any person named in the above list cannot attend, he is requested to notify the Chairman in time to appoint a substitute, or furnish one himself.

On motion, the Chairman was added to the delegates to the District Convention.

On motion, resolved, that the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Tarboro' Press, Washington Republican, Raleigh Standard and Signal, and that the other Democratic papers of the State be requested to copy the same.

On motion, the thanks of the meeting were tendered to the Chairman and Secretary, for the faithful discharge of their duties.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.
J. C. KNIGHT, Chr'n.
John P. Sharpe, Sec'y.
