DR. H. T. BASS Offers his professional services to the citi-ezus of Tarboro and vicinity. Office in T. A. McNair's drug store on Main FRANK NASH, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

TARBORO, N. C. Practices in all the Courts, State and Fed-J. J. MARTIN. Martin & Sharpe.

Attorneys - at - Law, TARBORO, N. C. Practice in the Courte, State and Federal. dec-5-82 ly

DONNELL GILLIAM H. A. GILLIAM. GILLIAM & SON. Attorneys at Law. Will practice in the Counties of Edgecombe, Halifax and Pitt, and in the Courts of the First Judicial District, and in the Circuit and Supreme Courts at Raleigh. jan18-1y.

DOSSEY BATTLE, Attorney at Law TARBORO' & ROCKY MOUNT, N. C. Practices is the Courts of Edgecombe

Nash. Pitt, Wilson and Hallfax counties
Also in the Federal and Supreme Courts.

Collections a specialty.

HOFFICE, for the present, in front room of andge Heward's law office, next door to ew sters of $. S. Nash & Co., on Main St.

Dec. 15, 1851. CEORGE HOWARD, Atterney and Counselor at Law. TARBORC N. C.

Precises in all the Courts, State and DR. I. M. CARR,

Surgeon Dentist, TARBORO, N. C. Office hours, from 9 a. m. 'till 1 p. m. and

Next door to Tarboro House, over The Mot Refreshing Bevmuler & Royster's. THOS. H. BATTLE, TARBORO, N. C. Office next to Philips & Staton's Law office.

Will practice in the Federal and State Courts.
Refers by express permission to Judge Ruffin, of the Supreme Court; Citizens National Bank, of Raleigh; Battle, Bann & Co., Norfolk; Jno. Arrington & Sons, Petersburg.
d31-6m

THE Pender School, Mrs. Gen'l. Pender, Principal.

resumed after the Christmas Holidays WEDNESDAY, JANUARY SED. is the Bridgers' Grove property, lately oc-eupied by the Edgecombe High School, with increased facilities for conducting as good a Strictly Female School as can be found anywhere. The Second Term for the first scholastic year will begin on MONDAY, FEBRUARY 12TH.

For particulars, aderess the Principal. BOARDING. MRS. J. G. CMARLES having taken the Bank building, on the Corner of Trade and Pitt streets, is now prepared to take boarders. Tarboro', N. C., January 11th, 1883. J. L. SAVAGE.

LIVERY, SALE, EXCHANGE AND FEED STABLES. CORNER GRANVILLE & ST. ANDREW STREETS, TARBORO', N. C.

These Stables are the largest in the State. and have a capacity of holding ten car-loads of stocks Give him a call. janisy Geo. Howard Prest. Wm. M. Pippen, Vice Pres

The Pamico Insurance & Banking Co. (BANKING DEPARTMENT.) Bank open from D A. M. to 3 P. M. Discount Day, Thusbay.

DIRECTORS : Dr. J. H. Baker, Geo. Howard, H. L. Staton, Jr., W. M. Pippen, H. Morris. Dec. 18-1y.

JOHN R. DIXON I b at the old stand of Ka Tin & Bros., while he blows his norn no is always prepared to serve you with the purest BAU DE FIE and the best flavored CIGARS. J. R. DIXÓN.

Opposite Court House.

Rocky Mount Mills

WILLIAMSON

-: AND DEALER IN:-Saddles, Bridles, Robes, Whips, Halters, Blankets, &c. AP-OPPOSITE COURT-HOUSE, CA TARBORO', N. C.

$1500 per year can be easily made at home, working for E. G. Ridcout & Co., 10 Barelay Street, New York. Send for their catalogue and full particulars.

1883.

E GREETINGS! Austin's Brick Store, two doors from ny old stand, a well selected stock of $$655555555555555555555555

Hardware. Notions, Groceries, | Provisions

And Farm Supplies,

And Bought for Cash.

T. H. Gatlin.

Tarboro, Jan. 12-ly.

erage Known. Attorney - at - Law, Doctors Recom'end It G. OPPENHRIMER & SON BZER BOTTLERS,

The Trade Supplied at our Establishment, Next Door to Court House.

Orders by mail, from any part of th State, promptly attended to. Will have a supply of "Buck Beer 'in season.

Tarbore, N. C., April 13, 1888

TOBACCOS,
CIGARS,
WHISKIES,
BRANDIES,
WINES, &C

Also a fine line of Family Groceries Having opened a Grocery and Bar, next door to R. C. Brown & Co's, we invite all our friends to give us a liberal share of their pat-ronage. We will try and please.

PARKER & DAWSON. Tarboro', N. C., Jany 18, 83ly

Are upon us, but there is a rift in the cloud full of promise to those who

TRADE WITH FUNITIFE!

T. E. LEWIS,

=FANCY GROCERIES=

Has not been allowed to run ARB in full and successful operation, and A are prepared to all all orders for Sheetlings, Yarms and Cotton Rope, at lowest prices.

Orders addressed to Rocky Mount Mills, Rocky Mount, N. C., will be promptly attended to.

Only the

LEWIS' is the place for those who have little mony, but want it to go a LONG WAY.

Only the

Pamlico Banking Co.

Best Goods Are Kept and they are CHEAP.

If you are not convinced of these facts, call and examine, or inquire of the multitude who daily trade.

T. E. LEWIS Main St., 2 doors above Pender's

GREGORY HOUSE The Gregory Hotel, known as Bryan Hous in full operation, doing good business, will be sold on favorable terms. Feby, 21st 1883.

GEO. HOWARD. MULES! MULES! On Tuesday next, the 27th day of February 1883, we will sell at the Court House door in Costivenes. Chronic Diar rhos, Jaundies, Impurity of the Blood, Fever and ingement of Liver, Bowels and Kidneys. SYMPTOME OF A DISEASED LIVER.

Bad Breath; Pain in the Side, sometimes the pain is felt under the Shoulder-blade, mistaken for Rheumatrin; general loss of appetite; Bowels generally costive, sometimes alternating with lax; the head is troubled with pain, is dull and heavy, with considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful semastion of leaving undone something which ought to have been done; a slight, dry cough and flushed face is sometimes an attendant, often mistaken for consumption: the patient complains and Sushed face is sometimes an attendant, often mistaken for consumption; the patient complains of weariness and debility; nervous, easily startiled; feet cold or burning, sometimes a prickly sensation of the skin exists; spirits are low and despondent, and, although satisfied that exercise would be beneficial, yet one can hardly summon up fortitude to try it—in fact, distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred when but few of them existed, yet examination after death has shown the Lawer to have been extensively deranged.

It should be used by all persons, old and young, whenever any of the above symptoms appear.

Persons Traveling or Living in Un-healthy Localities, by taking a dose occasion-ally to keep the Liver in healthy action, will avoid all Malaria, Millous attacks, Dizzines, Nau-sea, Drowstesse, Depression of Spirits, etc. It will invigorate like a glass of wine, but is no in-toxicating beverage. If You have eaten anything hard of digestion, or feel heavy after meals, or steep-less at night, take a dose and you will be relieved.

Time and Doctors' Bills will be saved by always keeping the Regulator in the House!

For, whatever the aimest may be, a theroughly safe purguitve, alternative and tonic can never be out of place. The remedy is harmless and does not interfere with business or

IT IS PURELY VEGETABLE, And has all the power and efficacy of Calome Quinine, without any of the injurious after effe A Governor's Testimony.

Simmons Liver Regulator has been in use in my family for some time, and I am satisfied it is a valuable addition to the medical science.

J. Gill. Shoarks, Governor of Ala.

Hos. Alexander H. Stephens, of Ga., says: Have derived some benefit from the use of Simmons Liver Regulator, and wish to give it a further total.

further trial.

"The only Thing that never falls to Believe."—I have used many remedies for Dyspepsia, Liver Affection and Debility, but never have found anything to benefit me to the cettent Simmons Liver Regulator has. I sent from Minnesota to Georgia for it, and would send further for such a medicine, and would navise all who are simularly affected to give it a trial as it seems the only thing that never fails to relieve.

P. M. JANKEY, Minneapolis, Minn.
Dr. T. W. Mason caret. For each of the property Dr. T. W. Mason says: From actual ex-perience in the use of Simmons Liver Regulator in Take only the Gennine, which always has on the Wrapper the red Z Trade-Mark and Signature of J. H. ZEILIN & CO. FOR SALE BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

SOL.WOOLARD.

"Don't You Forget It," that I have one of the finest stocks of GRO-CERIES, &c., ever offered to the trade in this Country Merchants

are requested to examine MY PRICES.

I HAVE IN STOCK 125 Barrels of Flour, different grades.

125 Bags Coffee Barrels of Sugar.

100 Boxes of Tobacco, bought before the 100 Boxes and Barrels of Crackers and Cakes. I am agent for the manufacturers and offer these goods at manufacturer's prices.

50 Barrels of Mott's Champagne Cider, sold at the mill price. The trade can save freight by buying of me. SOL. WOOLARD,

Next to R. C. Brown & Co., TARBORO', N. C

Undertaking

B. C. Carlile,

HAS ON HAND NEW, FRESH STOCK OF

Furniture

B ught for Cash, which he offers at moderate prices.

Furniture of all Kinds Repaired COFFINS, CASKETS AND UN-DERTAKING GENERALLY. Patronage solicited.

Tarboro, Fb. 26, 1882: 3' ORG ANS 27 Stops 10 Set reeds only $90, Planes $125 Idas inducements ready. Write o onl Beatty, Washington, N. J.

B. C. CARLILE.

Carboro Sontherner. through the vine leaves. "Oh, papa, you are such a dar-ling!" she said.

IN THE HARBOR. HENRY WADSWORTH LONGFELLOW. When I compare
What I have lost with what I have gained,
What I have missed with what I've attained
Little room do I find for pride.

I am aware How many days have been idly spent; How like an arrow the good intent Has fallen short, or been turned aside. But who shall dare To measure loss and gain in this wise? Defeat may be victory in disguise; The lowest ebb is the turn of the tide.

A Lesson in Economy.

Milly Barrington was only 18 when he came to live at Holly Lodge. Very young to be married, said the gossips of the neighborhood: still ounger to assume all the cares and sponsibilities of the household And there were not liking diverse doleful prophets, who declared, with eyes rolled up and mouths drawn down, that Mrs. Barrington never would "get on" with the old colonel

"He is so fastidious," said one. "So difficult to suit," said another "His ideal is so impossibly high!" leclared a third.

But to their surprise-perhaps ittle to their disappointment—Milly and her father-in-law were the best of friends from the very first moment in which they looked upon each other's faces.

Milly was so anxious to learn, so ager to comprehend the ins and outs of the great, roomy old farmhouse, so ambitious to excel every house keep er in the neighborhood, that the old gentleman said, with a smile, to his

Don't let that little girl undertake too much, Dudley." And Dudley Barrington answered, vith a vawn :

"There's no danger of that, sir. The ladies of the Holly Lodge have always been first rate housekeepers. you know. And if a woman is at work, she isn't spending money foolishly, or gossiping."

- Col. Barrington's keen blue eyes regarded his son, sharp'y for a mo-

'Do you think Milly is addicted to either of those pernicious practices?" said he. They come natural to all women:

don't they ?' said Dudley, shrugging 'Not to all !' said the Colonel. And in his secret soul he wondered if Dudley were really worthy of such a jewel as Millicent, his wife.

So the weeks went on, and Milly stood bravely to her helm, until, one bright October day, the Colonel, chancing to pass the low kitchen window, where the hop vines made a screen of moving shadow, looked smillingly into where his daughter in law was at work. "Have you got a glass of cool milk for me, little girl?" said he.

Milly brought the milk promptly. "See, papa," she said, triumphantly pointing to the table, "what a baking I have done to day? Three apple pies, three loaves of bread, a pan of biscuit, a loaf of cup cake, and a dozen plumtarts!" "Bravo!" said the Colonel. "But Milly, why are you baking? Where is Hannah ?"

"Hannah wants her wages raised, said Milly, rather soberly. "And" Dudley said it was all nonsense keeping a girl, when I was so fond of housework. So she has gone."
"But are you fond of housework? asked the Colonel. "In itself, as an abstract thing. I mean ? "Yes, paps," Milly, answered with baking."

the father in-law. "But we mustn't thinking for some time that—that—
"Well," said the Colonel, encour aging...

"That I should like to ask you for little money," faltered Milly. "Money!" echoed Colonel Barrington, in surprise. "Doesn't Dudley give you want ?"

Once more Milly hesitated.
"He wants to know what everything is for,' said she. "He thinks rington & Co." fifty cents is too much for ribbon, be had cheaper than a quarter of a dollar, and he declares it's all nonsense to buy silk gloves when cotton will do as well. And I do need women don't know how to use money, needs as they occur.' and that a wife should always rehusband. And I tell you, papa, be | zed Milly.

Milly reached up to kiss him He only patted her cheek, in reply THURSDAY, MARCH 1, 1883.

Dudley don't know what a treas ure he has got," he pondered, as he kept on his walk up to the front verands, where a great maple tree was showing its yellow trophics over the steps, and the the balmy sun-shine elept on the painted floor. "He is making a Circassian slave out of And the colonel took his book, and stretched himself comfortably out in the hammock for his evening's rev It was the next day that his son came to him, in the library, where, a little fire of logs had been kindled for a chill northeast rain had blown the sun was obscured in the driving own offer. Isn't he kind !" "Well, my boy," said the colonel, patt kindly, "You are off for the city, I ly:

suppose !" "Yes, sir," said Mr. Barrington, jr. tall, straight, handsome young man, with a brown complexion, and sparkling eyes. "And before I go, perhaps you had better give me a cheque on the bank, if it's quite convenient." "A cheque!" said the colonel. "For what?" "I'm about out of ready cash. said Dudley, carelessly; "and a little spending money would come very handy for current expenses."

"Ah!" observed the colonel. "And what are you going to buy ?"

Dudley looked at his father in amazement "I need a full suit, sir," said be "Yes, yes!" nodded the old gentle man, "And how much de you pay for a full suit now ?"

"Oh, thirty-five or forty dollars ! answered Dudley. rather vague ?'

explained Dudley. 'Ah, but you ought to know!" interrupted the old gentleman. "And now I am on the subject, you, buy your clothes of Lanier, don't you? And arn't there cheaper places !"
"And," added Dudley, "I've a lit tle bill at the cigar store to settle, and there are some new books I should like to read ; and—" "Just send in the bills to me," said men have so many fictious wants him, that there was going to be a cat fight real quick. He come up to all the bills be sent to me. And as Colonel Barrington, gravely, "Young for spending money, here is enough:

for the present. He drew out a bank note, and somewhat discomfitted. "Did you ?" said Col. Barrington. "It isn't agreeable," to be put on such an allowance." went on Dudley. sharply. "I'm not accustomed to it.

"Not agreeable, eh? said the Col onel, comfortably adjusting his feet en an embroidered rest. "Then why do you practice the system with your head shone like a calcium light just =

"I give her all that she needs spend," said Dudley, coloring up. "And I have given you all that you eed," asserted Col. Barrington. "I am a man !" said Dudley.

"And she is a woman!" retorted he Colonel. "I am the manager of your down town ware house, and I claim honest remuneration as such," cried Dudley. "I am no beggar. There is no cent which I ask that I do not carn."

"That is Millicent's case exactly. said the wise old advocate. some hesitation. "But I'm a little does the work of the house and does tired this morning. I rose early and it well. She is an economist in every swept the house through before sense of the word. Is it right that breakfast, so as to have time for the she should receive merely her board and clothes ! Is she not entitled to "You are a good little girl," said a regular allowance to spend as she please? Do not think me a meddle some old fogy, my son," Col. Barring-ton added, rising and placing his "Papa," said Milly. with downcast lashes, and a deep pink shadow creep ing over her cheek. "T've been But I have been observing all these things, and I merely wanted to give you a personal application of this lesson in political economy. You see how it humiliates one to have to beg humbly for the money that one has honestly earned—to be called upon for an account of every penny one wishes to spend. Don't put your wife into such a false position as this. Treat her as one of the firm of Bar-

Dudley Barrington stood still a and he says bonnet frames ought to moment, pondering; and then he said earnestly: "I will, sir! You are right?" And Milly was delighted, that very day, to receive a check for an ample

"But I never had so much before ceive every cent she spends from her all at one time !" exclaimed the ama cause you are so kind to me-I am "No you never had, more shame as good fellows as ever melted the so ashamed to have him think me to me," acknowledged Dudley Bar- heart of a country trader to the merry boy who master a difficult A bee in a rosebud: Arthur Crav common stock." Milly clapped her hands joyously. and his cheek was as hard as last teacher in mathematics." He did year's cider. He was a book agent. my life?" said she. "Now I can Already had he gobbled up drummers greatest mathematician of his day, occurred to him.

And Milly ran eagerly to her fath. er-in law.

5C dollars a month, all for my own, and never give account of a cent of all the yellow maple leaves away, and it, unless I please! It is Dudley's And Col. Barrington smiled and patted her head, and answered grave-

THAT BAD BOY.

"What's your mother going to do with that three yards of court plaster I saw her buy this morning!" asked the grocer man of the bad boy. "O, I guess she is going to patch pa up so he will hold water. Pa's temper got him into the worst muss you ever see last night. You see, ps wants me to do all the work around the house. The other day he bought a load of kindling wood, and told me to carry it into the base. trait of the gifted author. Here you ment. I have not been educated up see a geneological abstract chart, in to kindling wood, and I didn't do it. which you can write the names of When supper time came, and pa your illustrious and beloved family—found that I had not carried in the births, marriages, deaths and—" kindling wood, he had a hot box, and he told me if that wood was not agent grasped him by the buttonhole. in when he came back from the lodge "Thirty five or forty dollars!"— in when he came back from the lodge choed Col. Barrington "Isn't that he would warm my jacket. I knew said enough to make you ache to trouble of rubbing them up with when pa came home he would search possess this beautiful volume, but I alcohol two or three times a "A fellow never knows exactly..." for me. So I slept in the back hall have not yet begun to on a cot. But I didn't want pa to have all his trouble for nothing, so I borrowed an old tom cat that my chum's old maid aunt owns, and put the cat in my bed. The cat isn't afraid of anything, and can whip a New Foundland dog quicker than on a cot. But I didn't want pa to New Foundland dog quicker than you could put sand in a barrel of sugar. Well, about 11 o'cleck I heard pa tumbling over the kindling wood, and I knew by the remark he "Biographical sketches of eminent men, glowing obituary, with an original poem on death, agricultural statistics, tables of mortality, valuable notes on in migration, trade reports, all the geological—" made, as the wood slid around under handed it to his son. Dudley stared at it in amazement. It was a one dollar bill.

"I expected a check, sir," said he room and watch the smile on his face stairs, and I could hear him breathbefore it explodes. Pa went in my room, and put to the bed, and I could hear him say, "Come out here and bring in that kindling wood, or I will start a fire on your base burner with this strap." And then there was a yowling such as I never heard before, and pa said, 'Helen Blazes;' and the furniture in my room began to fall around and break. O, my! I think pa took the tom cat right by the neck, the way he does me, and that left all the cat's free to get in their work. Pa's shirt was no protection at all in a cat fight, and the cat just walked all around pa's stomach, and pa yelled 'police' and 'fire,' and 'turn on the hose,' and he criled ma and the cat yowled. If pa had had presence of mind enough to have droped the cat, or rolled it up in the mattress, it would have been all right, but a man always gets rattled in time of danger, and he held on to the cat and started down the stairs yelling murder, and he met ma coming up. I guess ma's night cap, or something, frightened the cat some more, cause he stabbed ma on the night shirt with one hind foot, and ma said 'mercy on us,' and she went back, and pa stumbled on a they all fell down, and the cat got and got into my bed cause it was cold in the hall, and the cat had den seben or eight pussons!" warmed my bed as well as it had warmed ps. It was all I could do to go to sleep, with pa and ma talking

The Book Agent Beats the Bandit. Brown, Jones and Robinson, three extravagant, and I do really need so rington. "But I have come to the music of the plient chin, sat one even any little things that men haven't conclusion, Milly, that you are no ing last week in the smoking company idea of. It's a little hard some—child to be given a few cents at a partment of a chair-car on the Evans—motto in hand. When the famous pecially for you. It has provided a any idea of. It's a little hard sometime."

Colonel Barrington took a goodly roll of bills out of his pocket and laid them on the window sill.

"Here, little girl," he said; "you have earned them a dozen times, over!"

child to be given a few cents at a partment of a chair-car on the Evanstime. You are my little housekeeper ville and Terre Haute Western Railway. With them was a tall, thin, dyspeptic man with sandy hair, dressed in a rusty suit of black. Nature had at the beginning of every month, and the beginning of every month, and over!"

child to be given a few cents at a partment of a chair-car on the Evanstime. You are my little housekeeper ville and Terre Haute Western Railway. With them was a tall, thin, dyspeptic man with sandy hair, dressed one day he found on the waste leaf of the cover of his text book a short letter from D'Alembert to a youth discouraged like himself. The adoption of the cover of his text book a short letter from D'Alembert to a youth discouraged like himself. The adoption of the cover of his text book a short letter from D'Alembert to a youth discouraged like himself. The adoption of the cover of his text book a short letter from D'Alembert to a youth discouraged like himself. The adoption of the cover of his text book a short letter from D'Alembert to a youth discouraged like himself. The adoption of the cover of his text book a short letter from D'Alembert to a youth discouraged like himself. The adoption of the cover of his text book a short letter from D'Alembert to a youth discouraged like himself. The adoption of the cover of his text book a short letter from D'Alembert to a youth discouraged like himself. The adoption of the cover of his text book a short letter from D'Alembert to a youth discouraged like himself. The adoption of the cover of his text book a short letter from D'Alembert to a youth discouraged like himself. The adoption of the cover of his text book a short letter from D'Alembert to a youth discouraged like himself. The adoption of the cover of his text book THE BOMARO . HITT YET BY THE TOT YOU THE TABLE OF A PARCE JOH ses, of course, will be paid out of the grease to keep a soap-factory going "Go on, sir, go on," "That little for a menth. His mouth was of brase sentence," says Arago. "was my best dress like other women, and give a little money to the church, and help the poor, and feel independent! And I can lay up a little, too, Dudley, every month? Oh, you shall see what an excellent manager I can be!"

Dudley, Barrington looked at his Brown's soul sank into the heels of the "Life of Christ," and "Pocket by mastering one step at a time.

An Ocunce of Prevention.

Sometimes an ounce of prevention is worse than a pound of disease of the children can be t young wife with a sharp prick of his boots; beads of perspiration as conscience at his heart. Why had he big as snow balls stood on Jones classic face, while his hair lifted his paper, caught his trusty before? Simply because it had never hat two solid inches from the crown gun from the rack, and charged for of his head : Robinson murmured the first verse of Ever of Thee I'm Fondly Dreaming,' and thought he was praying. But the book agent bounded "Papa!" she cried, "I am to have from his seat with a glad smile and a "How do, stranger? Delighted to see you. Do let me show you my superb

'History of Boone County,' a perfect bonanza of domestic peace and happiness to every householder who is fortunate enough to possess one.

Three hundred pages of elegant letter press, printed on toned paper and "Very kind, indeed !" embellished with fine steel engravings and an official map of the State. A Drawing the Line Between Carrying carefully compiled, correct typographical and historical..."

"Shut up!" reared the bandit. "Shut up? You bet it will, and it fastens itself with a double action brass clasp-my own invention-and from its simplicity of design and beau-ty of finish, worth half the price of the book. Given away, sir; literally given away, for $3 in boards, or $4,50 in morocco, with beveled edges." "If you say-'

"I do say it, sir. Look at this exquisite title page with a vignette por-"Stop!" shricked the bandit, as the all the geological-"

whether Hennery had retired to his he wrested himself from the book awhen he tries to be. I could hear ed off the rear end of the car into the

as he dreams of angels. I yearn to ed big. Jones rolled his sleeves up. press him to my aching bosom.' I and asked where the villain was gone. thought to myself, mebbe you won't Brown fished a roll of bills from unyearn so much directly. He came up der the spittoon, and hoped they did stairs, and I could hear him breath not think he'd been scared. But the ing hard. I looked out around the agent sank wearily to his seat, and for the first time in all that long journey was silent for nearly four consecutive Marriage in Low Life. A young African by the name of Zeke, called on Rev. Whangdoodle Baxter, a few days ago, and informed congregation.

em as de generil run ob niggers." "Dat's what I'se gwine to find out.

How many gods am dey?" "Dar's only one God."
"Ebery fool nigger knows dat. I how many pussons"-

"How many pussons?" "Jes so. How many pussons?" "Well, parsan, lemme see," respond-ed Zeke, beginning to count them off hand-sled that was on the stairs, and on his fingers; "Dar's me an' de fare bride, dat makes one, as soon as we's away and went down in the coal bin married. Dar's de bride's mudder, away and went down in the coal bin and youled all night. Pa and ma went into their room, and I guess they anointed themselves with vaseline, and Pond's extract, and I went ask my ole mudder. I reckou, putand got into my bed cause it was tin' em all togedder, dar aint moah needn't give him credit for it on his

One Step at a Time.

another plume for my hat since the rain spoiled the canary colored one, but I don't like to ask him for it."

"Do you mean to say," said Colonel Barrington, leaning his elbows on the sill, "that you don't have a regular allowance every week!"

"No, papa!" said Milly lifting her prettily arched brows. Dudley says women don't know how to use money, "and spend it for your means don't know how to use money, "and spend it for your means don't know how to use money."

"I sit all for me?" she cried, with gall night and this moraing I came down the back stairs, and haven't been to breakfast, 'cause I don't height of 10,000 feet. It looked like at tremendous pull to the top. But I said to myself, "Oh, it will require but one step at a time!" Before sunset I stood on the summit, enjoying the magnifient view of the peaks wood."

"I once stood at the foot of a Swiss fers to the girl who kindled a fire with down the back stairs, and haven't been to breakfast, 'cause I don't was loaded," and the may he at the money for you?"

"So yeu have got twins at your house?" said Mrs. Bezümbe to little but one step at a time!" Before sunset I stood on the summit, enjoying the magnifient view of the peaks wood."

"Tommy Samuelson. "Yes, mam, two of 'em." "What are you going to call wood." around me, and right opposite to me them!" "Thunder and Lightning." fished the icy crown of the Weiss-horn, which Professor Tyndall was children." "Well, that's what Pa the first man to discover, by taking called them as soon as he heard they were in the house!" one step at a time.

Sometimes an ounce of prevention s worse than a pound of disease. One day last week the children came gun from the rack, and charged for the poultry yard. He ran right over a bee stand just the other side of the cypress bush, and was stung, in thirty places before he jumped over the fence of the poultry yard, alighting upon the old black hen that was brooding thirteen chicks, breaking her neck and mashing five hapless "weetles;" the gun caught in the fence as he jumped, and went off, killing a young turkey, and filling the Durham heifer in the meadow nearly full of buckshop; while the hawk, alone and self possessed in the midst of the tumult and confusion, sailed gracefully away with the one spring chicken he had all along in tended to levy on.

An Engagement Off. "So the engagement is broken off?" queried the first young lady as they sat down in the car.

"Yes. "And you have sent back all his etters?" "Every one."

"And the locket?" "Yes. "And the diamond ring?" "Yes." "I wouldn't have done it. I'd have cept the ring, anyhow." "Well, I did intend to, but the jeweler said the stopes were only

How to Handle a Liar. The only way to deal with a liar is to beat him at his own game. That is, of course, unless he is the editor of a pious newspaper. What started this item was reading about an American who had been to Europe, and who was telling a friend, who knew he was a liar, about his trip across the Atlantic, add how, on the 25th of the month "they encountered a swarm of locusts, and the locusts carried every stitch of the canvas off the ship." The listener looked thoughtful a moment, and then said, The listener looked hesitatingly: "Yes, I guess we met the same swarm of locusts the next day, the 26th. Every locusts had on a pair of canvas pants." The first liar went around the corner and kicked himself .- Peck's Sun.

Jeff. Davis on Southern Records. The coming of Gen. Fitzhugh Lee to New Orleans to lecture, was the occasion of the writing of a letter by Jeff. Davis, in which he said: "In few things do I feel a more cordial interest than in the success of the Southern Historical Society. It is a sacred duty to collect and preserve the evidence of the magnanimous conduct of our people in the defence of the rights of their fathers, secured by the war of the Revolution, and which the him that he (Zeke) contemplated early constitutional Union was formed not marriage, and he would be glad to to destroy, but to presdree. Though have him perform the ceremony, as unsuccessful in the effort to maintain he (Zeke) belonged to Whangdoodle's | those rights, the eternal foundation of truth and justice on which they "I knows yer blongs ter my con- rest remains unshaken. It is a debt gregashun, but yer has been mighty we owe to posterity that our records onregular in yer 'tendance at de Sun- should be made so complete and enday-school. I aint gwine ter marry during that those who come after us you, nor no udder member of my shall mot be misled by misreprecongregashun, until I has done satis- sentation and suppression of facts; fied myself dat de high contrackting this is the high duty which the so parties am familyar wid the ten com-mandments." ciety is striving to perform, to secure the means needful for that purpose. "I reckon I knows as much about Gen. Fitzhugh Lee has undertaken the laborous task of visiting our peo ple and telling them a story of the war, of which, like Æneas, he can say, 'All of which I saw,' and others map add, 'A great, great part of rnow dat myself befoah I come ter which you were. This gallant Austin. What I wants ter know am soldier, engaged in so honorable and patriotic a task, well deserves the at tention which it is your purpose to bestow, and I renew the expression of regret that circumstances beyond my control do not permit me to be with you on the occasion of his visit."

> A Brooklyn, landlady recently Judge Tourgee is delivering a lec-ture on "A Family of Fools." We

"Why, those are strange names for baven't heard it, but presume he re-