WEATHER BY POSTAL TELEGRAPH

Fair and slightly warmer tonight and Saturday.

Since we have requests for the recipe on German slaw introduced last week at the Electric Cooking school we give it here for any others who may desire it: "Clip with a pair of scissors three-fourths cup of bacon and cook to a golden brown, turn off heat then add 2 table spoons of lemon juice, 1 tea spoon salt, half tea spoon of dry mustard. Mix and pour over vegetables consisting of 2 cups of cabbage, 4 table spoons green pepper, 2 table spoons parsley, 1 table spoon onions. I made this the other day without the parsley and onions and it was good. Lemon pie recipe tomorrow.

Miss Comstock and Miss Hooper have returned to Melrose Lodge.

1000 paper plates, 10c a dozen at Buchanan's 5 & 10c Store. Also 1,000 paper spoons and forks, same price. Lily picnic package containing 35 pieces for 25c. Ask us about it.

"Divinely Healed" the World's famous leper, John Early will speak at the vacant lot opposite the Bulletin office, Saturday afternoon from 3 to 4 o'clock. Main subject: "Devils Church." Come and hear the truth, it will interest you.
