Scouts To Have Camp At Saluda

The Palmetto Council of Boy Scouts, comprising Spartanburg, Union, Cherokee and Chester counties, will have its summer camp near Saluda, N. C., it was announced yesterday by Charles Lea, Scout executive, who returned this week from a regional conference of Scout executives in Florida.

Mr. Lea said the camp will be located south of Saluda on the old Howard Gap road, near Cove Mountain.

The troop unit camping plan will be tried this year, according to Mr. Lea. The troops will go to camp as a unit and will function as such while there, he said.

Two new troops have been organized in the Palmetto council, according to Thomas Bryant, assistant Scout executive.
