

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 15. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, MAY 20, 1942

"What to Salvage"

What to look for in Your Attic—

Iron or brass bedsteads; electric cords, toasters, irons, heaters, fans, etc.; hardware—door knobs, hinges, keys, locks, trim, springs; kitchen utensils, pots, pans, knives, scissors; lamps made of brass, copper or iron; ornaments, statues, vases, ashtrays, etc. of brass or copper; metal porch or garden furniture; metal parts of radios, toys, skates; copper or brass screens.

What to look for in your Cellar—

Worn out coal stoves, furnace parts, radiators, fire extinguishers; metal parts of refrigerators, gas or electric stoves; piping of brass, copper or iron, old tools; bath tubs, faucets, sinks, laundry tubs.

What to look for in your Garage—

Automobile parts, chains, batteries, license plates; parts of motors, bicycles, tricycles, etc.

What to look for in your Yard—

Farm tools, metal fencing and posts, motors; chains, guttering, playground equipment pump handles.

Rubber Items—

Worn out tires and tubes, overshoes, boots, gloves, hotwater bags, mats, sponges, etc.

Save clean paper and rags for your own use but not for shipment. We are too far from conversion plants. Tin cans are NOT wanted in this area for the same reason.

Collect your salvage, repair and use what you can, sort and sep-

Continued on Back Page

CURB REPORTER

The weather on Tuesday was 85 high and 58 low Katharine Caldwell, Press Representative at Hotel Grosvenor, New York, reports the following: "Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Davis arrived at the Grosvenor Hotel this week from Tryon, N. C., where they have spent the winter and after a few days in New York continued on to their summer home in Nantucket. Ordinarily the Davises spend their winters in Bermuda, but the hazards of ocean travel changed their plans this year and they report a very pleasant stay in the South instead" Mrs. C. P. Rogers and Miss Helen Stearns will address the Saluda P.-T. A. on Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock on Civilian Defense. . . . The Asheville Citizen today listed Miss Molly Hague of Columbus as one of the graduates from Asheville College this year Hoke Jacobs is now a sergeant in the Army in the Canal Zone The Lightner vs. Boone case will be heard the first thing Monday morning in Henderson County court before Judge Hoyle Sink, according to The Hendersonville Times-News. . . . Sixty young people turned out for the Vacation Bible school at Columbus on Monday morning, according to Director Harry F. Bean. Miss Ruby Williams of Tryon, who was educated in young
Continued on Back Page