TO ENTERTAIN SOLDIERS

Chairman C. L. McGavern has announced that the Tryon committee will continue to entertainments for the Camp Croft soldiers this summer. The Parish House will be open Sunday week, June 14th (Flag Day), but there will be no service in the afternoon as heretofore. Ping pong and other games will be available and soldiers and hosts may enjoy the informal get-together the occasion offers. Supper will be served that night as usual. Forty men are expected. Reservations to entertain ten at Sunday dinner have already been received. Who will take one or more of the thirty others? Notify Mrs. F. P. Bacon, if you desire to have a soldier for dinner on Sunday, June 14th (Flag Day). If you can't do that but want to help in some way, you may leave a contribution with Tom Collum, treasurer, at Missildine's.

Daily Vacation Bible School

Beginning on Monday, June 15, and going through Friday June 26, there will be the Daily Vacation Bible school at the First Baptist church. The Methodist and Presbyterian churches are joining with the Baptist church to hold a co-operation school. All children are urged to attend.

In holding a cooperative school the pastors believe that greater good can be accomplished. The organization will include teachers from all the churches, thereby making available an unusually strong faculty.
