CURB REPORTER

Did anyone take pictures of the United Nations Flags which decorated Trade street on Flag Day? The office of Civilian Defense wants a picture, in colors if possible, of these flags. If you have one please leave it with C. J. Lynch, Carroll Rogers or the Bulletin office . . . . If you found a man on the street with a broken leg would you know how to give him first aid? It is getting more important for you to know because two Polk County doctors are already in the service and a third has been called. If we should have an air raid we would be poorly prepared. Few doctors and only a few men able to give first aid. If you want to keep us from being "too late with too little" join the next first aid class for MEN . . . . The Southern Railway has just issued an attractive illustrated folder advertising the chief points of interest on the Southern System. Western North Carolina with a picture of Asheville is the center of the Southern's attractions which cover an area from New Orleans to New York and from St. Louis, Mo., to Florida. . . . Weather on Tuesday low 58, high 81, rain .05. How about a cool 58 in Tryon during June. Saturday low was 60, Sunday low 68; Saturday high 90, Sunday 85 . . . . Today ends the first week of the fishing season.
