MacLaughlin-Trowbridge

The marriage of Miss Clare Wiederhold Trowbridge and Lieutenant Wilson Furness MacLaughlin of Upper Montclair, N. J., was solemnized Monday afternoon at 3:30 at the Episcopal Church of the Holy Cross. The Rev. C. P. Burnett officiated. Mrs. E. E. Missildine, organist, played a program of wedding music which included "Cantilena," from a violin concerto by Goltermann; "Cinquantino," "Andantino" by Lemare, "Berceuse" from Jocelyn by Godard, and "Evening Star", from Tannhauser by Wagner. The traditional Mendelssohn and Lohengrin wedding marches were played.

The church was attractively decorated with white pompoms, gardenias and Southern smilax.

The bride entered on the arm of her father, James R. Trowbridge, who gave her in marriage. The bride's sister, Mrs. Edward H. Conelli, of Larchmont, N. Y., was the matron-of-honor. The bridegroom's father, Wilson J. MacLaughlin of Upper Montclair, was best man.

The ushers were Robert Leighton, John L. Brown and John G. Landrum, Jr.

Among the out-of-town guests were the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson J. MacLaughlin, his sister, Mrs. Charles Shipman of Essex Falls, N. J., and the bride's aunt, Miss Antoinetta Wiederhold, of Orange, N. J.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Trowbridge, at Dogwood, in the Hunting Country. The home was decorated with pink pompoms, gladioli, and
