

5c PER COPY

$2.00 PER YEAR

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 15. Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, OCT. 16, 1942

DICK BURNETTE IN NAVY

R. C. "Dick" Burnette, proprietor of the Supreme Service Station, who volunteered recently for service in the Navy has been called on short notice to report to Jacksonville, Fla., training station today, October 16th. Mr. Burnette is a former secretary of the Tryon Rotary club and until a few days ago was a member of the Polk County Rationing Board. He will begin his work in the Navy as a machinist's mate, second class.

GARDEN CLUB MEETING

The first meeting of the Garden club will be held next Wednesday, October 21, at Oak Hall hotel in the sun room at 3:30. Mrs. Eugene Turner will read a paper on Twenty Centuries of Gardening in China and will exhibit some beautiful Chinese books. All the members of the club are expected to be present to discuss the policy of the club for the coming year.

JAP MONEY HERE

In a letter to the family several days ago, Capt. Bill Ward sent some Japanese paper money which the Japs left on Gaudalcanal island in their haste to leave the Solomon island. According to official reports Captain Ward has received special recognition for meritorious service in the battle of the Solomons.

A class in first aid has been organized here with Mrs. Boone of Tryon, teacher. Around 35 people have enrolled for this class.—Columbus News Notes.

CURB REPORTER

Weather Thursday: high 80, low 60 . . . Mrs. Karl G. Schairer, sister of Mellen C. Martin, writes from Jackson, Mich.: "I have become so attached to The Tryon Daily Bulletin that I don't like to miss a copy and beginning with the October 21st issue would like to have my address changed to Ferndale, Mich. The two months I spent at 'El Cerrito' last spring with Mrs. Martin were most delightful and I am looking forward to going to Tryon next spring." . . . Howard Landis, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Landis of Columbus, who enlisted in June, has been promoted to corporal in the signal corps at Fort Monmouth, N. J. . . . Many local people are sending gifts to the soldiers and boys away from home, but Mrs. Burley Williams received a beautiful all white range as a gift from her three sons, Marion, (somewhere at sea in the Navy), and Marvin and R. L. in defense plants near Baltimore . . . A new subscription to The Bulletin for Miss Mamie Thompson, care St. Catherine's School, Richmond, Va. . . . How would you like to volunteer as a T. B. I. to help win the war? If you see a piece of scrap iron anywhere that hasn't been turned in how about telephoning Mr. F. P. Bacon or The Bulletin office. Be a good "spy" for your county. . . .

Continued in Back Page