CURB REPORTER

Weather Tuesday: High 73, low 50 Hendersonville Times-News reports that Lieut. George M. Schreyer and wife spent the weekend at Fletcher while enroute from Camp Tyson, Paris, Tenn., to the Methodist conference in Charlotte. Lieutenant Schreyer told of his work as a chaplain in the army. He said, "I may not be as strong a Methodist as I was when I entered the army, but I am a better Christian." He said the government was doing everything possible for the spiritual welfare of those in the service . . . Tommy Marshall, student at Yale, has signed up for American Ambulance Corps and is expected to leave for Africa in the near future . . . Assistant Postmaster G. Isham Henderson is waiting for his "papers" expecting to be called into the army postal service soon . . . The Boy Scout Court of Honor Monday night in Tryon was impressed with the apparent thoroughness with which the Scouts are learning their work. Eagle Scout Jim Baker gave an interesting account of his studies in reptiles and Eagle Scout Bobby Dick stood an excellent examination on what he had learned about machinery. The resourcefulness of the negro Scouts received the applause of the court and audience. Dr. Taylor asked one of the Negro boys

FIRE BURNS HOUSE

Fire of an undetermined origin Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 destroyed an apartment house owned by the Southern Mercrizing company at Soumerco.

The building was occupied by the families of Zee Plumley and Albert Sawyer. Their household furnishings were considered to be a total loss.

The Tryon fire department prevented the flames from spreading to nearby buildings.

Machinery Being Installed In Old Pacolet Knitting Co.

Work of installing machinery in the old Pacolet Knitting Co., at Lynn is now underway.

The plant, owned by C. O. Story of Lynn will make war materials, it is said. Just when actual production of war materials will begin has not been stated.

Due to transportation problems and heavy machinery it is thought some time will be needed before the plant will be in operation.

Mr. Story has leased the property for the production of war needs.

FOOTBALL FRIDAY

The Tryon high gridders will play Marshall high school team at 3:30 Friday at Harmon Field. This is the sixth annual game between these teams. The Tryon boys are eager to win another home game.

Coach Edwin Beach says there will probably be some changes made in the line-up for Friday's game.
