

5c PER COPY

$2.00 PER YEAR

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper, Seth M. Vining, Editor.

Vol. 15. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, OCT. 29, 1942

URB REPORTER

Weather Wednesday: high 65, low 30 . . . . One of the biggest events in Polk County this week was the visit of Congressman A. L. Bulwinkle and his secretary Chas. Z. Flack. He is spending two days trying to meet as many people as possible because he will be a new congressman for the people of Polk County beginning in January. Major Bulwinkle has no Republican opponent. Wednesday night at Columbus court house he gave a non-partisan talk concerning the war situation and emphasized the necessity for increasing the size of the armed forces, greater production and sacrifice on the part of everyone in order to win the war and meet the expenses of it which already reached 249 billion dollars each will be paid 40 per cent in taxes and 60 per cent in War Bonds. He urged not only the purchase of War Bonds but asked the people to hold them until maturity for their own benefit as well as for the government's. The bill for 1943 will amount to 70 billion dollars, 28 billion to be collected in taxes and 42 billion in War Bonds. Major Bulwinkle who served in the first World War and on the Mexican border was instructed by Maj. Bernard Sharp of Tryon. Major Sharp says Major Bulwinkle was one of the most conscientious and

Continued in Back Page

Mother of R. H. Brady Died On Wednesday

Mrs. Joe M. Brady, 85, mother of R. H. Brady of Tryon, died Wednesday night about 7 o'clock in Landrum at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. R. Bagwell after an illness of over two months. Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the First Baptist church of Landrum.

The deceased was a native of Rutherford county but had made her home in Spartanburg county for 60 years. She is survived by three children as follows: Mrs. E. R. Bagwell of Landrum; O. L. Brady of Spartanburg and R. H. Brady of Tryon. Also a half brother, C. D. Smith, of Chesnee, S. C.

HALLOWE'EN CARNIVAL FRIDAY, 8 P. M.

Approximately seventy high school and elementary pupils of the Tryon school will present a short Hallowe'en play in the gymnasium on Friday night at 8 o'clock.

There are ghosts, witches, elves, goblins, bats and cats out to make merry and frighten mortals away. The prologue will be given by Carolene Blanchard.

The owls are: Barbara Todd, Sally Goodyear, Lilian Cromer, Frank Ford, Floyd McKaig, Shirley Anne Speigle. The cats are: Calvin Whitesides, Alan Mebane, Jean Capps, Bill Goodwin, Emily Shelton, Margaret Johnston, Virginia Gosnell, Mary Sue Hips, Vance McCown, Roy Blackwell, June Buckner, Wiley White. The witches are: Janet Derby, Valerie

Continued on Back Page