URB REPORTER

Weather Friday: High 68; low, 45 Sam Dobson, assistant county agent, who joined the Navy last week, has this address: S. H. Dobson, A. S. V-7 U. S. N. R. Midshipman's School, New York, N. Y. Today is challenge day and Registrar Eb Fisher will be at the voting place until 3 p. m., to receive complaints, if any. Major W. A. Schilleter is the commanding officer of the induction station at Fort Jackson, S. C. Tryonites were given a real treat Friday noon at the joint meeting of the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs to hear and see Cliff Berryman, noted Washington Star cartoonist, who drew pictures of the Presidents of the United States he has known during the fifty years he has been in Washington. Interesting accounts concerning the life of each President was given. A full house turned out to honor the speaker and a turkey luncheon was served by Sunnysdale. Following the program a scramble was made for the pictures of the Presidents. One artist expressed the hope that they would be framed or presented to the school. Mr. and Mrs. Berryman, who are guests of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Knight, will be here until Monday W. V. O'Neil has donated his 14 surplus tires to the government through the railway express company in Tryon
