Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 24—No. 302 TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1951

Weather Thursday: High 65, low 43, rain .03, Rel. Hum. 77 . . . "Well done," "excellent performance", etc., were among the words of praise heard Thursday night by experienced theatregoers at the Little Theatre production of "Hay Fever". The large audience displayed its appreciation with much laughter and applause. The direction, scenery and production in general showed the splendid cooperation and talents of the local theatre members . . . The second performance will be given tonight at 8:30. Patron tickets are available and that's one way open for everybody to have a part in this important community project . . . Members of the Riding & Hunt Club, all friends of the Riding & Hunt Club and its activities including those who help with the Horse Show are invited to a picnic on Pacolet River near the old Lynch Plantation next Wednesday, but they must phone their reservations soon to Pine Crest Inn, No. 102 and some one will take the name and number in the party. There is no charge to members of the club or their guests, but president Austin Brown states that the committee must know how much food to prepare . . . Tonight at 6:45 over Forest City Radio Station WBBO the contestants on the County
