Vol. 24—No. 313 TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1951

Weather Friday: High 65, low 27, Rel. Hum. 44; Saturday high 56, low 30, Rel. Hum. 56; Sunday high 68, low 31, Rel. Hum. 49 . . . The Korean war is serious. Loyal support to all patriotic efforts is needed if we win the victory. In order to avoid delay in making donations additional nurses and cots will be available Tuesday at the bloodbank for business and industrial men and women whose time is limited . . . Contributions for the Christmas Street decorations have come in from the following: L. E. Sayre, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Simpson, Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Falmer, Mrs. A. M. Law, Mrs. Sibyl Brendall. Chairman Harry Bridgeman reports that work will begin today on getting the green trees around which the colored lights will be strung. $400 is needed . . .

Mrs. Ethel Jordan has arrived from Geneva, Switzerland, to spend the winter at Oak Hall hotel. Other new arrivals during the week-end were Leo Bernache and J. Wilson of New York City, Columbia Artists, formerly with Fred Waring; Roy Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Carlton and Fred Weidl, all of New York City; Mrs. Mary B. Williams, Biltmore Forest; and Mr. and Mrs. William Dupre and two children of Clemson College. Mr.

LEAVE FOR INDUCTION

Two Polk County boys left Monday morning for the induction center where they will be classified for the armed forces. They are Ronald Everett Stepp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Steppe, who has a brother, Seth Vernon Steppe, already in Korea listed with the wounded. And the other was Lewis Herbert Mack, a volunteer. Rev. Orville H. White of the Congregational Church served as chaplain and presented prayer books and crosses for the Home Friendly Club. Mrs. Cary Page and Mrs. M. L. Thompson served coffee and distributed cigarettes also for the club.

Men's Garden Club Elects

At the annual meeting of the Men's Garden Club of Tryon Friday night at Oak Hall Major A. R. Herron was elected president to succeed J. A. Simpson; Walter A. Knoop was elected vice president; R. L. Dick, secretary and John Vollmer, treasurer. Following the business session colored slides of the Arboretum in Washington were shown by Oliver Freeman assisted by Wm. Barrow. A general discussion of garden problems, quality of soil, and care of plants followed the pictures.

Tryon Brownie troop No. 1 will not meet Tuesday, according to Mrs. Wofford Foster.
