

(Est. 1-31-28)

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

5c Per Copy

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 24—No. 316 TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, DEC. 6TH, 1951

Weather Wednesday: High 59, low 36, Rel. Hum. 78. The Bloodmobile at Tryon Tuesday collected 180 pints of blood: A total of 203 volunteers registered at the Parish House for this service and the Red Cross chapter with 42 volunteer workers assisted in the process of advertising, transportation, feeding, entertaining, registration and many other things. Dr. Frederick Star Wright of the Asheville Center said, "The people of this area again came through in excellent style, as they always do." The residents of Landrum joined the Polk County group in this patriotic cause . . . The Congregational Church Women are serving a family dinner (a buffet supper) Friday night at 7 at the Church House to all interested in the church. Mrs. C. E. Heard is chairman. A film, "Second Chance" by Faith Baldwin will be shown following the supper.

HUXLEY AT ROTARY

Henry Huxley who recently returned from a trip to Japan, will be the chief speaker at the Tryon Rotary Club Friday.

Farmers are using three times as much fertilizer as they did ten years ago.

A Merry Christmas to All

Additional contributions to the Trade Street Christmas Decorations have come in from the following: Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Turner, Ballew's Grocery, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry D. Drew, Miss L. B. Whittemore, Dr. and Mrs. Clarence V. Kerr, Buchanan's 5&10c Store, Mrs. Archie Butler, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Mapes, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Bartlett, Arledge Hardware, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Trowbridge, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Chase, The Misses James and Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Carruth, Mrs. B. King Couper.

Chairman Harry Bridgeman of the Chamber of Commerce Committee stated this morning that most of the bulbs had been strung on the trees and that the committee hoped to have the trees lighted tonight.

Mrs. Sibyl Brendall, treasurer of the fund reports that about one-fourth of the money had been raised to carry out the project. Donations may be sent to John C. Landrum of the Tryon Bank and Trust Co., direct to the Chamber of Commerce or to The Bulletin office.

NO COUNTRY LIKE OURS

Carroll Rogers spoke to the Kiwanis Club Tuesday at Oak Hall Hotel and told the highlights of his recent trip to Europe. Mr. Rogers was particularly impressed with the way the British were attempting to get their country on a sound financial basis again. The speaker told of the many beautiful and historical places in Europe, but felt that no country on earth was blessed with scenery and people

Continued on Back Page