THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 24—No. 334 TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, JANUARY 1, 1952

Happy New Year to ALL. The year begins as a warm spring day. Often in this area many warm days in January bring out the peach blossoms which are later killed by colder weather . . . The Parish Paper of the Episcopal Church of Advent says, "Fill us with a gallant and undaunted spirit, that we may be diffusers of life, invigorating all we meet."

. . . A new corporation, "Newspaper Management-Production Co.," headed by Publisher Phil Buchheit, has taken over the publication of the Spartanburg Herald and Jour-

The only change in the execution and management of the two papers will be the promotion of Charles O. Hearon from associate editor to editor. Mr. Hearon is a former owner of both papers. He is a great booster of the Up Country which includes Polk county. His many friends will be happy to know that he will continue to help build this section . . . Congratulations to the Town of Tryon management on doing so many small things that add to the comfort and safety of its citizens. The rough places in the side walk on Meirose Ave. where the tree roots have lifted the pavement, have been smoothed out and the
