Vol. 24—No. 335 TRYON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, JAN. 2ND, 1952

Weather Monday: High 74, low 45, Rel. Hum. 77; Tuesday high 77, low 46, Rel. Hum. 64. Total precipitation for 1951 was 53.81 inches. Departure from normal minus 6.19; greatest 10.48 in December; least .67 in May . . . Now that New Year's Day is over, and bowl games and parties no longer claim our attention we can get ready for a big year of achievement. Holidays and Sundays coming close together was confusing. . . . Tryon public schools and the Bowen-West Nursery and Kindergarten School will re-open Monday, January 7th, for the second semester. . . . Our national leaders are considering the world situation and there is some hope of peace as America gets stronger from day to day. Strength is the only thing the Russians recognize. A nation that is run by gangsters has no mercy for the weak. It has no sense of honor and promises mean nothing. As long as America can throw out congressmen and elect a new set of rulers from two to four years there is hope of keeping Washington from getting completely in the control of the same type of men as rule the Kremlin . . . We must keep alert; make ourselves and our families independent and self supporting
