

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 24—No. 346 TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, JAN. 17TH, 1952

Weather Wednesday: High 76, low 46, Rel. Hum. 42. The nice thing about the temperature in Tryon is the great difference in the day and night recordings. No matter how hot it gets in the day time, the nights are always much cooler, making it comfortable for sleeping. . . . The snow-bound streamliner in Northern California was reached Wednesday by a relief train and the last of 192 passengers rescued after days of imprisonment in the train. . . . President Truman asks $5 billion increase in taxes. . . . Prime Minister Winston Churchill will address both houses of the Congress today noon at 12. The speech will be broadcast over the radio. He and Truman will have a talk Friday at 3 p. m., at the White House. . . . Henry Hart will be in charge of the Tryon Rotary Club program Friday and will have as guest speaker, David F. Fall, headmaster of the Asheville School of which Mr. Hart is an alumnus and member of the board of trustees. Mr. Fall's subject will be on the responsibility of independent schools in the world today. . . . Two meetings scheduled for tonight include the Duplicate Bridge Tournament at Oak Hall at 7:30 and the Tryon Parent-Teachers meeting at the school.

----- Continued on Back Page -----

Tryon Processing Company
Consolidated With Moss-Foy

Moss-Foy Textile Company of Mount Airy, N. C., is being consolidated with the Tryon Processing Company in Tryon and W. D. Moss Jr., of Moss-Foy Textile is succeeding Ray A. Spooner at the Tryon plant in charge of operations here and Mr. Spooner is returning to the home office in Charlotte, according to an announcement made by officials Wednesday afternoon.

Hospital Officers Elected

The Board of Trustees of St. Luke's Hospital met Tuesday and elected the following officers: Clement D. Stevens, president; George S. Brannon, vice president; K. A. Bowen, secretary; Lucius E. Sayre, treasurer.

Members re-named on the board include Nelson Jackson, Mrs. Arthur Laidler Jones, K. A. Bowen; holdovers are C. D. Stevens, Chas. G. Sewall, George S. Brannon, John G. Landrum and Samuel A. Bingham.

RAMSEY PICKED ON ALL-STAR TEAM

Bob Ramsey of the Columbus Capitols was picked for the YMCA County League to play the Vagabond Kings for the benefit of the March of Dimes at Memorial Auditorium on Jan. 25th.

An all-star girls team was also picked to play the league-leading Columbus Capitols in the preliminary at 6:45. The Columbus team is composed of former Polk County High School cage stars. The roster reads: Jean Capps, Maxine Capps Taylor, Sarah Capps, Bar-

----- Continued On Back Page -----