TRYON, N. C.,

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1952

Weather Monday: high 61, low 46, rain .27, Rel. Hum. 60 The first March of Dimes held in Tryon took place Saturday from Missildines to the Bank. The start was slow as it takes a lot of dimes to make a foot, but once they began to show up quarters, half dollars and even checks and folding money joined the procession as passersby saw what was up. The long line of silver became fascinating. After a few hours it started raining. The checks and paper money were picked and with clothes pins and lines borrowed from Arledge Hardware they were hung up under awnings of the stores while the silver money carried on the white line to the bank. Chairman Craig Thomas states that over $411.00 was raised. Leonard Porter was master of ceremonies with the loud speaker and was assisted by Harold Griffith. Others helping included Seth Vining Jr. and his Boy Scout Troop, Mrs. John McGuinn and her Cub Scouts, Clyde Tharpe, Thurston Arledge, Demus Chapman, J. A. Simpson, Harrison Bridgeman Jr., S. Davidson and many others gave a helping hand from time to time to make occasion a success for the crippled children. News has been received in Tryon of the marriage of
