Susan McBurney Wins Rotary Scholarship

Miss Susan McBurney

Susan J. McBurney of Tryon was awarded the 1980-81 Clay Gordon Memorial Scholarship, sponsored by the North Carolina Western District of Rotary International.

Miss McBurney, a senior at Northwestern University and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. McBurney, was one of eleven contestants competing for the scholarship in Rotary's Western District, which includes Charlotte and all counties to the west. The scholarship carries a $3,500 award and is intended to provide an opportunity for an American college graduate to pursue continued study in a foreign country and at the same time to serve as an American ambassador of good will.

A New Arrival

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hutcherson of Rt. 1, Landrum, are parents of a son, Eric Randall, born Jan. 7, at 8:54 p.m. at Spartanburg General Hospital. He weighed 5 lbs. 15 oz.

The paternal grandparents are T. H. Hutcherson of Hickory Grove and Mrs. Rachel Lineberry of Houston, Texas. The maternal grandparents are Mrs. Vivian Belue, and the late Flavous Belue of Rt. 1, Landrum.

Hospital Board Elects Officers

Chairman Theo Burrell and Trustee B. J. Womack, having declined to accept another term, left St. Luke's governing board after the January meeting, to the plaudits and thanks of their fellow trustees — recorded on a plaque presented to each.

These vacancies, as ruled by the bylaws, are filled by election, ex officio, of President Howard J. Spika and Chief of Medical Staff Donald Gilbert, as voting members of the board.

Newly elected officers are Chairman O. O. Paulsell; Vice-Chairman, Horace Smith; Secretary, William Egerton; Treasurer, Richard Palmer. These four, plus Mrs. Paul Culbertson, compose the Executive Committee.

Other committees elected are Finance: Messrs. Paulsell, Smith, Palmer, and Mrs. George Dusenbury and Davis Kirby.

Announces For County Commissioner

Paul Butler

Paul Butler has resigned as Chairman of the Polk County Republican Party to seek election to the Polk County Board of Commissioners in the up-coming elections.

He is a native of Tryon and is married to the former Janet Derby, also of Tryon.

He received his education at Tryon High School, graduating with the class of 1944, and the University of Georgia where he graduated in 1950 with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Forestry.

Butler enlisted in the Navy in 1944 and served 2 years in the western Pacific before being discharged. He returned to active duty in the Korean War and was commissioned in 1952. He retired from the Navy in 1973 with the rank of Lieutenant Commander.

Since retiring from service,
