

POLK LIBRARY
BOX 1-AA RT 1
COLUMBUS, N. C.

28722

11 NOV 90

2nd Class Postage Paid At
Tryon, North Carolina, 28782
Established January 31, 1928

THE WORLD'S SMALLEST DAILY NEWSPAPER
Member: North Carolina Press Assn.
(Consolidated with the Polk County News 1955)
Seth M. Vining, Jr., Editor and Manager

The Bulletin is published
Daily except Sat. and Sun.
106 N. Trade St., P. O. Box 790
Tryon, N. C. 28782

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(USPS 643-360)

Printed in the THERMAL BELT of Western North Carolina

Phone 859-9151

8 Pages Today

Vol. 53 — No. 3

TRYON, N. C. 28782

MONDAY, FEB. 4, 1980

Price 10c Per Copy

No official weather report for Thursday, but it was cold. Friday morning it was still cold, even though the bright sunshine made it look warmer than it was.

Even though it was cold here, we seemed to have missed the full force of the winter storm which has the South shivering. From Mississippi to Maryland, people shoveled, slipped and shivered Thursday in the throes of a storm that topped ice-laden trees and power lines and left thousands in the South without heat.

Dutch Queen Juliana announced her abdication Thursday after 31 years on the throne. Her daughter, Crown Princess Beatrix will succeed her, carrying on the centuries old dynasty of the House of Orange. She will step down April 30th on her 71st birthday.

Police stormed the Spanish Embassy, in Guatemala which had been occupied earlier Thursday by peasants. More than 30 persons were killed in the fighting and fire that broke out during the attack.

A check with the Polk County Board of Elections Friday showed that other candidates not already announced are Fred Earl

Continued On Back Page

Files For House

John Jackson (Jack) Hunt

Dr. John Jackson (Jack) Hunt of Lattimore has filed for re-election subject to the Democratic Primary. He is a graduate of Lattimore High School, Wake Forest College, Emory University. He is a dentist and owner of Roundup Stores. He lives on a farm and is an active farmer.

Rep. Hunt has served three terms in the N. C. House of Representatives. He is married to the former Ruby Crowder and they have five grown daughters.

He is a member of the First Baptist Church in Shelby, member of the Board of Advisors of Gardner-Webb College, on Board of Directors of Royster Memorial Hospital and on Parents Board of Meredith College. He is past president of the Lattimore PTA and a member of the Fellowship of

Continued On Back Page

New Dining Place In Tryon

Joan Schairer has announced the opening of The Dinner Bell, a full service restaurant, on Sunday, February 10. It is located across from the Fine Arts Center in Melrose Lodge. Mrs. Schairer said that it is intended to fill the void left by the closing of Oak Hall. Ted King, well known for his many years in the Oak Hall dining room, will be in charge, with Gladys Toney from the Oak Hall kitchen preparing some of the old favorites plus many new dishes.

According to an ad Sunday dinner will be served in two seatings — 12:30 and 2:00. Both lunch and dinner will be served Monday through Friday. The Dinner Bell will be closed on Saturdays.

Mrs. Schairer, the proprietor, was brought up in the restaurant business and has had wide experience in restaurant operation and in dealing with the public. She and her husband, Fred and daughter, Jane moved here in mid-1978 and have been active in Tryon area community and church affairs.

Prevention Of Drug Abuse Kiwanis Program

The Polk County Mental Health Program is conducting an effort in all county schools to stem the tide of increasing drug abuse by area young people.

Continued On Back Page

Files For County Commissioner

Dr. Wm. R. Bosien

William Riley Bosien, M. D. has announced that he had filed with the Polk County Board of Elections as a candidate for Polk County Commissioner, subject to the May 6 Democratic Party Primary election. Dr. Bosien, a retired general surgeon had practiced in Polk County for 25 years prior to retiring in 1979.

When announcing his candidacy, Dr. Bosien stated that he had been considering entering the race for several weeks and was finally influenced by many friends who encouraged him to file.

Dr. Bosien commented that he has long had an interest in local government and thought that he had a good knowledge of Polk County, its residents, and its problems. He acknowledged that there would be many problem

Continued On Back Page