Weather Tuesday: high 42, low 25. Wednesday at 6 a.m. there was 2" of snow (.16 precipitation)

The State highway crews and the Town of Tryon did a good job in clearing the roads and most people were able to come and go as long as they were careful. It was another beautiful snow. Just enough to cover the trees and ground and not too much on the highways.

Attorney General Benjamin Civiletti opposes turning over any evidence in the FBI's political corruption probe to congressional investigators, until the criminal cases are closed.

American Telephone & Telegraph Co. said Tuesday it earned a record $5.67 billion in 1979, the largest annual profit ever reported by a company. AT&T is the biggest corporation in the world based on assets of more than $100 billion.

Jenny Owens Is Featured

The Friday, Feb. 1st issue of the Charlotte Observer had a feature on Jenny Owens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Owens of Pineville, formerly of Tryon, who is playing basketball for South Mecklenburg High School. It appeared in the "High School Corner" — Here's Looking At...

"Jenny Owens, South Mecklenburg: South Mecklenburg is currently in a 3-way tie for second place in the Southwestern 4A, and a big reason is Owens. She hit 18 points Friday and 16 Tuesday, despite playing only about a half in each contest (South gave its reserves plenty of playing time in each game.) In Tuesday's 74-45 victory over West Mecklenburg, Owens connected on 7 of 9 from the floor, mostly from the 15-foot range. A 5-8 junior, she played varsity last year and has been making steady improvement. "She really has good court sense", said South coach Estelle Barentine."
