Weather Wednesday: high 39, low 29. At 6 a.m. Thursday there was 1 inch of snow and .09 precipitation.

The area got a little more snow Wednesday, but the main roads were kept clear. Schools were closed Wednesday and Thursday.

The life of a fireman is not very pleasant on a cold night with snow and ice on the ground. The Tryon Volunteer firemen were called out at 2 a.m. Thursday when the home of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Starling was destroyed by fire. All clothing and furniture were destroyed. The Starlings have a girl five, who wears a 6X dress; a girl 13 who wears a woman's size 8 or 10 dress and a son, who wears a size 12 or 14. Mrs. Starling wears a size 12 or 14 dress and Mr. Starling a 42 jacket and pants with a 38 waist. They have no furniture, if you have something that you can donate, leave at 106 N. Laurel Ave., Landrum or call 457-4471.

The Children's Theater Production, "The Lion Who Wouldn't" has been rescheduled for Saturday at 7:30 p.m. at the Tryon Elementary School auditorium.

The Household Furnishings Sale at 410 Newmarket Road has been rescheduled for Saturday at
